Careless Driving

Statistics of highway accidents involving motor vehicles, which seem to point clearly to congestion of traffic as the principal cause, have recently been compiled from newspaper reports of accidents in the states of Montana, Oregon and Washington by the bureau of public roads of the United States Department of Agriculture. The bureau's study shows that Montana with the lowest registration has the smallest number of accidents per 1000 cars, while Washington, with the largest registration, has the most accidents per 1000 cars. This does not agree with national estimates which indicate that the rate of accidents decreases with increased numbers.

During a period of eight months newspaper reports of 1606 accidents in the three states mentioned were secured, and from the accounts given the causes of accidents classified as follows:

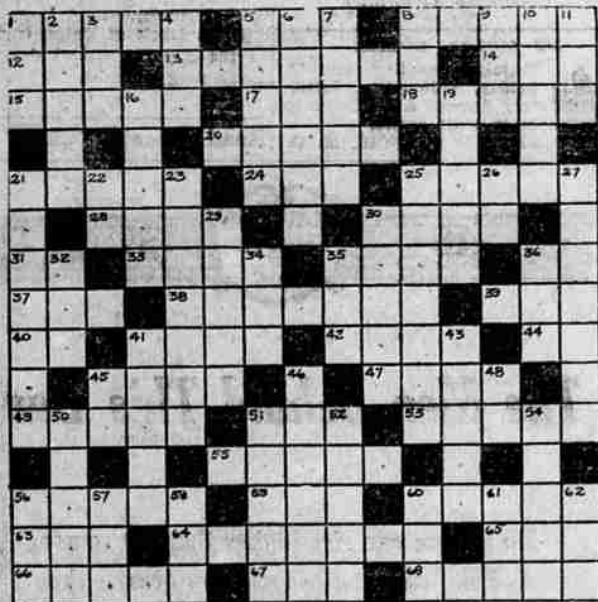

Faulty operation by driver	1020
Faults of others than drivers	191
Faulty equipment	181
Faulty highway conditions	214

The detailed statement of the causes of accident shows that 711, or more than 40 per cent of the total, were caused by reckless or careless driving.

Of the 214 accidents caused by faulty highway conditions, 19 were caused by narrow roadways and 150 by skiddy surfaces.

KLAMATH HI NINE LOSES TWO GAMES

The Klamath Hi boys and girls baseball teams lost both games to Henley Hi on Monday afternoon. The girls lost by a score of 11-7 while the boys lost 5-4.

The boys game was fast and good playing was shown on both sides. The game was scheduled for seven innings but Henley tied Klamath's four run lead in the third inning and the score was held down by both pitchers. It was necessary to play eight innings to decide the contest. An error in Klamath's infield in the eighth allowed a man on base and another error allowed the man to cross the plate for the winning run. Molatore pitched the first three innings for Klamath allowing seven hits. Smith pitched the last five allowing none. Jackson pitched good ball for Henley and sent many of Klamath's good batsmen to the bench.

Following is the lineup for Klamath: Beckley, c; Molatore, Smith, p; Yancey, 1st; Yarnes, 2nd; Christy, 3rd; Boyd, s; Korwin, l. c.; Stewart, Miltare, c. l.; Newsom, r. f.

GAME AT MALIN FRIDAY

The Klamath Hi-Nine plays Malin on Malin territory, Friday afternoon. A fairly good game is expected but the Klamath boys expect to take the game. Several changes have been made in Klamath's lineup and this game will be a good one to determine who will start the Medford game on Saturday.

FIRST CONFERENCE GAME

A lively game can be looked for as Medford is said to have a strong team. Klamath expects to have as strong a lineup in this game as any time during the season.

The field has been in very poor condition throughout the week but work on the field commenced Thursday to get it into shape for the contest.

As far as we know no admission will be charged for the game so come and help the home team win the game and get a real start in the Southern Oregon Conference.

LOCAL SCIENTIST TALKS

Mr. Cone, government electrical research worker and forester talked to Miss Withycombe's physics class Wednesday afternoon. His talk was of especial interest because the students have just completed a study of electricity.

Mr. Cone has been experimenting the last four years on the extracting of practical energy from the electricity of clouds at his station on Mt. Pitt. He has extensive apparatus for gathering electricity during storms, with which he has done hundreds of experiments. He has also accomplished successful work in preventing forest fires. He laid special stress on the fact that electricity is our energy and fuel of the future and one's education in this line never stops. "If one expects to be a figure in the electrical world, he must forever seek the eternal 'why' because the electrical age has not yet begun," says Mr. Cone.

HIS ANNUAL SLICKING UP

SERIOUS LUNG WITH COUGHING TROUBLE STARTS

Physicians were against neglecting coughs and colds and tell of the serious lung complications that may result. Leading physicians now prescribe BALSAMEA for all bronchial affections. BALSAMEA is a pure vegetable preparation made from a newly discovered plant, Dr. Wm. F. Crabtree, Anderson, Mo., writes: "I use it exclusively for my practice and my family. It is quick, sure and safe in its action like nothing else."

Toward the end of the influenza epidemic a government physician noticed that a tribe of Indians in Nevada, by the use of oils from a certain plant were immune from the ravages of influenza. He used these oils among his white patients and then in a hospital overflowing with "deadly" cases. None of the results swept the world and for some time it was not possible to supply the demand.

BALSAMEA has now been standardized and gives uniformly miraculous results in four ways: 1. It soothes the inflamed membranes and relieves irritation. 2. It increases secretion of mucous and permits easy expectoration. 3. It stimulates a cure of the skin in throwing off body poisons and 4. It strikes at the cause, checking germ action immediately.

Do not confuse it with ordinary balsam cough syrups that are only soothing agents and do not go to the base of the trouble. Unlike other cough remedies BALSAMEA is free from coal tar and other harmful narcotics. Pleasant to take and absolutely safe to give to children.

Be sure you get BAL-SA-ME-A with the picture of the Indian on the package. Guaranteed to relieve any cough, no matter from what cause, or your money back. All drug-gists sell BALSAMEA.

In Klamath Falls buy it from Star Drug Co.
