

SCHOOL SITE IS TOPIC OF BOARD

Purchase of Episcopal Church Property is Considered

Discussion of the proposed purchase of the Episcopal church property on the block bounded by High, Seventh, Eighth and Washington streets which would be included in the new central school site, was the principal topic discussed at the semi-monthly meeting of the city school board held last night at the Central school last night.

Negotiations for the purchase of the property have been in progress for the past two months. The Episcopal church first submitted a price to the school board which was considered to be high. The school board countered with a price which they considered equitable.
