

BANKING IDEALS THEME OF TALK

Promotion of Happiness Is One Aim of Money

MILWAUKEE, June 25. — Real dividends from a bank loan are not in the collection of principal and interest, but in the incentive which is given to productive achievement and the consequent gain in the aggregate of wealth and happiness. Walter F. Head, president of the American Bankers' association, declared here today in an address before the Wisconsin Bankers' association.

The banker's interest in his "does not end with an examination of his statement and approval of the loan. It begins then. The interest in his debtor is not merely collection of the debt when due. It is to interest that the borrower shall make his business successful in the largest possible way. He may collect his debt by selling his debtor's assets at auction, but if that is all he accomplishes he has failed.

"The banker achieves success only when the money he loans enables an industry or a business to develop and grow, to become an increasing factor in the community, to contribute by its prosperity to the greater prosperity of those dependent upon it, and through them, to the greater prosperity of the entire territory in which it is located.

"To be bankers today, they also must be economists, sociologists, business men, versed in industry and in commerce, psychologists, knowing human nature, statesmen, understanding of politics, and they must have a knowledge of international affairs.

"It is because of adherence to the principle that bankers must be men of general affairs, that the association is sponsoring a campaign of co-operation with the farmer."

GUilty PLEA MADE ON LIQUOR CHARGE IN WALKER'S TRIAL

Charles Walker, Barnes Valley rancher, arrested Friday afternoon by a raiding party headed by Sheriff Low, entered a plea of guilty to possession of a still and possession of mash in justice court this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Justice of the Peace R. A. Emmitt set Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock as time for sentence. He was released on a $500 bond.

Walker's brother, Jay Walker, who is a rancher of Langell Valley has plead not guilty to the two above charges. His case will come up for further consideration on Saturday at 1 p. m.

Just prior to entering a plea of guilty, Charley Walker said: "There is no question but what I am guilty of the charges against me, but my brother is guiltless. He just happened to be visiting at my ranch at the time of the arrest."

Vaudeville Show at Pine Tree Succes: Tony Travers Attraction on Accordion.

An all-round show was presented at the Pine Tree theater last night including four acts of vaudeville and Cosmopolitan's feature "The Green Goddess" featuring George Arliss and Alice Joyce. As an added number with the vaudeville, Tony Travers, the accordion player with Warner Brothers, the Rio-Tin-Tin company, came out with heavy band and announced he was the fellow that was "falling off the log" now that was the moving picture player. He gave an assortment of melodies on his accordion which he plays with a master hand. The McKay Earl Trio presented their conception of a vaudeville review, introducing little Baby McKay who delighted with several numbers to the delight of the audience. The act shows much study and truly is a modern review de luxe. The "Two Roses" have a clever act of "artistic dancing and tumbling. Their dancing is graceful and scored a hit with the first nighters. The Freeland Brothers open the show with several difficult hand balancing tricks, all done while in the air on chairs. The feature picture shows George Arliss in "The Green Goddess."

LAKE COUNTY AREA NEEDS RAIN BADLY

Lake county, particularly that section north of Silver Lake, is badly in need of water, according to information brought by United States Commissioner Bert C. Thomas, after a two-day trip throughout the north-western part of Lake county. "Cattle are literally dying of thirst; along the road were many dead animals, Mr. Thomas says.

"At one place where there was a water hole there were hundreds of cattle and horses that crowded around the hole and soaked up all the water they could before venturing back onto the river. The trip from Kirk went to Silver Lake was beautiful. I never realized before what wonderful timber we have in this country. As far as the eye can see the hills are clothed with pine trees."

Crowds See Comedy At Liberty Theatre

Warner Brothers Photodrama, "Geo. Washington, Jr." Is Success Here.

George M. Colahan's famous stage play, "George Washington, Jr.," which opened to packed houses yesterday at the Liberty theater, where it was shown, has been admirably transferred to the screen by Warner Brothers and makes a motion picture full of clean humor and plenty of action. It proves an extremely good vehicle for Wesley Barry who is seen for the first time in what is pretty near a grown-up role. This picture will be shown again today.

As "George Washington, Jr.," who would not tell a lie nor countenance an untruth in those about him, Barry is faithful. He gives the touch of truth to the whole portrayal which is the height of dramatic art.

"George Washington, Jr." is the story of a boy who worships our first President, and decides to build his own character, along the lines laid out by the great statesman.

How George, Jr., his pal and an old negro servant who shows pugilistic tendencies, put Bolsheviks to rout, expose a bogus count, recover papers of state which the count had stolen from George's father, and bring about the marriage of the girl to her real lover, furnishes action enough for six pictures also comedy in big, large quantities.

The sterling supporting cast is composed of Gertrude Olmstead, Leon Bary, Charles Conklin, Otis Harlan, William Courtwright and Edward Phillips. The direction is by Mal St. Clair, who is now in Klamath Falls directing a Rin-Tin-Tin picture.

TRAPPER TO START ACTION ON COYOTE PESTS AT SPYAGUE

Mike Galarneau, experienced government trapper who has been working in the vicinity of Merrill for the past few months, was sent this morning to Lower Sprague river valley to trap and poison coyotes in that section in the hope that he may be able to kill the mad coyotes that have killed 14 head of cattle during the past week.

Mr. Galarneau, was taken to the scene of the killings, by John Hagelstein who lost eight steers from his herd. Mr. Galarneau will lay all his traps and has ordered more. Poisoning operations will be more or less unsuccessfull during the hot weather, Galarneau said, as the fat in which the poison is placed melts under a hot season.

D. 1924, and to me directed, notice is hereby given that I have levied upon the following described real property, to-wit: Part Lot 2, Block 23, Original Town, 20x10, taken and levied upon as the property of J. R. Herberberger, in satisfaction of a certain paving lien created and docketed by the City of Klamath Falls, Oregon, for a proportionate share of the cost of improving Third Paving Unit, Intersection, which said lien is docketed in Volume 1 of the Bond Lien Docket of said City at page 82 thereof on the date of October 10, A. D. 1910, in the sum of $101.73. Notice is also hereby given that the undersigned will, on the 28th day of June A. D. 1924, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the front door of the City Hall in said City, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the above mentioned and described real property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the above lien in the sum of $71.22, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 16th day of October, A. D. 1910, and together with the costs and disbursements of sale hereunder.
GEO. L. HUMPHREY, Chief of Police of the City of Klamath Falls, Oregon. 28-4-11-18-25
