HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer
WASHINGTON, Mar. 13. — Although Nick Longworth will not officially be elected or seated as speaker until the new House assembles next December, political oracles already have doped out for him the next step in his career.

From speaker, according to the "dope" he is to move up to the senatorship. There he would be counted upon to remain as a fix-home, since even Nick's closest friends scarcely cast him in the role of a presidential possibility.

While Longworth has proved himself politically invincible in his home bailiwick of Cincinnati, having been defeated there but once in 20 years—and that in the Wilson year of 1912—he never has faced a test of strength in a state campaign.

Elements of popularity which have made him strong in his home district might hinder rather than help in an election, in which the voters of the whole state had a voice.

A period in the speaker'ship, it is believed, may give Longworth new prestige among his "folks back home" and win for him recognition as a distinguished Ohioan rather than merely as a favored son of Cincinnati.

Words That "Ring True"

"Service" and "friendliness" are two words that "ring true" when they are spoken of the American National Bank.

We are proud of the fact that our steady growth in the past years has been due not to what we have said of ourselves, but what our friends have said about us to their friends.

This unsolicited "word of mouth" advertising done by our present satisfied customers has been the strongest factor in building up this institution.

SERIOUS LUNG TROUBLE STARTS WITH COUGHING

Physicians warn against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BAL-SA-ME-A for all bronchial affections. BAL-SA-ME-A is a sure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant. Dr. Benj. F. Crabtree, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family. It is quick, sure and safe in its action like nothing else."

Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician noticed that a tribe of Indians in Nevada, by the use of oils from a native plant were immune from the ravages of influenza. He used these oils among his white patients and then in a hospital overflowing with "death" cases. News of the results swept the world and for some time it was not possible to supply the demand.

BAL-SA-ME-A has now been standardized and gives uniformly miraculous results in four ways: 1. It soothes the inflamed membranes and relieves irritation. 2. It increases secretion of mucus and permits easy expectoration. 3. It stimulates pores of the skin in throwing off body poisons and it strikes at the cause, checking germ action immediately.

Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam cough syrups that are only soothing syrups and do not go to the base of the trouble. Unlike other cough remedies BAL-SA-ME-A is free from coal tar and other harmful narcotics. Pleasant to take and absolutely safe to give to children.

Be sure you get BAL-SA-ME-A with the picture of the Indian on the package. Guaranteed to relieve any cough, no matter how what causes it. Your money back. All drug stores sell BAL-SA-ME-A.

In Klamath Falls buy it from Star Drug Co.
