

SOCIETY

A series of large parties marked off the main events of the social calendar this week, leaving the smaller parties for next week. Society is anticipating the Shriner's Hi-Jinks which comes during the coming fortnight, and the Automobile Show, in which many manifest an interest. A style show will probably be given in connection with the Automobile exhibit, through the courtesy of the various shops and merchants in Klamath Falls. In the midst of the Lenten season, the majority of events of the season, with the exception of afternoon parties are quiet yet Spring has given an impetus to the hostess that winter fails to bring.
