Frank B. Nash Sought by Anxious Parents

LOS ANGELES, March 20.—Disappearing some seven years ago in western Canada, Frank B. Nash is reported as having been seen in Klamath Falls last November.

On this motorcycle Desmond and Cole raced for miles against a train aboard which Desmond finally swung himself from the speeding machine.

On the Screen

At the Liberty

There is nothing in the world like a Yankee character. Therefore, the pictureization of "Yankee Speed" brought forth startling results.

Superlatives simply can't describe the sensations in this new picture achievement. "Yankee Speed" is showing at the Liberty theatre today only.

Reginald Barker directed "The Great Divide," which comes to the Liberty Theatre on Sunday and Monday.

Mr. Baker was particularly pleased with the assignment, for he was stage director for Henry Miller when the latter triumphed in the William Vaughn Moody play.

At the Pine Tree

PINE TREE—with 2 col cut William Desmond went through what he says is the most thrilling experience of his long and exciting screen career while working in "Ridin' Pretty," Universal Picture to be shown in the Pine Tree theater tonight.

Since he has been working as star for Universal, Desmond has worked with lions, alligators, cow ponies and similar sources of danger.

Native picture-goers, whose fiction reading includes the popular works of Ethel M. Dell, will soon have the opportunity of seeing this author's greatest novel on the local screen.

Anna Q. Nilsson, James Kirkwood, Raymond Hatton and Sheldon Lewis are the featured quartet of favorite players who appear in the leading roles.

The story is a vivid melodramatic romance involving a girl and two men in darkest Africa. Briefly, it concerns Sylvia Ingletton, the proud and spirited daughter of wealthy English parents.

Arrived there, she learns that the passing years have worked a great change in Guy. He is a physical and moral wreck.

Aside from the notable cast and dramatic strength of story, the photoplay is distinguished by reason of its unusually picturesque backgrounds, colorful pictorial settings and some unique photographic effects.

At the Pine Tree Theater Sunday and Monday.

What happens when Guy tries to claim her and she finds her heart torn between the old love and the new and how in the end husband and wife are reunited is dramatically developed in a series of tense, gripping situations that lead to a startling climax before the picture comes to a happy and satisfying close.
