

BOURBONS HAVE DEMONSTRATION

session today, getting the document into shape following a hearing which continued until after 1 o'clock this morning. Declarations on foreign relations, farm relief, prohibition and the Ku Klux Klan, are the most difficult problems confronting the drafting committee.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The Oregon delegation caucusing again today elected George A. Marshall delegation chairman in place of John H. Stevenson. The action is the result of action of the credential committee yesterday seating June Burke as alternate in place of Claire Pierce, daughter of Governor Pierce. The change gave Marshall a majority over Stevenson.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The American people will be on trial before the world in the coming presidential campaign. Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, declared today in an address upon assuming the permanent chairmanship of the democratic national convention.

whether they will continue in power the party now in control of the government; notwithstanding the scandals disclosed in senate investigations.
"I can not admit the accusation," Senator Walsh said, "that the American people are indifferent to the corroding influence of corruption in office, high or low. But we shall see. They are on trial.
"If, notwithstanding what has transpired the party now in power in the nation if continued in control by the choice of the people of the United States, apparent or real, what judgment must be passed upon them by the world?"

Government Erected
"They enjoy the distinction of having erected and maintained a government whose offices are free from suspicion of venality as those of any nation on earth, and they will NOT, I venture to predict, forfeit it."

Charging spokesmen of the republican party with attempts at palliation of the offenses of the "unfaithful public servants," Senator Walsh declared that it "is in this easy tolerance of turpitude in public office that the real peril to free government lies rather than in its casual occurrence."

"The president of the United States himself," he continued, "has NOT hesitated to endeavor to shield the delinquents from the public odium to which their derelictions have subjected them by holding in the hue and cry against the investigations that have been conducted under the authority of the senate and against that body for authorizing them. His message on the subject had for its plain purpose the suppression of an injury into the official conduct of a member of his cabinet.

History Is Cited
Senator Walsh said President Coolidge had historic warrant for his attitude, recalling that when the British house of commons sought to investigate the Duke of Buckingham, Charles would not permit it. "Charles lost his head," the senator added, "and Calvin Coolidge may profit politically by his example."

Declaring the republican party to be impotent in the face of "an impending national calamity," Senator Walsh said that because of antagonisms within its ranks it had ceased to be an organization through which the business of the country can be carried on.

"It has no remedy, it offers no relief from the paralysis that afflicts agriculture, threatening every form of industry," the chairman said. "Moreover, it finds itself plagued with representatives in both houses of congress, holding views so radically antagonistic to those of the dominant faction in the party as to preclude the possibility of uniting on any program of legislation."

Insurgency Is Topic
Efforts of the dominant faction to shake off the insurgent members is as ludicrous as it will prove futile," the speaker continued, adding that they could not be broken off because they have the endorsement of their people.

Senator Walsh said he knew how eager the managers of the campaign for the re-election of President Coolidge, "were to switch the issues from honest government, the repeal of the new tariff abominations, relief for agriculture and related reforms to the league of nations." He added that it was not so necessary that America immediately join the league as that it would abandon foolish antagonisms to any world movement merely because it was in some way associated with the league.

"The honor of our country," he declared, "the prosperity of our people, demand that we return to the ideals of Woodrow Wilson, that we resume the place he won for us—the moral leadership of the world."

2 DIVORCE ACTIONS STARTED IN COURT
That her husband treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner in that he remained away at night, that he frequently associated with other women and that he was often in an intoxicated condition are the allegations of Mrs. Merle King who brought suit for divorce in circuit court today against Alonzo King. The couple were married in San Francisco, October 8, 1922.

Also alleged cruel and inhuman treatment at the hands of her husband is Mrs. Agnes B. Cook who brought suit for divorce against Charles R. Cook in circuit court this afternoon.

Mrs. Cook prays for the custody of the two minor children, Willie May aged 19 months, and Agnes aged three years and six months, also she asks that the defendant pay $20 alimony per month for the support of the two minor children and that he pay her attorney's fees of $100.

People who a lot of trouble they should keep away from.

WAR IS HELL! —So is a Fire

We claim all speed records for the Pacific Coast in "getting going" again.

In thirty days we will be operating in a new concrete building—bigger, better than ever.

Meanwhile, through the courtesy of Ashland and Medford laundries, we are (commencing today) continuing our regular service. Our delivery wagons will call for and deliver your wash on the same schedule as before the fire.

Our trucks will make daily trips to Ashland and Medford, taking over and returning the wash.

We regret very much the loss and inconvenience this fire has been to our customers, but we are going to serve you again, even better than before, and in a fire-proof building.

Our Phone 33 is still Yours for a Bigger and Better Laundry In 30 Days
