'The Shooting of Dan McGrew'

from "The Spell of the Yukon,"
by Robert W. Service

"THE LADY WHO KISSED HIM—"

SCENE FROM THE SHOOTING OF DAN MCGREW

"These are the simple facts of the case,
And I guess that I ought to know.
They say that the stranger was crazed with 'hooch'
And I'm not denying it's so.

I'm not so wise as the lawyer guys,
But strictly betwween us two—
The woman that kissed him—and pinched his poke —
Was the lady that's known as Lou."

This is perhaps the best known of the poems of Robert W. Service. For sheer dramatic action this picture is in a class by itself.
