GRAND JURY IN OIL CASE NAMED

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Selection of a grand jury before which will be presented criminal charges growing out of the senate's oil investigation, was completed today in the District of Columbia supreme court.

The grand jury immediately retired to its quarters with an assistant district attorney and presentation of preliminary evidence was begun.

Albee Pomerene and Owen J. Roberts, special government counsel, are assisting the district attorney's office in presentation of the case.

Virginia Strange, 41-year-old daughter of Representative Frank L. Strange, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, has the distinction of being the first girl page in the Kentucky state legislature.

PREPARE FOR EVEREST DASH

CALCUTTA, April 25.—If we don't get to the top of Everest this time it will not be our fault," was the smiling assurance of General Bruce when he landed in Calcutta as the head of the new expedition to climb the world's highest peak. "I seldom felt fitter in my life, and all the other members of the party sign. On the last trip we could not have been better treated."

General Bruce stated that the scientific work of the expedition would be similar to that of previous years, except that on this occasion it was hoped to intensify observations and to secure a better photographic record. "We are as keen as mustard to be off," he said, "for with all its hardships there is fun in it."

What we are all praying for is a late monsoon. The question of whether we are successful or not will depend largely on this. If the monsoon comes early, our chances will be greatly reduced. On the other hand if it keeps off until well on in June, it will do us an infinite amount of good. As may be expected, an excursion of this kind must inevitably depend upon the luck in various forms, but particularly in the shape of propitious weather.

The general plans are similar to those of previous expeditions. The start is to be made from Darjeeling. Much care has been expended in the selection of equipment, numerous improvements having been made on the basis of former experience.

THE WEATHER

The Cyclo-Stormograph at Underwood's Pharmacy started to fall at 1:30 today.

Forecast for next 24 hours: Generally fair and warmer.

The Tyco's registering thermometer has recorded maximum and minimum temperatures as follows: High, 62; Low, 25.

WARNS AGAINST FOREST FIRES

OLYMPIA, April 25.—With relatively less humidity than at any time since the big forest fires of 1922, and one serious fire reported to have swept more than one section of timber in southern Cowlitz county and numerous smaller fires throughout western Washington, Supervisor of Forestry Pape today issued an urgent warning to lumbermen and railways to watch over the fire situation.

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 25.—Two forest fires are sweeping an area in the vicinity of Battleground and Lucia, 15 miles north of here.

Two thousand, four hundred and fifty-two men were killed by accidents in coal mines in the United States in 1923.

How Forest Protection Will Pay in Klamath

Forest Protection Will Pay Klamath and You.

The Klamath District has 35,000,000,000 feet of standing timber—more soft pine than any other county in Oregon.

Protection of her forests from fire and their proper utilization will keep Klamath always in the lead in the production of box shooks and lumber.

But more than this, Klamath scenery, her mountains, her valleys, and her lakes—with GREEN forests—will bring the world to see them, to settle here, to develop the county.

Gray snags in burned areas are virtual tombstones—of the trees themselves, and of economic development.
