

WASHINGTON WOMAN AIDS SOLDIER BOYS WHO GET IN TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Men of Uncle Sam's fighting forces who get into scrapes in the national capital find a staunch friend in Mrs. Andrew J. Campbell. For the last three years she has visited the police courts almost daily to assist soldiers, sailors and marines on trial for minor offenses. Her work has been commended by army, navy and marine authorities and by police magistrates.

Mrs. Campbell, who has a son and daughter in the service, helps service men in trouble by supplying small funds or by communicating with relatives. It is her proud boast that no man she has aided ever returned to court. She takes pride in another patriotic service, the placing of wreaths on every new grave in Arlington National cemetery.

ORDER AND NOTICE In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Klamath County. In the Matter of Establishment of Toll Road on Klamath Falls, Bend, County Road.

It appearing to the County Court at this time that the old county road from the intersection with the State Highway at the gap on the Fort Klamath Hill in Klamath County to the county line north of Crescent, Oregon, is little used for local travel; and that there are very few residents on said described road; that it is so located that there is little or no local labor along the line of said road, and that for the county to maintain said road in a passable condition would entail a very heavy expense, far out of proportion to the benefits to be derived; and that each year during the period of from about the first day of December to about the first day of June said road is blocked by heavy snows and is ordinarily abandoned during the greater portion of said time by the traveling public owing to the difficulty of passing through the heavy snows in the winter time; and that the County is at present time, with the State, constructing a new highway between the points mentioned, and the county does not desire to divert money from said highway construction for the purpose of maintaining a road that will shortly be abandoned almost wholly by the public; and that there is now little or no local labor along said old county road; and it appearing expedient and lawful that a toll road should be established on said old county road, and the Court being now fully advised in the premises.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said road, between the terminal above mentioned, be leased to any person or corporation to open, improve and keep same in repair for the period of five years between December first and June first, inclusive only, with the right in consideration thereof to collect and receive tolls for travel thereon as provided by Chapter XXXIX, Title XXX, Oregon Laws, that four sazes shall be placed on said road; that the grade of said road shall remain as now established; that the materials for construction of said road shall be as now used thereon; and it is further ordered that the County Clerk cause this order to be published in a weekly newspaper of general circulation in Klamath County for four successive weeks and in like manner give notice that sealed bids will be received at such clerk's office for the leasing of such road until the hour of 2:00 o'clock P. M. on the 28th day of February 1925; all bids must comply with and be subject to the provisions of the law above mentioned.

Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 24th day of January, A. D. 1925. R. H. BUNNELL, County Judge. BURRELL SHORT, Commissioner. C. J. MARTIN, Commissioner.

Attest: C. R. DeLAP, County Clerk. By CHAS. F. DeLAP, Deputy. Jan. 30, Feb. 6-13-25.

A HUNDRED EYES "He who buys had need have a hundred eyes," said Poor Richard. That was quite true in his time. Whenever you needed anything, you had to go to this store—then to that store—across the street—to every place that carried the thing you needed. If you missed any one of them, you might be overlooking the very place that held the bargain you sought. Not so today. Your own two eyes are plenty now. For every day this newspaper brings right into your home all the stores you would want to visit and the goods in which you are interested. Comfortably seated in your armchair, you simply take your paper and read through the advertisements. So, later, when you do go out to buy, you know exactly where you are going. You know just what you are going to get. You know just how much you are going to pay. Read the advertisements. They deserve attention. They save you time, labor and money. It is to your advantage to read them. Advertising is a straight line to best goods and lowest prices
