WOMAN SUES FOR SUPPORT MONEY

NEW YORK, March 31.—The suit of Mrs. Lillian N. Duke, against James B. Duke, tobacco magnate, who divorced her twenty years ago, for separation and maintenance is based on the grounds that in the divorce case she refused to recognize the jurisdiction of the New Jersey court and reserved all her rights, according to a statement by her attorney, Allen Caruthers.

Her complaint charges that Mr. Duke lived with her from November 1904, until July 1905 when he deserted her. During the ensuing 20 years, the complaint states, he has refused to provide for her.

According to Mr. Caruthers, when Mr. Duke sued his first wife for divorce in New Jersey, Mrs. Duke claimed that both she and her husband were residents of New York and the New Jersey court could not try the case. He said that when she filed her answer to her husband's complaint, she reserved all rights.

Asked why she had waited 20 years to take any action, Mr. Caruthers said that she had never been in need of money until she was swindled out of nearly $400,000 in 1923 by stock frauds. He said she now has to earn her living giving music lessons.

A hearing in the case will be held April 8, when Mrs. Duke must show cause why her suit shall not be dismissed on the complaint that the divorce is valid.

Georgia moonshiners used a church bell to warn of revenue officers; a real booze ring.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up. Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold and catarrh disappears. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly. It's just fins. Don't stay stuffed up with a cold or nasty catarrh.—Adv.
