

SOCIETY

The past week was a busy one for the Klamath Falls maids and matrons as affairs were rushed in order to precede the Lenten season which began on Wednesday, known to the churches as Ash-Wednesday, the opening of the Lenten period. Several parties were given in churches throughout the city culminating their early spring activities in a social manner. Society was seen often at the Elk's minstrel show which occupied the minds of many on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings in the Elks temple. Following the theatrical the Elks entertained with dancing until midnight. Bridge teas were popular over the week and the early part of the week in honor of George Washington's birthday and favors carried out by the hostesses were in accordance with the event. Spring flowers are rushing in and pussy willows are more prevalent than the past week, giving the one who entertains inspirations over the usual cut flowers and decorations.

MRS. HECTOR ENTERTAINS

Using as her color scheme, patriotic colors in accordance with the spirit of the affair, Mrs. O. M. Hector entertained with a delightful George Washington bridge party at her home on Tuesday evening of this week. High score of the evening was awarded to Mrs. Ed. Lawrence, middle score to Mrs. N. B. Drew and low to Mrs. William Wood. The guest list included the Mesdames R. C. Groesbeck, N. B. Drew, Ralph Crego, William Sanders, Guy Manning, Harry Bathany, R. I. Record, W. D. Balsiger, Everett Truslove, Will Steinmetz, Byron Noud, Ed Cokes, O. L. Brown Jim Grimes, and Miss Marie Berger and Miss Mary Walker.

ENTERTAINED WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The home of Mrs. Marion Hanks was the scene of a party for a number of the younger set when Miss Lois Bynon entertained informally. Covers were laid for the following around a luncheon table, Mrs. Marvin Lucas, Miss Josephine Lindley, Miss Fern Hanks, Miss Pearl Reine, Miss Virginia Hoelt, Miss Mary Johnson, Miss Jean Perry, Miss Dorothy Currin and Miss Bynon. Miss Josephine Lindley will entertain the group in a fortnight.

MRS. HAMPTON HOSTESS SATURDAY

With one of the largest and most interesting parties of the season Mrs. Thomas Hampton entertained on Saturday afternoon for a number of friends with a bridge tea in the hotel hall annex. George Washington favors were used with miniature cherry trees as dainty centerpieces for each tea table. Mrs. Del Gammon, Mrs. Bert Hall, Mrs. Merle S. West, Mrs. H. E. Houser and Mrs. R. E. De Weese assisted about the rooms. High score was awarded to Mrs. H. E. Hauger, second high to Mrs. H. D. Lloyd Stewart and third prize to Mrs. C. L. Harvey.

PREPARE MUSIC FOR SERVICES

Special music is being prepared for the communion service for Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church at which time Mrs. Georgian Babcock will sing the beautiful contralto solo from the oratorio "Elijah," "O Rest in the Lord." The choir will offer Shelly's "Hark, Hark my Soul." Miss Augusta Parker will direct the numbers and the services are expected to be exceptionally splendid.

STUDY CLUB WILL MEET

Members of the study department of the Library club will meet in club rooms on Monday afternoon at 2:30 to discuss the newly written book, "A Passage to India" by E. M. Forster. In charge of the program is Mrs. G. A. Krause who will be hostess for the afternoon's entertainment.

KID PARTY ENJOYED

Members of St. Paul's Episcopal church enjoyed a "Kid Party" in Guild hall on Monday evening of this week as the last affair of the season before the observance of Lent. The Tri S club dance which was scheduled for the following evening has been postponed until after Lent due to the rush of social affairs this week.

MRS. ROBERTS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Members of the Auction Bridge club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Roberts on Wednesday afternoon with a lovely bridge luncheon. High score of the afternoon was given to Mrs. H. N. Moe. Mrs. George Wright will entertain in a fortnight. The guest of honor was Mrs. Allan Sloan and members present were Mrs. William Duncan, Mrs. R. E. Wright, Mrs. George Wright, Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mrs. L. S. Willits, Mrs. E. W. Gowan, Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mrs. H. N. Moe and Mrs. Charles Roberts.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TO BANQUET SUNDAY

The White Pelican hotel dining room will be the scene of an attractive banquet Sunday evening when members of the Knights of Columbus of Klamath Falls entertain with a dinner in honor of new members and their wives.

HOLD MEETING IN HISTORIC LODGE

Of interest to the members of Eulalona chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution of Klamath Falls, is the report of the meeting of Mt. Ashland chapter of Ashland, Crater Lake chapter of Medford and Eulalona chapter at Blue Flower lodge at Phoenix, Oregon, on Saturday of last week. The affair was given in observance of Washington's birthday which is always celebrated with more or less ceremony by the members of D. A. R. The affair was held at the historic old home of the Colvers which proved a fitting place for the ceremony. At the head of a delightfully arranged table, around which were laid covers for sixty guests, Mrs. E. A. Moore, regent of the Medford group, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg regent of Klamath Falls and Miss Blanche Hicks, regent of Ashland were seated. An interesting program was given during the afternoon, lead off with the salute to the flag, singing of America and the Washington prayer given by Mrs. James Smedley. Mrs. Alice Applegate Pell of Ashland, formerly of Klamath Falls, and a sister of Mrs. W. O. Smith, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent was the guest of honor of the afternoon and introduced the district guests. Mrs. Moore of Medford reciprocated with a short talk and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg of Klamath Falls responded to the greeting as the youngest chapter in the state. Mrs. Wilbur Jones, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colver gave interesting data connected with the house and family which built and occupied it for many years. The meeting was highly successful and the three chapters look forward to a similar meeting in the near future.

MILLS SCHOOL TO HAVE CAFETERIA

The kitchen shower for the Mills school was exceptionally well attended and many useful things were brought and promises of further donations were made. Final arrangements were made to start the school cafeteria Monday. With Mr. Pinzell, Miller's Market and the Sanitary Market donating it should be a decided success. The idea is to serve one hot dish with the child's lunch brought from the home. Any child wishing to take advantage of the cafeteria is welcome although some people have the impression that it is for country children only. The charge will be five cents for each dish until the project has been found to be a success. Mrs. Pearson will have charge of the cafeteria and service will be given Monday. Miss Helen Cowgill, state club leader, gave an interesting talk which was very much enjoyed. Frank Sexton also gave a short talk. Following the business meeting Mrs. Burt Hawkins was hostess at serving refreshments.

MRS. PERRY HOSTESS AT MAH JONGG PARTY

With one of the prettiest parties of the season, complete in every detail, Mrs. James Perry entertained at her home with tables of mah jongg on Monday afternoon. Reminiscent of colonial period, Mrs. Perry chose as her honor prize a corsage of old fashioned flowers which was awarded to Mrs. Allan Sloan. Mrs. Marion Hanks received low score. Spring flowers and pussy willows also were used effectively in the decorations. Assisting about the rooms and serving at the tea tables were Miss LeLain West, Miss Jean Perry and Miss Lois Bynon. The invitational list included Mesdames Agnes Guest, William McNealy, A. P. Epperson, Allan Sloan, Henry Calkins, George R. Lindley, L. N. Haines, M. G. Mordoff, Lynn Sablin, G. B. Cozad, Marion Hanks, George Mallett, W. C. Dalton, T. C. Campbell, Esther Dunivan, Robert Lindley, R. B. Amicke, Charles Loomis, and G. R. Fife.

MRS. BRADFORD HOSTESS FRIDAY

The home of Mrs. Louis Bradford was delightfully arranged for a meeting of the Friendship club when they entertained for a number of guests and accepted new members on Friday afternoon. An interesting program was given during the afternoon, under the directions of Mrs. Marion Barnes and Mrs. George Wertz. Miss Mary Ellen Bradford and Miss Helen Cofer entertained with a piano duet; Mrs. George Wertz and Miss Nellie Beckley also entertained with vocal numbers. Allison Barnes was featured in a piano solo. Mrs. H. E. Jones and Mrs. M. L. Wickersham won high numbers in a contest with Mrs. R. V. Chase and Mrs. J. W. Steinmetz as low score. Mrs. Ed Lawrence won the telegram contest for writing the clearest telegram using as a guide the letters in the name George Washington. The new members entering the club were: Mrs. Irene Loucks, Mrs. Ruth Berry, Mrs. Stella Parker, Mrs. T. R. Skillington, Mrs. A. M. Pardue, Mrs. J. W. Bond. Others present were Mesdames: W. P. Myers, M. J. Barnes, B. Schultz, George McCollum, I. L. Larkey, W. B. Satterlee, H. J. Mattoon, Nellie Beckley, R. H. Dunbar, H. L. Klecker, B. E. Lee, George Wertz, O. M. Hector, A. Bainter, L. Bradford, R. A. Emmitt, W. J. Steinmetz, B. F. Owens, E. R. Wertz, W. Sanders, H. E. Jones, C. F. Stimwell and E. H. Lawrence.
