

SOCIETY

Society is enjoying a rush season of social affairs as the past week has been crowded to the utmost with parties, dinners and dances following afternoons of bridge teas and Mah Jongg parties. Of the highest importance this week was the dinner dance given in the White Pelican hotel by the management, the first dinner dance of the season. So successful was the affair that a similar dance is scheduled for St. Patrick's day, March 17th. Clubs are meeting as usual and informal gatherings are quite in vogue. Members of the younger set are highly interested in the Sunset Social club dance tonight in the Odd Fellows hall. More than 500 invitations were issued to guests during the past week. Several bridge teas and bridge luncheons are on the social calendar for next week bringing in swiftly, spring activities.

MISS HUMPHREY ENTERTAINS

For the pleasure of Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Miss Frances Humphrey entertained at her home on Pine Street Wednesday with an informal evening. A dainty lunch was served around an attractively arranged table with Valentine decorations carried out in the favors and centerpieces. Miss Humphrey's guests were Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Mrs. J. R. Conroy, Mrs. Paul Noel, Mrs. W. P. Johnson, Mrs. George Humphrey, and the Misses Pearl Reale, Grace Hoagland, Dorothy Curran, Josephine Lindley, Jean Perry, Fernie Hanks, Virginia Hoelt, Bessie Tull and Lois Byron.

MISS CURRIN HOSTESSES

Miss Dorothy Curran entertained informally at her home on Thursday evening for a group of friends. Refreshments were served at a late hour around a table which had for favor motifs, Valentines. Miss Jean Perry was awarded a prize for solving a cross word puzzle which had been cleverly arranged by the hostess. The guests of the evening were Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Miss Jean Perry, Miss Virginia Hoelt, Miss Pearl Reale, Miss Josephine Lindley, Miss Frances Humphrey, Miss Lois Byron and Miss Dorothy Curran.

MISS HOEFT HOSTESSES

Miss Virginia Hoelt entertained informally Friday evening for a group of friends. The invited guests included Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Miss Jean Perry, Miss Fernie Hanks, Miss Frances Humphrey, Miss Dorothy Curran, Miss Josephine Lindley, Miss Lois Byron and the hostess. Miss Hoelt served later in the evening assisted by her mother, Mrs. Winfield Dawley.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT HAS GOOD PROGRAM

The members of the Music department of the Library Club held their fortnightly meeting on Wednesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. A. M. Worden as hostess.

A very interesting paper was prepared by Mrs. Lynn Sabin on "The Trovatore" and "Lucia di Lammermoor" with selections from both on the Victrola. The next meeting of the department is scheduled for the second Monday in March at which time the afternoon will be devoted to themselves. Mrs. Rachael Solomon lectures will be given from the opera as well.

BUSINESS WOMEN MEET MONDAY

Members of the Klamath Falls Business Professional Women's Club met on Monday night in the dining room of the White Pelican hotel, for an interesting dinner and social evening. Following the dinner, Mrs. E. L. Davis read from the "Revelations of My Friends" which the guests had unwittingly written of themselves. Mrs. Rachael Solomon entertained with selections from Dr. Keating's "Abraham Lincoln" one of the most widely discussed plays of the year. Mrs. Frank L. Mars played with two piano solos. Tables for Mah Jongg, bridge and other cards were arranged for the guests. The membership of the organization is growing and the group seems to have one of the largest in the state by late spring.

MISS MILLER IS BRIDE

With a quiet and simple ceremony Miss Lena Miller became the bride of Charles Cain at the manse of the Presbyterian church on Saturday evening, February seventh, with Rev. Arthur L. Rice officiating. The couple were attended by George W. Cain, brother of the groom. Mrs. Cain is a graduate from the Klamath County high school in the class of 1923. Mr. Cain has been connected with the Shaw-Bohrman lumber company for the past two years. They will make their home in this city.

Silver Cloth And Velvet

VELVET, two kinds of lace and some cloth of silver make this frock which recent elaborations in a season when lines are so plain and trimmings reduced to such negligible terms. However, there's something very feminine about the lace ruffles and the filmy belt and the sash. And women who stress femininity will find good points about it to copy.

VALENTINE PARTY IN WHITE PELICAN

With one of the most delightful bridge teas of the season, Mrs. Warren Hunt and Mrs. Alfred Collier entertained this afternoon in the White Pelican hotel. Miss LeLaine West and Miss Margaret Worden assisted Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Collier in receiving and about the rooms. Miss Mercedes Boyd, Miss Sara Etta Traux, Miss Mary Hunt and Miss Beatrice Walton also assisted the hostesses. Valentine favors and decorations were carried out in the spirit of the day with hearts and colorful flowers adding to the attractiveness of the rooms.

Dainty corsages were given as guests favors.

LEAGUE MEETS IN GUILD HALL

Members of the Church Women's Service League of St. Paul's Episcopal church met in Guild Hall on Thursday afternoon for several delightful social hours. Final plans were made for a 500 party to be given Wednesday evening of next week in Guild hall for members of the League and their friends. Arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. L. O. Mills, Mrs. H. E. Getz. Following the short business meeting the hostess of the afternoon served a dainty tea. They were Mrs. Caleb Jones, Mrs. D. V. Kendall, Mrs. Allan Sloan and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt.

DINNER DANCE IS SEASON'S SUCCESS

One of the most successful social affairs of the year was the dinner dance given on the eve of Lincoln's birthday by the management of the White Pelican hotel in the hotel dining room. Society turned out en masse and reservations were made several weeks ahead to assure the guests of tables. A feature of the evening was the boxing match between Mike and Spike Robinson which ended in a draw after a four round bout. Clement Hogue and Harold Bell favored with vocal numbers and Johnny Houston's orchestra was at its best with syncopation. Another dancier dance is scheduled for St. Patrick's night which is expected to surpass the recent affair.

Reservations made for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hauger and party of six; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray and party of four; Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Lee and party of four; Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bedford and party of four; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn P. Sabin and party of six; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Montelius and party of four; Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett and party of eight; Mr. and Mrs. F. Lorenz, J. Keneally, Hal Ogle and Dr. Philip Cole.

ENTERTAIN WITH VALENTINE PARTY

More than 100 guests enjoyed the Valentine's day party given in the Lyceum hall Wednesday evening, by the young ladies of the Sacred Heart church when they entertained with a pre-Lenten card party for their many friends. Twenty tables of 500 were in play as well as several tables of bridge and other cards. Madame Montezuma added to the interest of the evening with her mystical fortune telling which she gave for a mere pittance when her hand was crossed with silver. Miss Blanche O'Neil pleased with a Valentine's dance and Miss Evelyn Nochester delighted her audience with recitations.

Miss Evelyn Nochester and Warren Bennett received high score of the evening with consolations going to Mrs. E. W. Reick and John Beal. The party was by far the most successful ever given in the hall and the committee in charge received many compliments for the decorations which were carried out in the spirit of St. Valentine.

STARVING IN KLAMATH FALLS
They may look sleek and prosperous, well-fed three times a day, but there are in Klamath Falls starving souls; souls that have not been fed for years. We are careful to feed our bodies which will last but for a few decades; ought we to neglect the soul which lives eternally? Prayer, worship, church attendance, is the food on which the soul thrives.
