

The Evening Herald

Issued Daily, except Sunday, by The Herald Publishing Company, Office: 119 N. Eighth Street, Klamath Falls, Ore.

E. J. MURRAY Publisher
W. H. PERKINS News Editor

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Klamath Falls, Oregon, under act of March 3, 1879.

Member of the Associated Press

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published therein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

The Evening Herald is the official paper of Klamath County and the City of Klamath Falls.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Delivered by Carrier	By Mail
One Year $4.50	One Year $5.00
Six Months 3.50	Six Months 3.75
Three Months 1.95	Three Months 1.60
One Month65	One Month65

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1925

THE MAYOR, THE COUNCIL AND THE EVENING HERALD

Without receding one iota from its previously announced stand for a cleaner city, The Evening Herald deplores the lack of harmony now existing between Mayor Goddard and members of the council and sincerely trusts that these differences might soon be ironed out.

Many false and unjust accusations have been made against this newspaper during the past few days because it had the courage to come out in the open for a cleaner city. But The Evening Herald wishes to remind the people of Klamath Falls that Mayor Goddard was elected on a platform which called for a cleaner and a better city.

The Evening Herald did not support Dr. Goddard during the campaign, but after he was elected this newspaper decided from the very start that it would support him wholeheartedly in his drive for a cleaner city, and this support will continue, persistent and unswerving, because a moral awakening is needed if this city is to grow and prosper.

This newspaper does not believe that the five councilmen want vice and immorality to flourish. Unwittingly or not, however, they have hampered the clean-up drive almost before it gets under way. Perhaps they disapprove of the methods adopted by the mayor and chief of police; or, it may be, they think the measures taken are a bit too extreme, or possibly ill-timed.

There should be some middle ground on which the mayor and council members can meet in harmony and honest accord. If so, it is the duty of the mayor and council members to find this level and work together for the general upbuilding of this community.

The Evening Herald does not fear its traducers. For the newspaper which has the courage to stand up and fight for the things that are decent and worth while is certain to win. This newspaper is simply striving for a better community; for civic cleanliness and a more contented people. If the five members of the city council will aid in bringing about this greatly needed change they will receive the hearty support of this newspaper as well as the commendation of the better element of Klamath Falls.

The Evening Herald is not supporting Mayor Goddard blindly in his campaign for decency. Its support is based solely upon the right and justice of his move for a better town, and because it believes with all its heart that conditions must be bettered if Klamath is to progress as it so richly merits. Let the five councilmen come out tonight for a cleaner and a better city and they will quickly learn that the people throughout the city will stand by them.

THE HOTEL RAY

The city council tonight is expected to take some definite action with reference to the license of the Hotel Ray, which it refused to grant last week. From all indications it will vote to grant this license.

The Evening Herald would suggest that the council proceed with caution in order to safeguard the morals of this community. The peace officers of this community furnished the council with evidence of immoral conduct within the hotel. To most people who want decency to prevail it would seem that this revolting evidence would have been sufficient to substantiate the chief of police in recommending the license be refused.

But the council members, apparently, want more evidence. They are fearful, perhaps, that they will be held liable personally for whatever financial loss the hotel might suffer through their refusal of a permit to operate.

It is suggested in all fairness to the chief of police, the decent citizens of this community and to the council members themselves that they delay any definite action until a more complete investigation can be made in order to better satisfy the council that a refusal of the license is not only proper but the only thing that should be done in the interests of a cleaner Klamath Falls.

HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By HARRY B. HUT
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. — St. Valentine was good to Nicholas Longworth.
For not only did the day of that good saint bring Nick a baby girl, just 15 years, lacking three days, later he and "Princess Alice" Hoopes were married but that same good day clinched the result in the contest for speakership of the next congress in Longworth's favor.

Unless some entirely unlikely and unexpected combination can be effected by the supporters of Congressman Martin B. Madden of Illinois, before Feb. 27, Longworth will emerge from the majority caucus on that date with a safe grip on the gavel and the perquisites of that office.

ONLY A DUD

OUT OF THE AIR

By JULIUS MUELLER
Manager Radio Dept., Baldwin Hardware Co.

Radio receiving sets may be installed on all the United States liners for the entertainment of the passengers as the result of successful experiments made aboard the George Washington recently, during its last voyage.
Captain Harold Cunningham, had a radio set installed in the cabin of the liner to study the possibilities of radio-entertainment at sea. He was able to pick up Miami Beach, Kansas City, Davenport, Iowa, and many of the big eastern stations. From Europe, he picked up London, Berlin, Paris and Madrid.
Many travelers aboard expressed their preference to European Broadcasting, favoring the absence of Jazz in the program. The best musicians in Spain entertained them from Madrid with classical selections.
The play begins with a prologue, two acts follow, with music between. An epilogue and more music complete the plan, fundamentally different from the usual dramatic structure. Thirteen players complete the cast. The story is on one of ghosts in a deserted inn on a lonely mountain, crooked politicians using the place as a secret meeting place, a writer seeking quiet, and a girl newspaper reporter music will be furnished by the Arion Trio.

Program for Thursday

KFOA.—Seattle, 4 to 5:15. The Times, Olympic hotel orchestra.
KPO.—San Francisco, 8 to 9 p. m. One hundred and eighth Organ recital by Theodore Irwin, 9 p. m. Lillian Birmingham will give legends of Yosemite Valley in songs and story.
KGO.—Oakland, 8 p. m. Seven Keys to Baldpate.
KNX.—Hollywood, 8:30 Hollywoodians orchestra 8 to 10, feature program.
KHJ.—Los Angeles, 8 to 9 De Luxe program, 9:30 Piggly Wiggly Girls program.
KFI.—Los Angeles, 8 to 9 Standard Oil Co., of California, present play with music 10, Betty of the Examiner presents program.
KGW.—Portland, The Oregonian, orchestra; 10, Multnomah hotel orchestra.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

(Taken from the files of the Evening Herald, Feb. 25, 1915.)
George L. Humphrey was appointed constable for Linkville district filling the term for which John G. Schallock was elected last fall, but for which he failed to qualify. Fred Morley was named to fill in Schallock's former unexpired term when Schallock resigned last fall, owing to ill health.
Mrs. Eva Tucker who sustained a compound fracture of the elbow at the Almont ranch is reported as improving after attention given her by Drs. White and Hunt.
A son arrived Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lem McKenzie near Olene.
The Woman's Library club will devote a large amount of their time to the devotion of study and Miss Beattie Applegate instructor of English in the high school, will meet with the club to assist in getting the class started.
Bishop Paddock of the Episcopal church will be entertained by the members of the church in the west hall of the Odd Fellow's building.

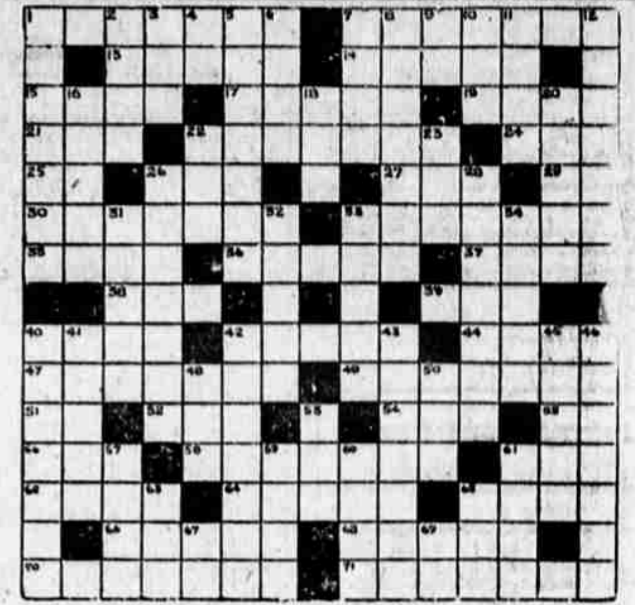

Read Herald "Class" Ads

Try Something New

For that meal that means so much to you, formal or informal, our line of imported goods will add just the touch needed to make it a success.
Try our coffee we roast ourselves—with none of the flavor gone, it is just the finishing touch for any meal.

ITALIAN-AMERICAN GROCERY

910 Main Open Evenings and Sunday
Try the Coffee we roast ourselves!

HORIZONTAL

1. A precious stone.
7. A shallow lake, near the sea.
13. One who is defeated.
14. With.
15. A semi-circular recess in a church.
17. Tropical American pear-shaped fruit.
19. Pertaining to the language of the Celts.
21. To observe.
22. Slow person.
24. Snake-like fish.
25. Within.
26. Drunkard.
27. Chart.
29. Neuter pronoun.
30. Tenth month.
33. Landed estate attached to manor.
35. Close by.
36. Relieved.
37. Antlered animal.
38. Seed covering.
39. To sum up.
40. Compensation for services rendered. (Pl.)
42. Leaflike division of calyx enclosing corolla of a flower.
44. Girl.
47. Lasso. (Pl.)
49. Brown scales which cover stem of ferns.
51. Part of verb to be.
52. Term of respect.
54. Dark, viscous fluid.
55. Preposition of place.
56. Small wooden nail.
58. Conducted.
61. Untruth.
62. Sign denoting addition.
64. More recent in origin.
65. Margin or edge.
66. A vassal.
68. Pertaining to cheek or cheek bone.

VERTICAL

1. Removal of diseased tissue by scraping.
2. Otherwise.
3. Fish spaw.
4. Since.
5. Person bequeathed an estate.
6. Narcotic.
7. Molten stone.
8. Frightened.
9. Begone.
10. Unit.
11. Imaginary giant.
12. Zinc.
16. Penny (Pl.)
18. Time.
20. Large fishing net.
22. Toss gently.
23. To stop.
26. Club of women.
28. One who travels selling small wares.
31. Small wax candle.
32. Fixed value. (Pl.)
33. Exclude.
34. Portable covered chair.
40. Broad fin used in swimming.
41. Support for a picture.
42. Unusual.
43. Pertaining to side.
45. Sober, sedate.
46. Cotton fabric with satin finish (Pl.)
48. To direct.
50. Wild.
53. Edict.
57. To swallow eagerly.
59. Necessity.
60. Precious stones.
61. Italian coin.
63. To drink slowly.
65. To droop.
67. Hebrew God.
69. Behold.

Herald "Class" Ads Pay

The woman who entertains well---

There's something indescribably fine about the woman who entertains well. From the cheery appearance of her home to the service she so deftly affords—everything is so natural—yet so charmingly different.

Such splendid hostesses, once very rare and belonging only to the idle classes, are now to be found everywhere. They grace homes in every walk of life—making them happier through the many friends they attract.

Advertisements keep these women ahead of the commonplace. Advertisements tell of the newest and most delightful things. Advertisements announce new customs and practices. They tell what the world approves as correct.

The woman who entertains well must read the advertisements. Not only to keep pace with progress—but to learn how to do so on a limited purse. For advertisements are more than harbingers of style—they are announcements of economies that may be practiced safely.

Read the advertisements—to know what is new, what is correct and what is economical