

SOCIETY

Society turned out en masse over the week-end to witness the Klamath Falls automobile show, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings held under the auspices of the American Legion in the new Johnson garage. Especially was the attendance large on Friday evening, when many witnessed the attractive fashion show put on by merchants of the city.

The week was a success socially with the dinner dance at the White Pelican hotel, and many informal afternoon affairs scheduled for spring entertainments. The Shrine show of next week, which will rival the Elk's Minstrel, is being anticipated throughout the city and many tickets have been sold for the affair. All members of the cast are residents of Klamath Falls, making the affair the more interesting. The recital of the Sacred Heart Academy musical students, scheduled for Tuesday, March 24, in the White Pelican hotel is among the interesting items on the social calendar for next week, with various clubs meeting in session for both afternoon and evening.

ENJOY CARD PARTY TUESDAY EVENING

Members of St. Mary's Altar society entertained with a card party and social evening in Lyceum hall on Tuesday evening in honor of St. Patrick's day. Favours and decorations as well as refreshments were carried out in the holiday motif. High score of the evening was given to Miss Evelyn Kohn and high score for gentlemen to P. E. Hanson. Low score of the evening was given to Mrs. Perry.

HOSTESSES AT BRIDGE TEA

A series of very pretty parties were those given on St. Patrick's day on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Dunbar and Mrs. J. S. Elliott at the home of the latter on Pacific Terrace. Favours and decorations were carried out in St. Patrick motif, with leaf green the dominant color. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Glen Jester, Mrs. H. D. Lloyd Stewart, Mrs. Will Baldwin, Mrs. M. S. West and Mrs. R. E. Padcock. Mrs. Baldwin and Mrs. West also presided at the tea tables. High score of the afternoon was given to Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck and Mrs. C. B. Brown, second high to Mrs. Leslie Rogers and Mrs. George Stevenson. Consolation prizes for Tuesday and Wednesday were given to Mrs. Tom Watters and Mrs. William McNealy. The affair was one of the most delightfully arranged social events of the season.

ENTERTAIN WITH SHOWER

In honor of Mrs. Carr Dalton, who was before her marriage in January, Miss Della Short, a number of friends entertained for her with a miscellaneous shower at the Burrell Short ranch on Wednesday, March 11. ### COLLEGE STUDENTS TO SPONSOR DANCE

Plans are under way for the dance of Oregon Agricultural students to be given in the White Pelican hotel on the evening of Wednesday, March 25, at which the alumni and former students of O. A. C. will be guests of those students of the college home for spring vacation of next week. Martin Rmsby, a student of the college, is general chairman of the affair. All over the state of Oregon, Greater O. A. C. dances will be given on Friday night, in accordance with a schedule arranged on the college campus in the past. Plans were made for a dancing party at that time in Klamath Falls, however conflicts were found and the dance forged ahead to Wednesday evening.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT TO OBSERVE WEEK

In observance of National Music week, which falls on May 3 to May 9, the music committee of the Library club is planning to entertain on that week, exchanging dates with the book committee. At this time there will be no paper, the entire afternoon devoted to music. There will be no meeting of the music department in April.

GUESTS ENTERTAINED WITH LUNCHEON

Mr. and Mrs. James Perry entertained for several guests on Tuesday with luncheon in honor of their son Kenneth Perry who was a member of the school of senior engineers, who were recent guests here of the California Oregon Power company. A centerpiece of cut flowers was used for the luncheon table. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. James Perry, Professor Stuart Sims, Miss Jean Perry, Miss Lois Bynon, Kenneth Perry, Tom Deitzell and Carroll Bullen.

MISS JOHNSON TO ENTERTAIN

Miss Mary Johnson has issued invitations for a March Hare dinner party to be given on Wednesday evening in the White Pelican hotel. Covers will be laid for fourteen guests.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN WILL GIVE BANQUET

Plans for an elaborate banquet of the Klamath Falls chapter of the American Society of University Women were made on Monday evening when Miss LeLaine West entertained the group with an informal evening. The date of the banquet has been set for April 20, the third Monday of the month, to be given in the White Pelican hotel dining room. The following heads of the committees were appointed by Mrs. J. R. Shaw, president of the society; Mrs. G. A. Krause, general chairman; Miss LeLaine West, decorations; Mrs. Russell Austin, publicity; Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein, in charge of the musical program; Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt in charge of the entertainment for the evening. Invitations have been issued to all those whom the society think eligible, however if any eligible person has been overlooked, the committee in charge are anxious to obtain their names for the banquet.

TO MEET WITH JEAN PERRY

Miss Jean Perry will entertain informally on Tuesday evening for a group of the younger set at her home on North Ninth street.

SOCIAL EVENING IS PLANNED

The program committee of the Business and Professional Women's club has planned a delightful social evening for members of the club and their guests in the chamber of commerce on Monday evening when they meet in regular session.

HOSTESSES AT BRIDGE

Mrs. G. I. Stebbins and Mrs. Allen B. Jones entertained jointly on St. Patrick's day, Thursday afternoon with an attractive bridge party in the McCarthy apartments. Decorations and tea favours were carried out in the motif of St. Patrick, with green the dominant color. Prizes of the afternoon were awarded to Mrs. G. A. Bellman and Mrs. H. J. Winters.
