

MISS HELEN COWGILL EXPECTED ON SUNDAY

Miss Helen Cowgill, whose helpful talks on girls' club projects have come "out of the air" many times since her last visit here last summer, will arrive in Klamath Falls Sunday evening, February 22nd.

Miss Cowgill combines a rare personality with an insight into girlish interests that endears her to all the feminine members of the girls' clubs, making her their confidant rather than instructor.

New Way to Quickly Stop Worst Cough

A remarkable new and simple method for treating a cough gives relief with the first doses and usually breaks a severe cough in 24 hours.

No remedy can cure all ailments of the human body, but an immense number of people suffer from such ailments when their real trouble is lack of iron in the blood.

NUXATED IRON is an eminent physician's standard. It is recommended for all anemic and run-down conditions.

QUART OF WATER CLEANS KIDNEYS

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys.

THE MAGIC OF A FACE

EDITOR'S NOTE—Some years ago a replica of the St. Gaudens statue of Lincoln, erected in Lincoln Park Chicago, was put up in London, near the House of Parliament.

By MILTON BRONNER NEA Service Writer

LONDON, Feb. 12.—His name is Smith. I don't know his Christian name.

He came from Kentucky, where he was brought up in the fields—ploughing and weeding. And, in between times, he read geography. It planted the seed of crave for travel.

Smith's opportunity finally came. Stokers' jobs were advertised.

A chance to travel abroad—just for shoveling coal in ship furnaces. Sounded good to Smith, and he went to New York and joined a crew.

Nicknamed "Kaintuck"

"Twas hard work—harder than he expected. But Smith didn't care. Ten days in the stoke-hole and then Southampton! With money in his pocket and adventure in his heart he set forth, with his stoker mates.

These mates had nicknamed him "Kaintuck." And "Kaintuck," who had been reared in a bone-dry county, visited liquor emporiums and, for the first time in his life tasted beer, and "this here Scotch."

Sure, it had its effect and it's no wonder that a short time later he was on a train with his mates, bound for London.

More visits to liquor places—and then "Kaintuck" lost his friends in a fog.

The wee hours found "Kaintuck" leaning up against a fence. Inside the fence stood a statue.

"Kaintuck" glanced up at it. Then he stared—and blinked.

"Ole Abe Lincoln!"

"Kaintuck" thought went into a whirl. A trip across the Atlantic in London town? Maybe a dream. A London Hobbie, came along.

"What's that building?" asked "Kaintuck."

"That's where Parliament meets," came the reply.

"And what city is this?"

"London."

"Mind if I look at that statue some more?"

"Help yourself, Yank."

Yank! That cop didn't know all "Kaintuck's" folks had been Confederates.

"Think o' findin' you in London, "Kaintuck" said, musingly, to the sculptured figure. "Good mawain! My folks fit against you, but we all know now you wuz on the square. You kep' the country together, Abe An' I ain't ashamed to talk to you, kinder man to man.

Common Folks

"You wuz common folks yourself. Did your turn at splittin' wood and holdin' the plough—jes like me.

"But, why do you look at me so sad-like? Oh, I know. The booze! Don't blame ya! You had plenty of troubles on your shoulders, but I ain't ever heard you turned to booze

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good drugist and use it like a cold cream.—Adv.
