

SOCIETY

Of major interest on the social calendar for the week were the musical recitals given by the Little Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Harry Borel on Monday evening in the First Presbyterian church, and the presentation of the senior students of music from the Sacred Heart Academy, given on Tuesday evening in the White Pelican hotel. Those interested in music attended the affairs both evenings and pronounced a delightful improvement noticeable in the work of both groups since their last appearance. Many of the residents in the city are already making plans for taking their summer homes and several week-end parties and dinners have been enjoyed in country houses since the advent of spring weather. Holidays and Sundays provide hours for picnics that are increasingly popular since roads have become passable for motors. Informal afternoon parties will be seen more in the coming week than large affairs as the winter entertainment has been on the decline since the first of the month.

SENIOR RECITAL IS INTERESTING EVENT

The recital given by the Senior pupils of Sacred Heart Academy at the White Pelican hotel, last Tuesday evening was decidedly an event of the week. The young ladies in their daintily colored gowns, in the setting of ferns, presented a scene not soon to be forgotten.

The first group on the program was presented by Miss Florence Elliott. Her first number was by Rachmaninoff, one of the composers of the modern school of music. His music is remarkable for rhythmic variety, richness of color and harmonic effects as was very well shown by the young lady. She explained that the word Polka was Bohemian and as the name suggests, a dance. You could imagine as you heard the music that you saw the dancers in their quaint dress swaying to the rhythm of the music. Her second number was Tramerel, which means day-dreaming. You could note that the passages indicated the wavering fancies of a dreamer with their soft individuality. The air is pink with apple blossoms, misty sunshine floods the scene, as you float away with sweet sights and sounds. In the third number, which was by Franz Schubert, you could hear the distant sound of bells interspersed with sad strains, the evening bell as the darkness is waded downward, with Faith triumphant in the end.

Miss Alicia Davenport presented the second group. Her first number was The Sonata Pathétique by Beethoven. The Sonata was programmatic, showing contrasts in movement, contrasts of melody, contrasts of harmony, and especially of rhythm. Her second number was Crepuscule, by Stecherbacheff one of the modern Russian school of composers, and the mood suggested was not that of the tranquil English but that of the turbulent Slav. Danaa Tripolina was suggestive of a dance of black-eyed nymphs in a beautiful garden of far-away Tripoli.

The next group consisted of two violin numbers by Mrs. E. L. Alaux. They were exceedingly well played and greatly appreciated by the audience.

Miss Clarice Elliott presented Petit Bolero, a Spanish dance. You could imagine a gypsy dancing, her black eyes gleaming as she winds her arms about in graceful gestures and sways her lithe body to and fro; Submission by Sigmund Haros was a study in emotion; and Scotch Poem by Edward McDowell. You could imagine as you heard this number, a woman sitting at a high window overlooking the stormy sea. Her black hair streaming down her pale face and in the depths of her dark eyes is a look of anguish. The tones of her harp mingle with the dashing of the waves, as they beat high against the rocks. A storm is on the ocean and a sorrow in the woman's heart.

The fifth group consisted of two songs, Goin' Home, from the Largo of the Symphony from The New World by Anton Dvorak, and Down in the Woodland by Elgar-Bliss. There was a pleasing contrast in the two songs, the voices blended harmoniously in rich, free tones. Miss Lydia von Berthelsdorf rendered Japanese Etude by Eduard Poldini. His selection was an imitation of xylophones; Magic Fire from the opera Walkure by Wagner. The god wotan has condemned his daughter for transgressing his command. He places her upon a rocky couch and kissing her brow he takes his farewell of her. He then conjures Loge, the god of fire; and as he strikes his spear upon the rock, flames spring up all about her to protect her from harm. In the music, you hear the upward leaping of the flames as they surge around her, the soft lullaby that soothes her to sleep, and the fierce tones of the angry gods as they call to each other from summit to summit as they come riding through the clouds; and Arabesque, No. 1, by Claude Debussy, who is considered to be the founder of the modern French school of composition.

Tailored Suit Distinctive

Mrs. Lester Offield, soloist, sang an Italian song Il Bacio, and The Meadow Lark. Her well trained voice and pleasing personality were very much appreciated.

Miss Leatha La Verne Gray played Arabesque by Leschitzky, Lento, No. 1, by Cyril Scott and Indian Rhapsody by Presto-Ware Orem. In the Indian Rhapsody the composer had utilized ten American Indian Themes. The instruments used by the Indians the drum, the flute, the pan-pipe and the musical bow were all represented in the music. Some of the melodies were complete, others only fragmentary. At the close of the selections, Miss Gray recited a short selection from Hiawatha, that furnished an explanation of the origin of the themes.

A fitting finale to this very excellent program was the Grand Duo, Grosses Septett, Op. 20, by Beethoven, played by Florence Elliott and Lydia von Berthelsdorf.

ENTERTAINS
PAST MATRONS
Mrs. Frank Ankeny entertained the Aloha Past Matron's club at her home this week with a social hour. Those present were Mesdames H. F. Murdoch, L. S. Willis, H. E. Momyer, Jennie Hurn, Isabella Spiker, Wilbur Jones, W. P. McMillan, C. L. Harvey, R. S. Adams, Miss Maude Baldwin and the hostess, Mrs. Ankeny.

SIXTH GRADE ENTERTAINS
Students of the Sixth grade entertained the Fifth, Seventh and Eighth grade students after school this week. The hosts were Walter West, Louis John, Hamilton Griffin, Robert Buermann, Irving Ebell, Paul Williamson, Louise Griffin, Evelyn Siroky and Harryette Beall. The afternoon was spent in a game including an old fashioned spelling match. A program followed after which refreshments were served.

ENTERTAIN WITH BRIDGE

For the pleasure of a group of friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Raymond entertained in their apartment in the Sunset with three tables of bridge Thursday evening. High scores were given to Mrs. E. R. Bennett and T. S. Richardson. Consolation prizes were awarded Mrs. Russell Kidder and G. I. Stebbins. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Stebbins, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klahn, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kidder and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kidder.

BENEFIT DANCE GIVEN WEDNESDAY

For the benefit of the Student Memorial Building Fund, alumni and students of Oregon Agricultural college entertained with a dancing party on Wednesday evening in the dining room of the White Pelican hotel. "Eck" Rorick's collegian players furnished the music. Herbert Landis was in charge of the dance as appointed by the Greater O. A. C. committee at Corvallis.

MARCH HARE DINNER GIVEN ON TUESDAY

Miss Mary Johnson entertained on Wednesday evening with one of the prettiest affairs of the season, when covers for fourteen were guests were laid around an attractively arranged table in the Dutch room of the White Pelican hotel. The centerpiece used was of spring flowers in pastel shades with snapdragons, tulips and daffodils. The affair was in the nature of March Hare dinner, with the guests representing a character from Alice in Wonderland. The guest prize was awarded to Miss Greta Madison and was a book of the story. Following dinner, a theatre party was enjoyed. Guests of the evening were Mrs. Esther Stoner, and the Misses Ferno Hanks, Josephine Lindley, Miriam Wortley, Jean Perry, Dorothy Curran, Thelma Short, Greta Madison, Dorothea Wortley, Frances Humphrey, Lois Bynon, Ruth Dixon, Pearl Renie and the hostess, Miss Mary Johnson.

SHRINE HI-JINKS DRAWS MANY

Society turned out in a large number to attend the Hi-Jinks given by the Crater Lake Shrine club last night in the Scandinavian hall, and the appreciation of the audience was felt in the attitude by which it took the numbers. The Hi-Jinks was put on under the direction of Johnny Houston, Harold Bell and Frank Confer with Barney Kropp arranging the musical numbers. Dancing to Houston's syncopators was enjoyed after the show. The Hi-Jinks played to a full house and was a decided financial as well as social success.

MRS. FLEET ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Fred Fleet entertained on Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week, with an interesting series of bridge parties at her home on Alameda.

ENTERTAIN WITH PARTY

For a group of friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe entertained on Thursday evening with an interesting dancing party at their home on Washington street. Following the dance at which more than 25 were present the hostess served dainty refreshments from a buffet table.

SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA PLAYS TO PATRONS

Patrons of the Little Symphony Orchestra attended a concert of that organization given Monday evening in the Presbyterian church, under the capable direction of Harry Borel. Such an improvement was made over the last presentation of the group, that it was decidedly noticeable and praises were general in the comment of the musical evening. Patrons and patronesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein, Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Moe, Mr. and Mrs. Merle West, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Louis K. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter West, Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Krause, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Ramsey and Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb.

OREGON PRODUCTS DINNER GIVEN

Members of the Women's Service League of St. Paul's Episcopal church entertained for parish members and friends on Friday evening with an Oregon Products dinner in Guild hall. Music from Harry Borel's Little Symphony Orchestra and several vocal numbers from the chamber of commerce male chorus were enjoyed during the evening. Several parties attending the dinner before witnessing the Crater Lake Shrine club Hi-Jinks. The menu of the dinner, printed on box book from the Klamath Lumber and Box company included the following items:

- Baked Ham—Southern style (Miller's Market)
- Candied Sweet Potatoes (Mason, Ehrman & Co)
- Riced Irish Potatoes (People's Warehouse)
- Cottage Cheese Salad (Klamath Falls Creamery)
- Mayonnaise (Donated by Nick Nalley Food Produce Co.)
- Hot Rolls (Crater Lake Flour, Sixth Street Bakery)
- Gilt Edge Butter (City Creamery)
- Holiday Cream Coffee
- Apple Pie of Ashland Apples (Made by Klamath Bakery)
- Milk Cheese
- Candies from the Chocolate Shop

OPERETTA TO BE GIVEN HERE

Miss Eloise McPherson has directed the Klamath county high school operetta, "In the Garden of the Shah" which will be presented in the afternoon and evening in the Pine Tree theatre, April 3, with high school students only in the cast.

The story of the operetta runs as follows: Ted Harding and Billy Cummings, are two mining engineers from the United States who go to Persia to work in the Shah's mines. They take with them their negro servant, Sam. Naturally, Ted falls in love with the beautiful daughter of the Shah, Princess Zahdah and Bill fall in love with her friend, Lahliah. Zahdah's old nurse, Nowobeh is a superstitious old seeress who thinks Sam is her lost African sweetheart and she pursues him tenaciously. At last he succumbs. The Shah wants Zebiah to marry the Arab Shah and threatens to imprison the three Americans. However the Shah turns out to be an impostor and is slain, hence the real ending of the operetta is a happy one.

The principals are Peruvah, Shah, Lawrence Carroll; Someeraba the Shiek, Herbert Wilson; Zahdah the Shah's daughter Josephine Meisner; Lahliah, her friend, Geraldine Mars; Nowobeh, Zahdah's nurse, LaVerne Thomas; Ted Harding from the U. S. A., Harry Peltz; Bill Cummings, from the U. S. A., Carl Yancey; Samuel Johnson Jackson, negro servant, Harry Molatore.

TO ENTERTAIN PRESBYTERY

Members of the Klamath Falls Presbyterian church, headed by Rev. Arthur Rice, will entertain the Southern Oregon Presbytery in Klamath Falls on April 14 and 15. All churches of Southern Oregon as far north as Oakland, Oregon, including Roseburg, Grants Pass, Medford, Ashland and smaller communities will be represented by delegates or by proxy. The convention is looked forward to by the church members as one of the most interesting meetings of the church year.

NURSES CLUB TO MEET SOON

The graduate nurses' club will meet on Monday evening, March 30, at the home of Mrs. I. A. Tower, 319 North Ninth street and all graduate nurses are urged to attend this meeting and to become members of the club. The evening will be spent in discussion of topics pertaining to the nursing profession followed by a social hour.

ENTERTAINS WITH PARTY

In honor of the fifth birthday of Lester Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McCollum entertained at the McCollum ranch on Thursday evening with a birthday dinner, served at 6:30. The dinner was followed by a social evening. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McCollum, Mr. and Mrs. David McCollum, Mrs. Georgia Wilson, W. L. Eads, Echo McCollum, Champ McCollum, Jr., Lester Wilson, Eileen Wilson and Doris Mae Wilson.

EXPECTED HOME FROM SOUTH

Mrs. G. T. Porter and Miss Florence Porter are expected in the city over the week-end from Los Angeles where they have been visiting for several months. Miss Porter has been attending the University of Arizona, at Tucson, she is not planning on returning for the spring quarter however.

SPEND WEEK-END IN MEDFORD

Miss Anna Mae Johnston, Miss Vera Houston and Miss Eloise McPherson spent the week-end with Miss Gortude Parker of Medford, driving over with Arthur Wilson. They are expected to return Sunday evening.

RETURNS TO CORVALLIS

Miss Margaret Johnston returned to Corvallis where she will resume her studies at the Oregon Agricultural college. Miss Johnston was out of school for a month due to illness. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha.

MISS JOHNSTON HONORED AT PARTY

For Miss Anna Mae Johnston, whose birthday occurred on Tuesday, Miss Vera Houston entertained at her home on Tuesday evening with a surprise party, spending the evening at cards. Miss Johnston was awarded the high score. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, Miss Anna Mae Johnston, Miss Jennie Johnston, Miss Mary Ball, Miss Eloise McPherson, Miss Vera Houston, George McIntyre, Ned Metcalfe, Lloyd Porter, Lawrence Stewart and Frank Mills.

PAST PATRONS TO ENTERTAIN

Members of the Past Patrons' clubs will entertain on Tuesday evening in the Masonic hall, for the pleasure of Masons, Daughters of Job, De Molay and Eastern Star. The affair will be in the nature of a social evening.

SURPRISED BY FRIENDS

For the pleasure of Miss Martha Upp, who celebrated her birthday anniversary on Friday, Miss Joe Upp entertained with a theatre and supper party for a number of friends. Following the Shrine Hi-Jinks, the group attended a dinner at Tin Hing Guey's. The following were present Maude Hood, Jackie Emmons, Martha Upp, Joe Upp, Kathryn Doty, Constance Crystal, Mae Crystal and Lorena Sanders.

MISS PERRY ENTERTAINS

Miss Jean Perry entertained at her home on Ninth street on Tuesday with an informal evening. Easter favors were used at an attractively arranged supper table, which had for its centerpiece an arrangement of daffodils and sweet peas. Covers were laid for Miss Mae Mordoff, Miss Aileen Mordoff, Miss Frances Humphrey, Miss Josephine Lindley, Miss Virginia Hoelt, Miss Pearl Renie, Miss Dorothy Curran, Miss Lois Bynon and Miss Perry, the hostess.

Churches

Methodist Church
Morning, "Christianity is Revolutionary."
No evening service; union services at Presbyterian church.
Rev. T. D. Yarnes, Pastor.

A new spring choker from last year's fur

Equipped with new Spring Patterns, I will remodel, re-line, clean or mend your furs at 30 to 50 per cent less than any fur house in Klamath Falls. All work guaranteed.

Mrs. Wm. Bessler Furrier

625 Washington Bet. Sixth and Seventh

W. O. W.

DANCE MARCH 31
Add Fellows Hall
Other orders invited
Admission $1.00

Zion Lutheran Church
Chamber of Commerce rooms, Fifth and Main.
9:30 a. m. Sunday school.
10:30 a. m. Morning worship. Sermon: "The Penitent Thief."
Special meeting of the voters immediately after the services.
G. W. Hoffmann, Pastor.

Seventh Day Adventist Public Library Building.
10 a. m. Sabbath school (Saturday April 4.)
11 a. m. preaching: "The Lord's Prayer."
7:30 p. m. Tuesday: Devotional meeting.
Welcome.

Alva G. Walker, Pastor.

First Presbyterian Church
Sixth and Pine streets.
10 a. m. Church school.
11 a. m. Morning worship. Sermon: "The Open Mind."
6:30 p. m. C. E.
7:30 p. m. Union service addressed by Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, of the W. C. T. U. Farm Home at Corvallis.
Arthur L. Rice, Minister.

Christian Church
Sunday school at 10. Morning worship at 11. Sermon "There They Crucified him."
No evening services on account of union services at Presbyterian church.
W. E. Bobbitt, Minister.

BOBBED HAIR or LONG HAIR makes no difference, all women's hair looks better if it's waved or curled.

Electrex Curling Iron
is necessary to every woman's dressing table. Easily attached to any lamp socket, it heats in a few minutes and will give you just the curl or wave you need to add so much to your appearance. After using the curling iron, use a Goodform Hair net to keep the waves in shape.

Electrex Curling Irons
$2.50
STAR DRUG STORE
The Rexall Drug Store
KLAMATH FALLS, ORE.

Give your Photograph with your Easter Lilies

Your friends can buy anything you can give them except your photograph.

You have two good photographers in your town

The Peasley's Stinson's

Used Cars

The following are a few of over 50 cars we have for you to choose from:

- 1 Ford speedster, 1921. Disc wheels, starter, good order
- 2 Ford touring cars, 1918, repainted, run good
- 1 Buick 4 roadster; a snap at $150
- 1 Overland 4 touring, 1924, like new, at a bargain
- 1 Overland 4 touring, 1920, at a popular price
- 1 Ford sedan, 1923, repainted, new tires, runs fine
- 1 Columbia Six sport, 1920 model; disc wheels, well equipped.
- 1 Studebaker special six, overhauled and repainted, at a bargain
- 1 Ford 1-ton truck, 1923, with good body, starter, runs fine

See them at our lot on Main between 2d and 3d

Klamath Falls Auto Co.

"The Small Garage With the Large Trade"

ROY CALL, Prop. Phone 246-R 224 Main