Snow on the Green Springs mountain had fallen to the depth of from four to six inches according to Miss Moore, and when they left Ashland yesterday morning, snow was falling in considerable quantities. Traffic on the Green Springs road was much heavier than on the Pacific highway, Mrs. Moore said.

WALTER HEIRS SCORES

Walter Heirs' new Paramount picture, "Sixty Cents an Hour," was shown with gratifying results at the Pine Tree Theatre last evening. Jacqueline Logan, featured as leading woman, shared honors with the star.

On a salary of $7.50 a week, Jimmy Kirk (Walter Heirs) is a firm believer in M. C. C. and every day in every way he is getting richer and richer, but upon the reduction of his salary to six dollars he is at his wits' end. But a man with ambition is not to be downed. So Jimmy purchases a small strip of land next to the Zavina National bank. It is here that he expects to establish himself in business, but when he finds that the bank extends an illegal foot over his property, everything takes a turn for the better. "Move it off or buy me out," commands Jimmy of the bank president, who goes buy him out and at Kirk's price. It is now that Jimmy has his in-
