Ten Years Ago Today

April 14, 1914—
 Seeks Clerkship—
 That the office of county clerk will be contested at the November election was shown today when J. H. Everett, a local merchant, filed announcement of candidacy for the nomination at the hands of the democrats. Thus far he is the only democrat listed as a candidate for this office.

 On the republican ticket there are two candidates for the nomination, County Clerk C. R. DeLap and K. D. North.

I said, "Come let's play poker." Said she, "Why surely, Jim." And so we played for kisses. She didn't try to win.

Oil Acreage

A week ago we set aside a block of 25 forty-acre tracts to be sold at $100 each, to complete our well, now down more than 1400 feet. Eleven of these tracts have already been sold, leaving only 24 to dispose of.

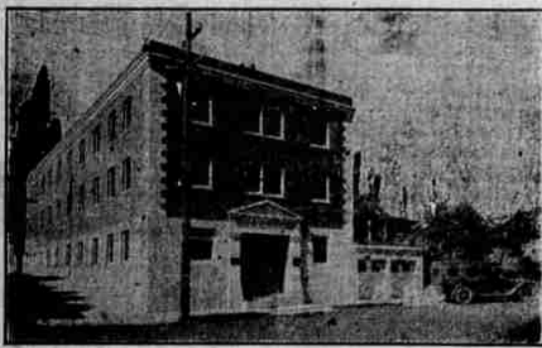

Work is progressing steadily and the driller is making from 15 to 25 feet daily. The hole is dry. The Yonna Valley Oil & Gas company has never sold any stock. The well has been financed to its present depth by ranchers of the district.

Our driller, an experienced man, states he believes oil will be struck in the next 150 feet. Barring accidents, this should be less than two weeks from today.

Money you pay for the acreage goes to put the hole down. All the acreage we are offering is between the Yonna Valley and the West Coast well, immediately adjacent to the former. If either of them is a well, your 40 acres should make you independent for life. For information write to
