What else could disorganize business at twelve?

What else could so completely tie up traffic at noon—as the banking for a brilliant, steaming cup of good coffee?

Coffee—Golden West Coffee—if you but knew it—is pouring out its refreshing velvety-smooth goodness from the popular little restaurant, famed for its "Java", to the fine big hotel, where served in form de luxe.

It's a hint to that good coffee maker at home—because it's this High-Grown coffee—so easily tempered to your very taste—and economically yielding more delicious cups to the pound.

Goodness locked in—opens with a key. The handy key-opening top is quickly, easily, safely removed. No can opener—no digging in; no raw edges to cut you. There's a convenient container when the coffee is gone.

A careless smoker is a forest fire provoker.

Forests won't grow where fire-brands glow.

Stop the hand that starts a forest fire.

Forests are for use not abuse.

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the forests.

Protect growing forests for growing children.

Civilization needs wood; wood is a forest crop. Keep it growing.

AT THE PINE TREE

George Fawcett, one of the most notable character actors of the screen, plays the part of a skillful, but unscrupulous lawyer in "The Price of Pleasure," Universal-Jewel, co-starring Virginia Vall and Norman Kerry now showing at the Pine Tree Theater.

Miss Vall plays the part of the shop-girl bride of a young millionaire, played by Kerry. The picture has a number of comedy angles. Louise Fazenda, Kate Lester, T. Roy Barnes, James O. Barrrows and Marie Astoria are in the cast, which was directed by Edward Sloman.

Five sacks of peanuts and twenty-five sacks of popcorn arrived at the lot for Minnie, the big actress elephant who was flapping her ears in anticipation.

But she's doomed to disappointment—for they're to be "props" and elephants aren't allowed to eat "props." They're to furnish local color for the big circus story, "The Great Circus Mystery," a ten episode Adventure Picture which comes next Saturday to the Pine Tree.

A complete circus was set up for the new picture, thriller of life in the sawdust ring, Bonomo, the famous strong man, plays the principal role, as the giant performer who "doubles in brass," filling every role from strong man to lion-tamer.

Louise Lorraine is the heroine and Bob Seiter, brother of William A. Seiter, the noted director plays the juvenile masculine lead.

AT THE LIBERTY

The Liberty Theater is to be congratulated upon securing such an attraction this week as "Lash of the Whip," the first of a series of four new "stunt" productions.

The star part of "Pinto Pete" is that of a Robin Hood of the Old West, the kind of running, jumping, leaping athletic role that made "Doug" Fairbank's fame. His only weapons are his resourcefulness and a short-handled, long-lashed "bull-whip," the lash of which, wielded with marvelous accuracy, is reputed to be deadly. He takes from the rich and gives to the poor, rights the wrongs of the oppressed, and punishes the oppressors, Tonight only at the Liberty.

On one side the power and armies of a king. On the other only a stout heart, a lusty blade—and back of it a man's courage fighting for the love of his life—and the maiden, to whom that life was dedicated. Nevada's Bartholomew had a role more dashingly, more audacious, more gloriously heart appealing than this of an intrepid youth who draws sword for the honor of a woman and dares the might and fury of a tyrant. Never has been presented in drama as vigorous and compelling, or in a production as gigantic and picturesque as "The Fighting Blade" at the Liberty, Saturday only.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, sometimes get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness, and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region begin drinking lots of water. Also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is intended to flush clogged kidneys and help eliminate them to activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so they no longer irritate, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying to correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv
