

Bakery Goods

that are better in every way.

GOLDEN KRUST BREAD

Hot Cross Buns
Pies
Cream Puffs
Cookies
Doughnuts

They cost a little more here but they are worth it.

Klamath Bakery
826 MAIN

Mainly About People

From Malin—
Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls over the week-end was D. D. Liskey of Malin who spent several days visiting with friends and transacting business.

Dairy Visitor—
Emma Ward of Dairy was among those who spent the week-end in Klamath Falls, visiting with friends and transacting business.

Professor Malone—
Professor George A. Malone of San Diego is a visitor in the city, speaking last night to a crowded house in the Moose Hall.

Algona Visitor—
E. V. Powers of Algona was among the out of town visitors spending the week-end in the city. Powers is a guest in the Arcade hotel. He returned to his home last night.

Visit in City—
A party of four were guests over the week-end in the city, driving over the mountains from Grants Pass. The party consisted of Miss Alice Short, Miss Mabel Dick, W. Howard and G. Cameron.

From Pot Latch—
M. K. Coombs and Charles James, visitors from Pot Latch, Idaho have been spending several days in the city on business.

From Coos Bay—
Ralph Livengood of Marshfield, Oregon, on Coos Bay arrived in the city the latter part of the week where he will remain permanently.

From Medford—
Mr. and Mrs. Everett Haynes of Medford are business visitors in the city, driving over from the valley. They report the roads to be in excellent condition for this time of the year.

Medford Visitor—
P. R. Sheeley of Medford, interested in the insurance game, is in the city conferring with business men of Klamath Falls.

On Business Here—
Mr. and Mrs. M. Denner of Gridley, California, are business visitors in the city, guests in the Arcade hotel.

Chiloquin Men—
Frank Bridgewater and F. L. Jones, of the Chiloquin Lumber company were week-end visitors in the city, guests in the Arcade hotel.

From Crescent—
A. E. Doy was a visitor in the city from his home at Crescent, conferring on business matters with Klamath Falls men.

Bly Visitor—
M. C. Knotts of Bly was a business visitor in the city from his ranch at Bly, spending the week-end as a guest in the Arcade hotel.

Tenant Visitors—
O. Davis and F. Boyle of Tennant, interested in lumber, spent the week-end in the city transacting business.

From California—
Among those who visited in the city for the week-end was G. Palmer of Tennant who spent several days in Klamath Falls transacting business.

Malin Visitors—
Harry Nichols and Bob Nichols were Malin visitors in Klamath Falls over Saturday and Sunday, from their ranch.

Sued For Divorce—
According to the Southwestern Oregon Daily News, of Marshfield, F. C. Bentz has filed divorce proceedings in the county court at Coquille, against Hazel Bentz, charging desertion. Mrs. Bentz figured in the recent Oscar Erickson murder case. She is now in California.

Wauna Visitor—
H. Campbell of Wauna, is in the city for the day, coming over the week-end to transact business.

Visiting Brother—
Mrs. Grace Laird of Topeka, Kansas arrived in the city Sunday to visit with her brother Floyd Shafer for an extended period.

Oakland Visitor—
F. W. Shulte of Oakland, California, is a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls and spent the week-end in the city transacting business.

Merrill Visitor—
Dwight Ladd of Merrill was among the week-end visitors in the city from his ranch in that section.

Business Visitors—
S. M. Hogan and C. C. Hibbard, Portland residents are in the city, guests in the Arcade hotel, while transacting business in Klamath Falls.

Portland Visitor—
W. S. Uley of Portland, representative of the Portland branch of the Willys-Overland company, is in the city for several days on business with Dale and Powell, Willys-Overland automobile dealers in Klamath Falls.

Business Women—
Members of the Business and Professional Women's club will meet in chamber of commerce rooms for an interesting business meeting. Mrs. Myrtle Helm of the Pelican Bay school will give an address on the Symphony Orchestra and selections by the string quartette, under direction of Harry Borel will be enjoyed.

Returns To City—
Dr. E. G. Wisecarver, who spent the past fortnight at Richardson Springs, California, returned to Klamath Falls over the week-end, greatly benefited by his rest while in the south.

Medford Visitor—
Inez Willheight of Medford is a visitor in the city for several days, arriving in the city yesterday to visit with friends.

From Vancouver—
T. R. Stedding of Vancouver, B. C. is a business visitor in the city. Stedding is a guest in the Arcade hotel while in Klamath Falls.

Ill With Pneumonia—
Ray Crawford of the Pastime Barber shop is seriously ill at his home with a severe attack of pneumonia from which he has been suffering the past week. Crawford is receiving constant medical attention as his case is considered serious.

To Visit North—
Mrs. Clara Cornish of 924 Grant street, will leave tomorrow for Salem where she will receive medical treatment for optic trouble. From Salem, she will go to Rydewood, Washington, where she will visit for an extended period with her children.

From San Francisco—
W. C. Champion of San Francisco is a business visitor in the city, a guest of the White Pelican hotel while in Klamath Falls.

From The South—
J. W. Pettus of San Francisco, well known in Klamath Falls, is in the city in the interest of business.

From Portland—
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Evans of Portland are in the city on business visiting with friends.

From "Topsy"—
A. P. Heup of Dorris, an official of the Topsy Lumber company is a Klamath Falls visitor, spending the week-end in the city.

California Judge Here—
Judge George O. Shumway, one of the largest property owners in Klamath Falls, and his son, John Shumway from Richfield, Calif., have been business visitors in the city for the past few days. They will leave tomorrow for Willamina, where they will transact business, expecting to return to the city.

Malin Victorious—
The first victory of the year for Malin hoopsters was won Friday night from the Klamath Boarding school. The final whistle brought the score of 21 to 7 home to the Malin boys. The girls of the boarding school made up for the crushing defeat administered the boys when they sent the Malin girls home without the laurels.

Portland Visitors—
Among the many out of town visitors who spent the week-end in Klamath Falls were Mrs. Lulu Lockhaven and Mrs. H. R. Reynolds, the latter an employe of the Hearst syndicate and a special feature writer who has been in the city looking into property interests. They toured Canada before motoring south to Klamath Falls, and report excellent highway conditions.

Waives Hearing—
Jack Edwards, charged with larceny from a dwelling, when he is claimed to have taken 12 mink hides and two otter hides from the home of Bryce McCormick, of Keno, waived preliminary hearing—Saturday before Justice of the Peace R. E. Hunsaker. He has been lodged in jail when unable to furnish bail. Sheriff Burt Hawkins brought Edwards to Klamath Falls, following his arrest by Sheriff Taylor of Lane county, in Eugene.

Cheap Glasses

are like slow poison.
They distort the rays of light, disturb the angles of vision and cause pain and discomfort, thus injuring the eye sight (some times beyond repair).
We give your eyes a thorough examination and use only the highest quality of materials in filling the prescription.

Dr. Goble

700 MAIN
Frames Repaired
Eyes Examined
QUICK SERVICE

PINE TREE LAST TIMES TONIGHT PINE TREE

JAMES KIRKWOOD in

"Secrets of the Night"

Mack Sennett and International Comedy News and
"Snooky" and His Girl Revue presenting
"BOOBS IN THE WOODS"

TOMORROW and WEDNESDAY
—Matinee and Evening—
Special 4 o'Clock Children's Matinee

Special Prologue

ADOLPH ZUNOR & JESSE L. LASKY PRESENT
James M. Barrie's
"PETER PAN"
HERBERT BRENON Production
ASSISTED BY ROY POMEROY
Adapted by WILLIS GOLDBECK
A Paramount Picture

Come fly away with Peter Pan to the Never, Never Land.
To pirates and Injuns and golden adventures.
A joyous wonder picture you'll never forget.

Screen play by Willis Goldbeck

At The LIBERTY

"The Liberty Has the Pictures"

Last Showing Tonight

HARRY CAREY in Brete Harte's
"Flaming Forties"

Without doubt the finest Western we've played in months

Tuesday and Wednesday

Music Lovers' Night
Harry Borgl and his Orchestra assisted by
Muriel MacDonald, Lyric Scotch Soprano
An Hour of Pictures and an Hour of Music

"Quality will never be sacrificed to meet a price"

Ballkumburg
President
Columbia Tire Corporation

CTC

TIRES and TUBES

COLUMBIA TIRE CORPORATION, PORTLAND, OREGON

Feed and Seed Oats
For Sale
Good quality
KLABZUBA BROS.
Malin, Ore.

Elks' Minstrels

Show at the Malin Theatre
Wednesday, March 11
You—Be—There

Return From South—
Mrs. W. C. Ball and daughter Mary returned Saturday evening from a motor trip through southern California, with Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Nelson of Keno. Mrs. Ball spent a month with her daughter, who was a student in the San Jose normal school.

in Klamath Falls—
W. G. Mayfield, prominent cattle man of Central Point, is in Klamath Falls transacting business here and in the upper valley, visiting with his son, Frank Mayfield of Mt. Laki district.

Called East—
Miss Anne Brett left this afternoon for Bimil, Minn., where she has been called by the serious illness of her brother. Miss Brett is employed in the office of The Evening Herald as bookkeeper.

County Court Meets—
Although many important matters of interest to the county were discussed, no official business was actually transacted by the county court in session Saturday afternoon, beyond the letting of the usual bills that come before them at each meeting. The county court will meet this afternoon and take up the thread of business from last week.

Visitors in From the Country—
Among the visitors from the country who were in town Saturday and Sunday from different rural communities of the Klamath county were L. H. Shelby of Keno, William Hannan of Merrill, W. M. Morrison of Chiloquin, Roy Nelson of Worden, U. E. Reeder of Henley, H. J. Tieknor of Langell's valley, Dr. F. M. Trout of Merrill and A. E. Street of Merrill.

Portland Visitor—
R. E. McClellan of Portland is a business visitor in Klamath Falls, spending the week-end in the city.

Off on Assessing Trip—
Maurice Johnson, deputy county assessor, is busy these days with the job of assessing livestock in the vicinity of Merrill and Malin. Mr. Johnson left this morning for Malin, where he will remain till tomorrow night on an assessing trip. The responsibility of the office is to be entirely upon his shoulders for the first part of this week, as his superior, County Assessor Bill Lee is home in bed with a severe attack of lumbago. Mr. Lee is disappointed at this inability to be up and about, because he had hoped to have a conference with County Assessor Smith of Modoc county, California, relative to assessment of livestock that ranges in both Oregon and California.

Lumberman Here—
E. H. Joy of Westwood, California, interested in lumber in the county, was a week-end visitor from his home in the south.

Underwood Man—
W. D. Stevens of Eugene was made the representative of the Underwood Typewriting company this week, making this section a part of Oregon. Instead of falling under California jurisdiction as it has in the past with the company.

From Bonanza—
Miss Lou Tuttle spent the week-end in the city from her home in Bonanza, visiting with friends and doing a little spring shopping. Miss Tuttle was a guest in the White Pelican hotel during her stay in Klamath Falls.

From Sprague River—
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wann and family of Sprague River are visiting in the city for a few days, transacting business and shopping. They are guests in the White Pelican hotel. Wann is owner of a store at Sprague River as well as postmaster of that district.