

HEREFORD PRIZE TO BE OFFERED

Word was received by the Fair Board today from the American Hereford Breeder's Association, offering a prize of $10 for the best Hereford female and $10 for the best Hereford bull to be shown at the County Fair this fall.

Outstanding animals are already being chosen and more care and better feeding to attain the results desired for perfect show form, are engrossing the attention of the beef raisers this year.

MIDLAND

Friends and schoolmates of Catherine Burnett, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bennett, will be glad to know that she is getting along nicely after undergoing an operation for appendicitis at the Klamath Valley hospital Friday evening.

Clarence M. Smith arrived in Midland Saturday, having just returned from southern California where he spent the winter. He reports the roads in good shape for traveling until he reached Green Springs mountain, where he encountered 10 inches of snow. After having made a 2500 mile circuit of the three coast states, Mr. Smith believes that business opportunities in Klamath county are far ahead of what he found elsewhere.

A carload of posts which was delivered in Midland Friday is being hauled to the old Jory ranch, in the Spring Lake district, where they will be used for refencing. Richard Quimby has charge of the work.

The Midland sewing club held their regular meeting at the school house Saturday afternoon. Several members were absent on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sevelk and children, Paul and Mary, were shopping visitors in Klamath Falls Saturday.

Oscar Potter was in Midland Sunday buying weekly supplies.

Wins Berth

Meet Mr. Rube Bressler, erstwhile utility player of the Cincinnati Reds, who has been assigned the first base job left vacant by the death of Jake Daubert. Bressler began his career as a pitcher, but owing to his hitting ability he was converted into an outfielder and first baseman.

Color of Life

YOU use silverware and linen, hang up curtains and pictures, wear fabrics carefully cut and adorned—all for the purpose of coloring the drab facts of food, shelter and clothes.

Advertisements enable you to put this color into your life. They bring you news of improvements to quicken your pleasure, increase your efficiency, lessen your work—to feed your hours with every comfort and convenience men have thought out for you.

Read the advertisements. Their timely messages, their intimate lessons in economy, their assurance that advertised goods will please—help you color your life even more.

When you choose from advertised goods, you choose from the safest goods known. They are value-true. Read the advertisements in these columns. By their guidance you can obtain the best today; economize for the best tomorrow.

Stokes Talks Horse Sense

The Right to be Well Born

OR Horse Breeding in its Relation to Eugenics

By W. E. D. STOKES

W. E. D. Stokes, multimillionaire, who is now on trial in Chicago charged with defamation of his wife's character, is an author. Here is shown the cover of the book and how Stokes looked in 1903 on the flyleaf of his book "The Right to Be Well Born, Eugenics."
