SHEPHERD DIES AT HOME IN ASHLAND

Charles Foster Shepherd who passed away at his home on the Boulevard at Ashland, Oregon, May 26th was born in Bureau county, Illinois, October 28, 1847. The family moved to Ohio during Mr. Shepherd's early childhood and he was a resident of that state until 1873 when he came to Portland, Oregon and engaged in the piano business. Many of the square pianos and parlor organs sold in Willamette valley homes by Mr. Shepherd came around Cape Horn by schooner, being several months en route. After several years he returned to Ohio and was married to R. Medora Twining at Findlay, Ohio. The lure of the west and failing health called him again to Oregon and in 1889 he permanently located at Ashland with his family. By camping and pioneering an extensive territory throughout Southern Oregon and northern California

In the piano business he regained his health and established an enviable reputation for the quality of his instruments and the reliability of his work. He was a member of the Blue Lodge, Chapter, Commandry and Shrine of the Masonic Fraternity, the B. P. O. E. and the I. O. O. F. The widow and son Earl, a music dealer of Klamath Falls, survive him. The younger son, Kale, passed away four years ago.
