BONANZA WOULD HAVE BUILDING

Plans for Community Club-house Will Be Taken Up This Evening

With the proposition of financing a community building as the main topic of discussion, the community club of Bonanza will meet this evening at the Protestant church in Bonanza to lay tentative plans for the project. At the meeting, the club will give a short but interesting musical program and the public will join in a community sing.

The Bonanza community club was organized on February 7, following a meeting called for that purpose. L. E. Thayer was elected president; James Luebke, vice-president; J. A. Mahoney, secretary; and R. A. Lytle, treasurer. Miss Grace Lytle, H. C. Brownson and J. O. Hamaker were appointed as a committee to draw up the by-laws of the organization.

Much interest was displayed at the organization gathering, on the possible construction of a community building. Sentiment to the effect that Bonanza should fall in with other rural communities in the construction of a community building was expressed.

San Francisco Bank Held Up; Robbers Get Approximately $3000

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—Two men yesterday held up a branch of the Mercantile Trust company and obtained between $2000 and $3000. They escaped but police obtained the license number on their automobile and expect to make arrests within a short time.

FICKLE WEATHER MIRES HIGHWAYS

able to take care of the drainage and as a result water backed up over the highway. It was reported this morning. A maintenance crew is expected to clear the road of water this afternoon.

Capeo, on Klamath river in northern California, is isolated from the outside world as far as automotive traffic is concerned, it has been reported to the California-Oregon Power company office here. There are three roads leading to the big dam and power house, all of which are a mire of bog and slush.

BARBERS' UNION HOLDS BANQUET

J. E. Swanson was toastmaster at the banquet given last night in I. O. O. F. Hall by the Klamath Falls Barbers' Union, at which more than 30 members of the union were present. Mr. Vance from Beckelman Brothers, San Francisco, spoke to the group, followed by addresses by Ray Crawford, president of the local, and Ike Rimmer, president of the Barbers' Protective association. Rimmer will preside at the next meeting of the organization, which is scheduled for April.
