Motorists who have not yet applied for their 1925 licenses and who wish to operate their automobiles without being stopped by traffic cops, may obtain temporary licenses at the sheriff's office to be used while their license plates are on their way from Salem. Until the temporary licenses were issued a money order receipt covering the amount necessary for the license was the only proof that the license of the motorist was ordered and on its way.

NAMES

You meet Mr. Howard and Mr. Walters in a gathering. Their names are to you but two of many you hear.

A few days later you meet Mr. Howard again. And again. He becomes a friend, perhaps an intimate in your social as well as business life.

Mr. Howard's name grows to mean a lot to you. Mr. Walters is rarely seen again and soon forgotten.

In this newspaper are other names—names of advertised products. Day after day you see them. They are like old friends—to be trusted. Their names mean economy, full value integrity.

The unadvertised products—perhaps you see one in a store—or about whom you know little.

in a friend's home. Soon the name is forgotten—a stranger fill your medicine closet, your pantry, your wardrobe with products whose names are guarantees of their integrity—advertised products. Like intimate friends—you know what they are and will do.
