If You Require Glasses

Why do you keep putting off getting them? Do it now. Often a slight defect of vision or a minor eye strain will, if neglected, assume quite serious proportions later on.
 Now is the time to have your eyes examined and to get glasses if you need them.

STATUE HONORS SPANISH PADRE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 2.—Another chapter of the story inscribed in the crumbling remains of a chain of 21 missions, the earliest of which were founded more than a century and a half ago in California, will be written soon with the unveiling at the San Fernando Mission of a monument to Father Junipero Serra, Spanish missionary, who established the edifice. The statue, depicting the mission father leading a shy Indian boy into the realm of Christianity, is of bronze and is seven feet six inches in height. It is the work of Mrs. Sally James Farham, New York sculptress.
 Father Junipero was born on the island of Majorca, off the coast of Spain. From there he sailed for Mexico, thence to California. The missions, erected a day's journey apart, extend from the Mission San Diego de Alcalá to one at Sonoma, north of San Francisco. Over the long highway connecting the missions, now known as El Camino Real (the royal highway) padres wound their way to teach the Indians.
 San Fernando was one of the missions. It was christened by Father Junipero Sept. 8, 1797. The San Diego mission, the first he established, was founded July 16, 1769.

THEATRE HEADS VISITORS HERE

A busy theatrical season in Klamath Falls this summer is the prediction of George M. Mann of the George Mann theatres circuit, here today with Frank Cassidy, general manager of the company. The George Mann Theatres company operates the Pine Tree here.
 With them they brought the George X. White company which has just closed a seven weeks' run at one of the Mann theatres in Eureka.
 This, according to Mr. Mann, is but the forerunner of other attractions of similar merit which will be presented to the Klamath Falls public this summer, supplementing the regular programs.
 Mr. Mann and Mr. Cassidy expect to return Wednesday to company headquarters in San Francisco.

BASEBALL STARS START TRAINING

NEW YORK, March 2.—Sunday was a day of rest in the southern training camps, one of the last vacations that professional baseball players will enjoy until after the next world series.
 There was a general inpouring of veterans and recruits at the camps of the Yankees, Giants and Dodgers in Florida, 14 appearing at the Huggins' center of activities in St. Petersburg, seven wandering into the Giants' gathering at Sarasota and 21 preparing to start strenuous work at Clearwater, temporary home of Brooklyn's hope.
 Babe Ruth headed a small ball club into St. Petersburg from Hot Springs, manager McGraw of the Giants saw Hugh McQuillan, Bill Southworth, Sack Wilson and Fred Lindstrom, among others, for the first time in several days.

EWAUNA LOGGING CREW WILL BEGIN WORK WEDNESDAY

Logging activities for the Ewauna Box company will get under way on Wednesday when the force of fallers will take to the woods near Chiloquin and begin operations for the year. The camp will be officially opened next Monday morning when other members of the logging crew will start operations. Jack Villair, wool foreman for the company, was in Klamath Falls yesterday arranging final details for the opening.
 Carl Lange, who will have charge of the falling operations, has selected his crew and will be ready to take a fall out of the tall pines bright and early Wednesday morning.

FLEET TOO SMALL
 WASHINGTON, March 2.—American women were asked today not to give their old shoes to the near east relief because they are too small.
 This delicate compliment was paid by H. C. Jaquith, director of the American refugee work in Greece, at a meeting of the near east relief.

EMIGRATION FROM U. S. TO CANADA SHOWS DROP

OTTAWA, March 2.—The number of people entering Canada as immigrants from the United States in 1922 was 23,733, in 1923, 20,307, and in 1924, 16,328, it was stated in the House of Commons.
 From the British Isles there was a sharp decrease in 1924 from the 1923 total. The figures for 1922 were 31,005, 1923 Britishers coming into Canada totaled 70,110; in 1924 British immigration dropped to 57,672. From continental Europe the total immigration for 1922 was 12,552; for 1923 it was 39,288, and for 1924 it was 47,029.

EX-MAYOR SEEKS LOST GOLD MINE

SEATTLE, Wash., March 2.—Staking his faith on a map portraying the location of an Arctic bonanza James Townsend Fullerton, former mayor of Port Townsend, Wash., and the founder of a loganberry industry on the Olympic Peninsula of Washington, is to make a search with a friend in April for a rich mine in Alaska. The mine was discovered and mapped many years ago by a prospector who died suddenly after bringing out 282 pounds of nuggets, said Mr. Fullerton.

LOCAL SHEEP MEN MAY BE MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION

Klamath county wool growers will be urged to join the Pacific Wool Growers' association during the week of March 19 to 24, when a trio of wool experts will invade the county for a series of meetings at various points.
 The party will consist of Fred Henson, president of the Pacific wool growers; C. J. Hurd, market specialist of the agricultural college at Corvallis, and H. A. Lindgren, livestock field man for the same college.
 According to reports, the association is doing good work among wool growers in the matter of grading and marketing wool, and an effort will be made to get many more growers of this section to join with them. There are now about 20 sheepmen of Klamath who are members of the association.

ELK KILLERS ON TRIAL TODAY IN JUSTICE COURT

Prosecution of Ed Purcell and Leonard Moore, reservation Indians, charged with killing two elk early in February, was started this morning before a jury in Justice of the Peace Hunsaker's court, with Deputy District Attorney Myers prosecuting and Frank Mars defending.
 The defense admitted the Indian youths had killed the deer, but set up the defense that the game was killed within the reservation, and therefore not illegal. The case should reach the jury late this afternoon.

H'NSAKER SEEKS TRIFUL DODGERS ON AUTO CHARGES

Bench warrants were to be sworn out this afternoon for a quartet of alleged violators of the traffic laws who failed to heed the summons of Traffic Officer Knowles to appear in Justice court this morning. They include D. W. Crump, Modoc Point, speeding; Louis Knight, speeding; V. D. C. Beach, Aspgrove, speeding, and Charles Himebright, Klamath Falls, defective tail light.
 Several other arrests were made over the week end due largely to the spring weather which brought antelopes out in large numbers on all roads of the county. H. Rhodes of Medford was caught while exceeding the speed limit and promised to appear here early in the week for a hearing.

BARTON ACCEPTS ADJUTANT POST

DES MOINES, March 2.—James F. Barton of Des Moines announced today his acceptance of the position of national adjutant of the American Legion.
 The position was recently offered to Mr. Barton by National Commander James A. Drain, as a successor to Russell R. Creveston of Indiana, who it is understood here, desires to relinquish the post so he can devote all of his time to the legion's child welfare endowment drive.
 Mr. Barton, a former Fort Dodge, Iowa, resident, has been adjutant for the legion in Iowa for some time. Prior to the war, he practiced as an attorney. He is expected to go to Indianapolis to assume his new duties about April 1.

500 CO-EDS VACCINATED AND THEN QUARANTINED

EVANSTON, Ill., March 2.—Five hundred co-eds at Northwestern University here were prisoners today in Willard Hall dormitory, quarantined because one of the girls has smallpox.
 When it was learned Miss Helen Mason of Hancock, Mich., was suffering from the disease a woman physician was ordered to the dormitory. She vaccinated each of the 500 co-eds, with the aid of several assistants, and placed the building under quarantine.
 Several smaller dormitories nearby were placed under observation and every co-ed in the university was required to submit to vaccination.

SOCIETY LIGHT SOUGHT FOR TAX

PARIS, March 2.—The French fiscal authorities are after a professional dancing partner attached to one of the night resorts of Paris. An automobile valued at $500 is regarded as an evidence of great prosperity and it is desired to make him pay his income-tax to the last centime.
 This young man is said to be making 50,000 francs a month, derived entirely from the subsidies of fair partners who engage his services regularly at the rate of 2000 francs minimum a month. He has no maximum, generously inclined ladies who are particularly satisfied with him as a dancing partner being given full freedom to show their pleasure in the size of their monthly checks.

KLAMATH WILL HAVE ANOTHER ORCHESTRA

Klamath county is to have another orchestra, according to Harry Graham, who has completed arrangements for the indefinite stay here of the Broadway Novelty orchestra. It will play for dances and other functions in various parts of the county and arrangements are now being made for a series of spring dances at several towns of the county.
 The orchestra will be composed of Glen Vanenburg, violin; Bob Faust, piano; Harry Graham, trap drummer, and Dell Markham, Saxophone. Three of them have been playing together for nearly a year in the Elks' traveling orchestra out of Portland.
