

At The LIBERTY

"The Liberty Has the Pictures"

Your Favorite and Mine

The Great

T O M M I X

in ZANE GREY'S

"The Lone Star Ranger"

T O D A Y O N L Y

Sunday and Monday

Harry Carey in

"Flaming Forties"

Spring Is Here

and the Northern Fur Shop

takes great pleasure in being able to make its initial display of the season's smartest modes in capes and jackets. These garments were modeled during the past month in our own factory from designs furnished by some of New York's leading designers and we are positive they will meet the requirements of the most elite. Included in our display are two of fashion's newest furs: The Gazell and the Silver Muskrat.

Your present furs made over into the latest styles at most reasonable prices.

Watch our window.

The Northern Fur Shop

810 MAIN ST.

Feed and Seed Oats

For Sale

Good quality

KLABZUBA BROS.
Malin, Ore.

Herald "Class" Ads Pay

BOARD APPOINTS COMMITTEE

Committees were appointed, mutual problems discussed and points of ethics brought out at meeting of the Klamath Realty Board, held last night at the White Pelican Hotel. The board now has a membership of 24, including practically all of the realtors of the city. A model constitution submitted by the National Association of Real Estate boards was adopted last night. The next meeting of the board will be held March 16.

Mainly About People

The Weather—

The cyclo-stormograph at Underwood's pharmacy shows a slightly higher barometric pressure today and although the reading is still rather low indications are favorable for clear weather. Forecast for next 24 hours: Fair and cool, with brisk winds.

The Tycoos recording thermometer registered maximum and minimum temperatures today as follows:
High.....41 Low.....27

U. S. Weather Report—

Oregon: Fair and cool tonight and Sunday. Frosts tonight; gentle variable winds.

Bowman Back to Being Suit—

C. R. Bowman, former merchant of Chiloquin, and formerly a member of the county school board, brought suit against Thomas Lanz and wife today for $789.20, alleged due for merchandise purchased from Bowman when he was in business at Chiloquin. Mr. Bowman asks that property of Lanz be attached, pending the outcome of the suit.

Return to Medford—

After spending several days in Klamath Falls for the purpose of advising citizens concerning the intricacies of the federal income tax law, Dan Herring and Fred Colvig, who represent the federal income tax department for southern Oregon, returned to Medford this afternoon. The two men held forth in the council chambers of the city hall during their visit here.

Down From Skookum—

L. L. Green, sub-contractor on the railroad construction work north of the new settlement of Klamath, Skookum, was in town today to buy supplies and attend to business matters. He stopped at the Hall hotel last night. Work on the extension of the Southern Pacific lines north from Skookum to Oakridge is starting for the spring. A crew of men was kept at work on the tunnel excavation throughout the winter.

Looking Over Klamath Country—

W. R. Corne, interested in the Klamath country, is in Klamath Falls accompanied by his wife and N. T. McKee of Portland, for the purpose of looking over Klamath business conditions. Mr. Corne almost purchased a large ranch in the Langell valley territory last year. It is understood that the title to the property could not be established sufficiently to complete the sale. Mr. Corne is stopping at the Hall hotel.

Takes Position in Clerk's Office—

To fill the position left vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Mahlon Landis, Mrs. Jack Beal has accepted a position as deputy county clerk. Mrs. Beal assumed her new duties yesterday morning. Mrs. Landis will remain for several days to show Mrs. Beal the nature of her new duties. Mrs. Beal recently resigned as tax collector in the sheriff's office.

Return To Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reynolds Sr., and Frank Reynolds Jr., returned to their home in Sprague River following a fortnight's visit in Klamath Falls where they have been with their son and brother, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis. The child is highly improved however and was able to be taken to Sprague River.

Down From Chiloquin—

One community of Klamath was certainly benefited by a fire. That community is Chiloquin and the fire was when the old Chiloquin hotel burned to the ground over a year ago. Chiloquin was benefited in that Mr. and Mrs. Balfour immediately had another finer hotel put up and the new building has improved the appearance of the main street of town thereby. Mrs. Maud Balfour was in town today, stopping at the Hall hotel.

Shrine Rehearsal—

The first rehearsal of the cast for the Shrine show was held last night in the Masonic hall, when parts were rehearsed as well as the music solo and chorus work. The show, under directions of Frank Confer and Harold Bell is being looked forward to as one of the best of its kind. Confer and Bell were mainly responsible for the success of the Elk's Minstrel which played to capacity houses three nights of last week.

In City Today—

Mrs. Koontz of Malin was in the city today, bringing in her two children who submitted to tonsillectomy in the Klamath Valley hospital this afternoon.

In From Langell Valley—

Alf Duncan and Solomon Dewey are in town from their ranches in Langell Valley on business connected with the Willow Valley irrigation project. Duncan, an early settler in the Langell Valley country, declares that there is more moisture in the soil than there has been at any time during the last ten years, and barring frost, that the dry land ranches should have a prosperous season.

Mill Man In Town—

Theo Aygeris of Deter, Oregon, is in the city on a short business trip. Aygeris is owner of a mill at Deter, a small town in the Siskiyou mountains. The roads, according to Aygeris are in excellent condition for this time of the year despite the unexpected flurry of snow of the past two days.

Down From the Agency—

James W. Overton, government employe on the Klamath Indian reservation and spending a large part of his time to the apprehension of criminals on the reservation, was in town today to attend to business matters. He is stopping at the Hall hotel.

Copeo Man Here—

Charles J. Johnson, an employe at the home office of the California Oregon Power company in Medford, arrived in Klamath Falls last night to spend several days here attending to business matters. He is registered at the Hall.

Taber Here for Day—

On one of his regular business trips to Klamath Falls, Roy Taber, a well known druggist of Dorris, Calif., arrived in Klamath Falls last night.

By Visitor—

N. K. Knott of Bly was a business visitor in the city for the day, transacting affairs with Klamath Falls residents.

From Seattle—

F. J. Renning of Seattle is in the city for several days transacting business.

Mt. Shasta Visitor—

G. A. Roush of Mt. Shasta is in the city for the week-end visiting with friends and transacting business.

Chiloquin Guest—

Mrs. Walter Ruff of Chiloquin is a guest in the city, transacting business and visiting with friends.

To Visit South—

Mrs. Carl J. Sabo will leave for San Francisco in the morning, where she will spend a fortnight visiting and transacting business.

From Chiloquin—

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde K. Davis, furniture dealers of Chiloquin, were transacting business and shopping in the city today.

From Henley—

Frank and Maraha Latta were among the out of town visitors in the city from their ranch at Henley this afternoon.

The Scandinavian rooming house of 26 rooms in the Scandinavian hall is now open for business.

The Best

Hot Cross buns for everyone made just as good as

GOLDEN KRUST BREAD

You'll be sure to like them, because they are so much better than any you ever ate.

Klamath Bakery

826 Main

Returns From Santa Cruz—

B. L. Kerns, son-in-law of H. J. Mattoon of this city, has returned to Klamath to make his permanent home on his ranch just this side of Keno. Mr. Kerns is arranging for the construction of two houses on his property, in one of which he will make his permanent home. Mr. Kerns was accompanied by his wife and two of his five children. Three of his children will remain in Santa Cruz to finish out the school year, where they are attending high school.

Moves to Riley Apartments—

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Conway have moved from the Beckley home in Hot Springs addition to the Riley apartments.

From Dunsmuir—

H. A. Sprague, a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls, is in the city for the week-end, a guest in the White Pelican hotel from Dunsmuir.

From The North—

S. M. Ragland and G. O. Medark of Longview, Washington, are spending several days in the city on business.

From Sacramento—

S. L. Bussard, of Sacramento is among the out of town visitors spending a few days in the city on business.

Returns To Home—

S. D. Heckner of Sacramento left this morning for his home after spending the day in Klamath Falls. Heckner is sales manager of this district for the Union Oil company.

Visiting In City—

Mrs. M. Wilson of Los Angeles is visiting in the city with friends.

Here On Visit—

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Decker, representing the Chanslor and Lyon Auto Parts company are in the city for the remainder of the week in the interests of business. They are guests in the White Pelican hotel.

From The South—

C. R. Leech of Lexington, Virginia, is visiting in the city with his son, J. A. Leech of north Eleventh street.

From Sprague—

Marvin Williams, rancher from the Sprague River district has returned from a visit in California with friends and relatives.

Coseboom In Portland—

C. N. Coseboom, local architect, is in Portland for several days attending to business matters in connection with the plans for the new Central school, to be built this year on Seventh and High streets.

Submits To Major Operation—

Jean Prouty, employe of the Klamath Falls Creamery, submitted to a major operation at the Klamath General hospital yesterday. Hospital authorities reported Miss Prouty's condition as good, following the operation.

Leaves For Portland—

Mrs. Albert E. Peasley accompanied by her father, J. W. Hanners left this morning for Portland where she will visit for a month. Hanners has been visiting in the city for several days with Mr. and Mrs. Peasley.

In California—

Jack Kimball, Klamath representative of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, and Mrs. Kimball is spending several weeks in California on a business and pleasure trip. The Kimballs were accompanied by Mrs. C. F. Stone.

Portland Visitors—

Among the visitors from Portland this week-end are W. C. Jones, E. Frere and G. H. Smith who will spend several days here in the interest of business.

Revival Meetings To Be Held—

Dr. J. Lewis Smith of Sacramento will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church tomorrow morning when he will open a series of revival meetings. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Leaves For Portland—

F. R. Dunn, resident manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, left this morning for Portland where he will attend a conference of telephone managers of Oregon.

Sues For $36.41—

Vogran Candy Corporation brought suit in circuit court yesterday against F. D. Andrews for $36.41 for money alleged due for merchandise sold.

PINE TREE

TODAY ONLY

She Got Her Man

Thundering her way over hills—risking her life in pursuit of the mysterious horseman who shot her father. Then the capture only to find—what? See the answer in the greatest action picture of the year

"The Sign of the Cactus" starring

Jack Hoxie

Ably supported by the daring Helen Holmes and the famous Ranch Riders.

A BLUE STREAK WESTERN

—Also—

Universal Comedy

"SOME TOMBOY"

An Indian Special entitled
"THE COMING OF THE LONE WOLF"

—and—

"SNOOKY" and GIRLS in his weekly review

"BLUEBIRD REVIEW"

Sunday and Monday

James Kirkwood and Madge Bellamy

—in—

SECRETS OF THE NIGHT

—Also—

Mack Sennett Comedy

"BULL AND SAND"

—and—

International News

"SNOOKY" and GIRLS

—in—

"BOOBS IN THE WOODS"

Continuous Show Sunday, 1:30 to 11 p. m.

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

James M. Barrie's

"PETER PAN"

Starring Betty Bronson

Tuesday and Wednesday

White Pelican Theatre

The Picture House for You and Your Family

TONIGHT—Harold Lloyd in "SAFETY LAST"

Dedicated to the cause of laughter and thrills. This is Lloyd's best picture, one in which laughs come thick and fast and thrills—say, wait until you see it.

Evenings, 10 and 25c.

Matinee, 5 and 20c

Matinee tomorrow 1:30 p. m.

Coming

March 14 and 15, Mary Pickford in

"Tess of the Storm Country"

Advertising Space in
"THE EVENING HERALD"
Per vs 100 Cents on the Dollar