BIRTH

REDFIELD—February 29, 1924, at 2104 South Sixth street, to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Redfield, a six-pound son named Lyle Edgar, Jr.

Restoration of Germany's colonies and pre-war rights is the price demanded by the German colonial society for the alleged new remedy which is said to prevent sleeping sickness. A genuine remedy for sleeping sickness and malarial fever would convert Central Africa into a prosperous country.

Ohio has more United States pensioners than any other state.

The proportion of students supporting themselves in the various American colleges is estimated as follows: Yale, one-third; Princeton, one-quarter; University of Chicago, one-half; University of California and the College of the City of New York, 60 per cent. The self-supporting student is 85 per cent of Tufts and 68 per cent of the University of Washington.

Campfire Girls of New York have been requested to popularize old-time American folk songs such as "Old Black Joe," "Swanee River," "Old Kentucky Home," and such old English and Scottish ballads as "Auld Lang Syne" and "Comin' Thro' the Rye." Few girls in camp last summer knew the words of these songs.

Approximately eighty per cent of the corn crop in the United States is sold on "the hoof" in the form of hog.
