TENOR TO SING

Well Known American Artist To Perform At M. E. Church Soon

George E. Maddox, American tenor, will be heard in concert at the Methodist Episcopal Church, April 24th, it was announced today. Mr. Maddox is to be assisted by Carlton Jones, violinist and Charles Hozelrigg, pianist.

When these musicians toured the Pacific coast last winter they were received with great enthusiasm. Mr. Maddox has been with the Brandon Opera company for some time. He has just finished an engagement at the public auditorium in Portland.

It has been only through the successful negotiations of members of the Methodist church with these musicians, that Klamath Falls is to be favored. The concert will be given under the auspices of that church.

KLAMATH FALLS BEATS QUINTET OF RESERVATION

Although only a practice game, Klamath Falls town team came to the front with a bang yesterday and defeated Chiloquin, tied for league leadership in the independent basket ball league of Klamath, by a score of 45 to 14. The game was played on the tennis court in Riverside park before an enthusiastic audience of about 75. Temporary backstops were erected for the game. The lineup of the local team was: Curly Svenson, forward; Deau Beckley, forward; Dale Soule, center; Harry Molatore, guard, and Singley of Pelican Bay, guard.

Klamath Falls town team will meet Klamath Agency next week in a double header, one game to be played here and the other on the Agency floor. The first game will be played at Agency on Saturday night. Sunday afternoon the Agency team will journey to Klamath Falls and meet the local team in this city on the improvised basketball floor on the tennis court.

The championship game of the season in the independent basketball league takes place next Saturday night when Fort Klamath and Chiloquin fight it out for supremacy. Fort Klamath and Chiloquin are tied for first place honors.

CORPS TO MAKE DEBUT AT SHOW

Shrine Hi Jinks Nearly Ready for Presentation on Friday Night

Crater Lake Shrine Club Drum and Bugle Corps will make their debut Friday night, March 27th, 1925, at the Scandinavian Hall, at the big Shrine hi-jinks, vaudeville and dance. This organization is something that Klamath Falls will be proud of, as they are to herald their home town and its beauties at all Shrine conventions to be given from now on. They have been outfitted with the most modern equipment, such as drums and bugles, and their uniforms cost $125.00 apiece. They promise a very interesting program and a sample of their wares in the opening act of the vaudeville and hi-jinks. They have already made reservations and accommodations for the big Shrine convention in June at Los Angeles, California. This will be a good opportunity to hear this organization do their best. J. H. Rhodes, who is Captain, has his men drilled into first class condition, the personnel consisting of A. L. Wishard, drum master; Marion Hanks, quartermaster; A. R. Leavitt, drummer; H. R. Perfin, drummer; George C. Ulrich, drummer; F. R. Dunn, drummer; R. E. Origo, drummer; L. J. Struble, drummer; Hal Ogle, drummer; W. C. Van Emon, drummer; N. G. Wheeler, base drummer; J. R. Shaw, bugler; J. M. Long, bugler; Hans Nylander, bugler; J. H. Rhodes, bugler; A. L. Wishard, bugler; Glenn Kent, bugler; and E. J. McLaughlin, bugler.
