

"You are correct, Senora. Fine coffee is very much like the wine—age mellow, refines, brings forth the delightful, the rare flavor!"

"Here in our tropic storehouses, for two years, three years, the coffees superfine are reborn. Here develops the character aristocratic."

"Ah, no, Senora! It is too bad. But most of our coffee leaves at once for other lands. So many people want the coffee drink. Only a little do we hold here to mellow, to age. And ah! what a treasure for the really particular roaster, with the customers appreciative!"

"Is it so? You say the S & W secure the coffee mellowed in our tropics? And only the fine coffees grown in the high mountains? And those rare flavors heightened by a direct dash of the new coffee? You are fortunate, Senora. What a delight your S & W coffee must be!"

In S & W coffee, as in other S & W products, such as S & W Telephone Pans, Baby Kernel Corn, Pineapple, Beans, etc.—S & W strict standards of quality and value are maintained. Only coffees of the rarest quality are secured for S & W—skillfully blended, roasted, and cleaned of coffee dust, etc. Vacuum packed, in the new key-cans

"You'll try it next time? That's splendid. You'll not be disappointed. You'll recognize the famous S & W quality."

LIGHT HEAVIES SET FOR FIGHT

Tunney and Gibbons May Be Matched in Big Battle Soon

CHICAGO, March 26.—A fifteen round bout to a decision between Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul and Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion, to be held in the Polo grounds in New York, June 12, was the objective of a meeting here today between Jimmy DeForest, matchmaker of the Polo Athletic club of New York, and Eddy Kane, manager of Gibbons.

Gibbons has been offered thirty per cent of the receipts, Kane said, and Tunney has reached an understanding with DeForest, New York dispatches indicate, but no contracts have been signed. Kane will sign for the contest at once, he said, if DeForest's terms are satisfactory, without waiting for further moves in the proposed match between Gibbons and Harry Wills, negro heavyweight challenger, for the milk fund show in New York May 28.
