Here is what the councilmen think the Ray Hotel.

"First—We find testimony at the hearings does not support the written statement of the officers, which led us to refuse Mrs. Panos' application. We were misled by them and should not have denied her a permit to operate the hotel.

"Second—No evidence was offered to show that any liquor had ever been sold in the hotel by Mrs. Panos or her employees.

"Third—Evidence showed that the police had been called in three times while Mrs. Panos has been operating the hotel, but at each time they were called by Mrs. Panos to quell disturbances or to eject disturbers, which was the right thing for her to do, and shows she was trying to operate an orderly place.

"Fourth—Some evidence was offered to show that once or twice questionable women had secured rooms in the hotel, but no evidence to show that they were in the hotel with the knowledge and consent of Mrs. Panos. On the contrary, evidence showed as soon as Mrs. Panos found out their status, she immediately requested the objectionable roomers to leave.

"Fifth—The evidence showed that two Indian women from the reservation had rooms at the hotel during the latter part of December, 1924, and that the two were objectionable, but that Mrs. Panos and her husband were both at Sacramento at the time, and that when Mrs. Panos returned she promptly ordered the women to leave.

"Sixth—Evidence showed that on several occasions undesirable transients had secured rooms, but were immediately requested to leave, and we find the hotel is patronized by workmen, stock men, and transients, and is operated with as much care as any persons could exercise in operating a hotel of that kind.

"Seventh—We find no evidence to show that Mrs. Panos is a woman of immoral character, on the contrary, the evidence shows her to be of good moral character, endeavoring to operate her hotel in a lawful and orderly manner. We find that her application for a license should not have been denied, and we recommend that her new application now on file, seeking a permit to operate the Hotel Ray for 1925 be granted. Respectfully submitted.

In this column is listed, briefly, the evidence produced against the Ray hotel:

Patrolman Brown and Bordell—We were called to the Ray hotel upon complaint that an immoral Indian girl had "rolled" a Swede roomer of $15. The Swede had taken the girl to his room. Mrs. Panos called the police when the swearing and fighting became too loud.

R. F. Slavin—I roomed at the place a short time and moved away because of the noise and carousing at night. I saw a young girl staggering around the corridor as though intoxicated.

Deputy Sheriff Lon Burke—I talked with a girl at the hotel who admitted she was a fallen woman and used the hotel as a rendezvous. She was in her room when I talked to her.

Lee Craft, ex-policeman—I was called to the hotel one Sunday evening to arrest a couple of Indians who were staging a drunken fight. I found two empty bottles in the room of one of the Indians.

Mrs. R. F. Slavin—I went to the hotel the day before Christmas and saw a fallen woman who was told by the man in charge that two men were waiting to see her. I could tell by the way she dressed and painted up that she was a "fast woman."

Deputy Sheriff J. W. Hilton—M. B. Panos, husband of the manager, admitted to me that he had registered Sim Pate and Hazel Bentz in the same room on January 1, but ordered them out only because they didn't pay the room rent in advance.

H. I. McKim, ex-driver, Superior Laundry—Two immoral women were staying at the hotel when I went there to collect laundry. One of them made improper advances to me. Mrs. Panos knew they were staying there.

F. W. Snyder, deputy sheriff—Court records in the Sullivan trial show that Sullivan admitted he had bought a gallon of moonshine at the Ray hotel. I was with Lon Burke when we talked with the woman who admitted she belonged to the underworld.

Policeman J. E. Cooper—Since I have been on the police force I have seen drunken men go into the Ray hotel almost every night.

the tide toward Getz, with Governor Pierce and W. C. Culbertson supporting Van Riper and Sam A. Koser, George White and Ed Bailey supporting Getz.

A day or so previous to the meeting of the commission, Adjutant General White was called to Washington to attend a military conference. When the commission met, a vote was taken for the appointment of Johnson's successor, which resulted in a tie, two to two.

White for Getz

General White has definitely committed himself in favor of Mr. Getz, according to a purported statement made just prior to his departure for Washington, D. C. He stated that on his return he would cast his vote in favor of Mr. Getz.

When the American Legion meets tonight in the legion headquarters in the basement of the county clerk house, the question of endorsement of a candidate for the position will be brought up. According to officers of the legion, Mr. Getz is slated for the endorsement of the legion.

POLITICS ENTER INTO FIGHT FOR APPRAISER JOB

Getz and Van Riper Running Close Race for War Veteran Position

Klamath politics has entered into the selection of an appraiser for Klamath for the World War Veterans' State Aid commission according to word received from Salem today and substantiated here through local sources.

As the successor of Morris L. Johnson, former appraiser, who resigned recently, the name of H. E. Getz, former commander and present adjutant of the American Legion, was mentioned. Mr. Getz was accorded a large majority of the support of the legion. His candidacy was pushed forward and his supporters held him to be the logical man for the position.

Wanted Van Riper Eliminating personal grounds but holding that Getz was not competent to hold the job, several men, active politically, took upon their shoulders the job of supporting the candidacy of Garret Van Riper, chief deputy under Sheriff Burt Hawkins. Up until a few days before the last meeting of the World's War Veterans' Aid commission, composed of five members, including the governor and the secretary of state, Van Riper was slated for the job, by a vote of three to two, according to advices from Salem.

Pressure was brought to bear upon Ed Bailey of Junction City, it and a member of the commission, to place his vote for Getz. This swung was decided to send a Klamath representative to Yreka, Calif., to make a bid for the entrance of Klamath Falls into the league of northern California city teams.

A finance committee was appointed last night composed of Fred Houston, H. S. Mathews, Bert Cook, B. F. Moe, Fred Glover, According to Dr. Massey, Main street business men are strongly in favor of the local team.

H. S. Mathews will represent Klamath Falls at Yreka. A plot of ground just across the S. P. tracks on South Sixth street was held to be an ideal playing ground.

CONVICT INDIANS OF KILLING ELKS

Whether or not the elk killed on or off the reservation, did not seem to affect the judicial minds of six jurors sitting in judgment in justice court on Ed Parcell and Leonard Moore, who are charged with killing the protected animal. The two Indian boys in about 60 seconds were found guilty as charged. Sentence of the two boys was set for next Saturday at 2 p. m. by Justice of the Peace R. E. Hunsaker.

The defense admitted that the protected animals were killed but held that they were killed on the reservation, hence the Indians were immune from prosecution.
