

DICTIONARIES NOW AVAILABLE

Some years ago a publishing house of New York City conceived the idea of confining its business wholly to publishing educational works.

After advertising in magazines and similar periodicals, which did not result in the returns that were expected, a plan for an educational campaign through daily newspapers was proposed.

Realizing that the rapid march of progress during the past few years has brought a vast number of new words into our language, the publishers took the lead and started in to compile an entirely new dictionary.

All of the old dictionaries should now be thrown into the discard. Here is an entirely new one—enlarged vocabulary—modern—accurate—authoritative—clear type, self-pronouncing; flexible—textile leather grained binding, soft and pliable, making it easy to handle; stamped in gold, red and green; durable and complete in every detail of modern book making.

Distributed only through newspaper advertising on the well known coupon plan, one can well afford to throw away every old dictionary and get this useful new volume. The first coupon is printed elsewhere in this issue, and millions of readers of daily newspapers throughout the country will now start to clip coupons—again demonstrating the pulling power of daily newspaper advertising.

Betty Bronson and Ernest Torrence in the Herbert Brenon Production of J.M. Barrie's "Peter Pan" A Paramount Picture

At the Liberty

"The Flaming Forties," Harry Carey's latest picture, will be shown for the last time at the Liberty Theatre tonight.

This is the picturization of the famous Bret Harte story, "Tennessee's Partner." Harry Carey has the title role as the "partner" who loved Tennessee as a brother and whose affection was put to the test when he discovered Tennessee was the great outlaw, Despard.

Jacqueline Goddon is Carey's leading woman in this thrilling drama. The supporting cast also includes William Norton Bailey, James Mason, Frank Norcross and Wilbur Higby.

Chilling the spine with tense situations, standing the hair of one's head on end with mystery and melodrama, and tickling the risibles of all those who love to laugh, "Silk Stocking Sal" Evelyn Brent's new starring vehicle, makes one of the most interesting motion pictures which has come out of Hollywood in many months. It is a worthy successor to "The Dangerous Flirt," Miss Brent's initial production; and indeed surpasses that feature in point of thrills and smashing situations. E. Richard Schayer has turned out a remarkable story of intrigue in New York's underworld, balanced off against the activity of a band of crooks which operates in exclusive society circles. "Silk Stocking Sal" comes to the Liberty Theatre Tuesday only.

At the Pine Tree

There is hardly a man, woman or child in the land who doesn't know and love "Peter Pan", the boy who wouldn't grow up.

For the past twenty years this J. M. Barrie play has been nothing short of a sensation on the legitimate stage. It has become an institution, in fact—an institution that shows no sign of decay.

Barrie, the man with the most colorful imagination of all England's writers, has put into this classic scenes which could only be hinted at in the stage production of the piece. But on the screen, it is an entirely different matter. In the Herbert Brenon production for Paramount of the Barrie masterpiece, with Betty Bronson, Ernest Torrence, Cyril Chadwick, Virginia Brown Faire, Anna May Wong and others in the star cast, the under ground home of the Little Lost Boys, Never Never Land itself, the Indians, fairies and pirates, the Darling home, dog-nurse and all have been reproduced with amazing fidelity on the screen.

"Peter Pan", which opens tomorrow at the Liberty Theatre is a scene for scene picturization of the story as the author wrote it.

Herbert Brenon was selected to direct the picture because he was the producer of the first two fantasies the screen ever knew. Roy Pomeroy, who handled the technical end of the Cecil B. DeMille super-production, "The Ten Commandments", which stood the entire industry on end, is responsible for the many weird effects in "Peter Pan".

Esther Ralston, George All, Mary Brian, Philippe de Lacy and Jack Murphy complete the cast of players. "Peter Pan" was adapted for the screen by Willis Goldbeck.
