MOM'N POP

CHICK IS IN LUCK

BY TAYLOR

AT THE LIBERTY

Do you like rapid-fire, whirlwind romance of the old West? A beautiful girl, a scheming villain and an irrepressible happy-go-lucky youth make "Western Yesterday" one of the most interesting pictures you ever saw and we know you will not want to miss it. It is showing at the Liberty Theatre tonight only.

The second chapter of "The Santa Fe Trail" will be shown at the Liberty Theatre tonight, and judging from the numerous inquiries regarding this picture it must have met with the unqualified approval of all who witnessed its premier Sunday and Monday.

Also the first instalment of Photographic Interviews in which your friends will give you the low down on important subjects of the day.

Franklyn Farnum has not appeared to better advantage on the screen

THE DAY OF THE GREAT BEAUTY CONTEST CONDUCTED BY THE "DAILY SCOOP" HAS ARRIVED WITH NO CANDIDATES ENTERED POP HAS LOST ALL INTEREST IN THE OUTCOME

WHY'R YOU LOOKIN' SO GLUM MR GUNN? I HAD PLANNED A GREAT ACHIEVEMENT TODAY MAC- HAD OUR CANDIDATES BEEN ABLE TO ENTER THE CONTEST AND WIN, OUR BUSINESS WOULD HAVE SHOWN A BIG INCREASE THIS YEAR-

FOR ALMOST THREE WEEKS THINGS SEEMED TO BE IN OUR FAVOR AND I LOOKED FORWARD TO THE DAY WHEN WE COULD PUBLISH A TESTIMONIAL LETTER GIVING MAGIC MUD THE CREDIT FOR A GREAT VICTORY BUT INSTEAD OF SUCCESS SMILING ON US TODAY FAILURE GRINS AT US FROM YONDER CALENDAR

HOORAY POP! LOOK- MARIAN WON THE BEAUTY CONTEST!! WHAT THE DEUCE DO WE CARE ABOUT WHO WON THE CONTEST NOW?

BUT JUST THINK POP SHE'LL GET $5000 AND THEN WE CAN GET MARRIED!!

ever before in his career. His infectious smile which has the advantage of being sincere is backed by a display of fine acting dotted with delicate touches and delightful gauges. As his servant, Moses Washington Stonewall Lee, Max Asher contributes a riot of fun. Told by his master, Warren, to go and lie to the unwelcome guests who have come unbidden, Moses makes a valiant effort but instead of getting them off he makes them decide to stay forever by telling them that his master is dead having been shot because he broke his leg.

Lovely Marguerite Clayton, pretty and appealing, whose name has been known to picture goers for several years, she started her work when she was a young girl, is indeed appealing in her portrayal of the young city bred girl who gives up her city lover for "The Bandit Tamer."

Another contributing factor to the barrel of comedy which the film boasts is the team of Crimmins and Gora.

"The Bandit Tamer" is booked at the Liberty Saturday only.

AT WHITE PELICAN

Who can truthfully declare that he does not feel the lure of a genuine melodrama? That is, a melodrama which is true to life and convincing at all times. Breathes there a man, or a woman either, for that matter, who does not thrill when the hero triumphs at last and the unscrupulous villain is foiled? We believe not, and for that reason we are sure of the welcome which awaits Wife in Name Only.

This photoplay, which was adapted from the popular novel by Bertha M. Clay, is a frank melodrama, but it is so sincere that it leaves you with the feeling that you have delved into a human document. The story, which by the way, contains no really villainous villain but a ruthless villainess, shows how the love of a loyal, strong, clean-minded man leaps the barriers reared by deceit and crime and enables its owner to win back his beautiful bride. "Wife in Name Only" is at the White Pelican Theater tonight only.

SUGAR CONTRACTS TO BE SIGNED UP

Contracts for sugar beet crops to be raised this year in the vicinity of Midland will be signed up for the Sacramento Valley Sugar company the first of the next week by Robert Oldemeyer, field representative of the sugar refining company, it was announced today.

Mr. Oldemeyer has just returned from Bonanza where he has signed up over 100 acres of sugar beets. It is the hope of the sugar company to sign up crops of sugar beets from at least 1000 acres.

The seven wonders of the world in spring are the seven days of the week.

TRACK ACTIVITIES START

With the advent of spring days, such as the afternoon of today, track practice of the grade and high schools will come into vogue for Klamath Falls schools to be in the pink of condition for the county track meet. Baseball is now making its appearance in earnest and the noon hours are made short by the most ardent fans who dash back to the school grounds to peg away on the pill. For the Central school athletes Russell B. Kidder of the manual training department will keep them in trim while H. W. Koesee of the Riverside school will give his services to the boys from that district.

Which is which? Eperts can't tell. A little difference in time, maybe, but that's about all.

Read how modern songsmiths adopt old familiar strains to serve their needs, and how the jazz concert you give your friends may in reality be but an adaptation of the same melodies they are playing at the classical concert downtown.
