

EVENTS OF INTEREST

Poe Valley Construction Progresses
Laying of brick on the new brick school house of Upper Poe valley has started according to the county school superintendents office. Work on this project will be completed before next fall. Construction on the Lorella school house which will also be built this summer will be deferred until the completion of the Poe valley school.

Leaves for California
Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, county school superintendent left yesterday morning for Corvallis where she will spend several days and then return to Klamath Falls along with the returning Klamath club members who have been attending a two weeks special course at O. A. C.

Painting Beatty School
Tomorrow a crew of painters will be put to work on the Beatty school house which has been recently moved from its former location west of Beatty to the town itself. In addition carpenters will start soon to put the school in good condition for the coming school year.

School Construction Progresses
The walls, basement and part of the wall of the addition to the public school at Malin has been constructed and present indications point to a completion of all outside construction within the next few days according to County School Clerk Fred Peterson.

River Road in Poor Condition
The road to Chiloquin along the southern side of Williamson river is impassable according to motorists returning last night from a fishing trip. An irrigation overflow has caused large mud holes and in several places the water is a foot deep.

Fence Built
The appearance of the Merrill Public school has been considerably improved by the construction of a heavy timbered fence around the school grounds. The fence has been painted. It was built at the order of the county school board.

Sailing on July 5
The Misses Anna May and Jennie Johnston who have been teaching school for the past two years on the Island of Maui, Hawaii, have written their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston that they have booked passage on a steamer for America on July 5. The two girls will spend the summer with their parents and it is quite likely that they will not return to Maui next fall.

Married Yesterday Afternoon
Immediately following the necessary preliminary steps of obtaining a marriage license D. E. McIrvin, a laborer and Agnes Boren stepped down stairs from the county clerk's office and called on Justice of the Peace R. A. Emmitt who married the couple with his usual quickness and despatch. Both McIrvin and his wife are residents of this city.

On Return Trip
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Larkin, residents of Astacada, have just returned from a delightful trip to Crater Lake and after spending the night here left by the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway for their home.

Expected to Leave
Paul Keller is planning on leaving for Chicago in the next few days to attend school.

Insurance Agent Leaves
H. Holden, connected with a well-known insurance company, has left for Portland after spending several days here on business.

Ranch Manager in Town
W. K. Brown, manager of the Fort Klamath Meadows company, also known as the Weed ranch, was a business visitor today.

Back From Crater Lake
J. D. R. Wade and family of Eugene, stopped over in Klamath Falls at the Hall Hotel last night on their return trip to Eugene. They drove to Crater Lake via the Medford highway and then drove into the Klamath basin. This morning the Wade family left for Eugene via the Ashland-Klamath Falls highway.

Bridge Man Visits
A. E. Eberhart, who does field work for the Union Bridge company of Portland, Oregon, is in town for several days to attend to company business.

Hotel Dance Tonight
Society is looking forward with pleasant anticipation to a dinner dance this evening at the White Pelican Hotel. Manager Morrison has engaged the Borenaders to provide music. He states that this evening's festivities will commence at 9 o'clock. Reservations for tables can be made by telephoning the hotel office.

Leave For Salem
Jake Allen, organizer for the state chamber of commerce, and Mrs. E. M. Van Frank connected with the Sunset Community Service, left this morning for Salem after spending several days here on business. During his stay here Mr. Allen spoke at the Chamber of Commerce forum luncheon and the Kiwanis club luncheon.

Obtains License
Red Frain, who has recently come to Klamath from Heavly, Calif., is going to try the Klamath fishing as yesterday he purchased a non-resident hunters and anglers license. Frain plans on making Klamath his home.

At the LIBERTY

"The Liberty Has the Pictures"
PLAYING TODAY
We take pleasure in again showing "Nanook of the North"
The wonderful film made by Robert J. Flaherty, F. R. G. S. in the extreme north Hudson Bay country. We have had more actual requests to bring this picture back to our screen than any we have ever run and it is the personal opinion of this writer that "Nanook of the North" is the finest picture of its kind ever made. If you failed to see this one before we urge you not to miss it tonight as the picture goes out of service this month and it will not be possible to obtain it again. Playing tonight only.

Saturday—William S. Hart in "THE COLD DECK"
Doubtless Bill Hart's greatest thriller
Sunday—Lincoln J. Carter's thrilling melodrama "The Eleventh Hour" starring Buck Jones and Shirley Mason. It is an American pirate story and a pippin.
