Milton Gaston looks so good in action that Manager George Sizer of the St. Louis Browns says he is sure to employ the former Yankee as a starting pitcher at the opening of the 1925 season. Gaston's display of a fork ball with which to vary his fast delivery prompted the decision Sizer announced.

HEAVYWEIGHTS SIGNED FOR ADDED BOUT AT TOMORROW'S FIGHT CARD

Those who like to see heavyweights swing at each other will be gratified tomorrow night with the announcement today by Promoter Patterson that he has added a special event between heavies for the opening card of the municipal boxing commission at Scandinavian hall tomorrow night.

Young Mayberry, a hefty slugger from Albany, was signed to go on with Jim Hinkelwright, aspirant young Klamath Falls behemoth, for a four-round argument. Both boys will weigh in at about 185 pounds. Joe Gorman, who boxes Able Gordan in the main event, arrived yesterday and worked out last night for a short time. He will work out again this evening. The little veteran Spaniard is in good shape and ready for the top of the gong. Gordon has been working out here for more than a week and is ready for his tilt with the Grants Pass boy.

The first bout will start promptly at 8 o'clock, with Bob Ross as the third man in the ring. There will be 24 rounds of boxing. The boxing commission is making an especial appeal for the patronage of women.

The Screen

At the Pine Tree

William Desmond is to be seen in a new role in "Straight Through," Blue Streak Western, in which he will be starred in the Pine Tree Theater, tomorrow. The role is that of a man whose attempts to aid others are misunderstood to such effect that he finds himself in great trouble.

The scene of the story is a mining camp town and the character portrayed by Desmond starts out in the story as an all-around bad man, who reforms as the result of an unusual experience. After his reformation he becomes known as Good Deed O'Day, because of his propensity for doing good deeds.

It is when he tries to protect a woman whom his best friend had married, in ignorance of her rather unconventional past, that O'Day's troubles begin. The story is a melodrama with a decided comedy angle, as well as the love interest that develops between O'Day and the sister of his friend.

A number of desperate fights and some spectacular horsemanship are played in this picture story which was directed by Arthur Rosson.

The star is supported by a cast of well known screen players, including Marguerite Clayton, Ruth Stonehouse, Claude Payton, Albert J. Smith, Bill Gills, Frank Brownlee and George Marion.

One of the comedy scenes is a poker game in which eight aces appear in one deal.

AT THE LIBERTY

Standing room only and little of that was the order of the day and night at The Liberty Theater Sunday—where Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien co-starred in "The Only Woman."

Here is a picture that seems to have everything needed to please the entire public—briefly a beautiful society belle marries a wastrel to save him from himself—and then on the wave washed decks, when her fate hangs in the balance, he battles to prove his love to the only woman who taught him to be a man.

Miss Talmadge was never more beautiful, never more appealing, never closer to your heart than in this part and the Liberty management is to be congratulated on bringing such sterling attractions to Klamath Falls.

Carrying out his policy of exhibiting only the best productions for Liberty theater-goers, Manager H. W. Poole has succeeded in getting John M. Stahl's latest masterpiece "Husbands and Lovers", for a two day run in the Liberty Theater, beginning Tuesday, March 31.

It is rated as not only one of the best pictures of the season but one of the finest entertainments to reach the screen this year.

Probably the foremost of the many great qualities to be found in "Husbands and Lovers" is its absolutely true portrayal of life. Based on the intricacies of domestic happiness, the story presents people and situations that are familiar to everyone.
