

Dentistry Doesn't Hurt---

Despite the allegations of the comic weeklies, a sojourn in a dentist's chair should cause you no more pain than an equal length of time in a barber's chair. In fact some barbers—but we won't say it. The point is, our service is painless.

A tire made for the West in the West

IN A FEW MATTERS we Westerners gladly hand the palm to our Eastern friends. Building subways and skyscrapers—yes! Football—possibly. Climate—improbably. Pleasure auto driving—no!

We drive more months of the year... have greater scenic attractions. The "great open spaces" draw us farther from home. We know roads—and autos—and tires!

Which, in a way, accounts for the success of C.T.C. tires. They are built in the West to meet Western conditions.

Eastern engineers came West to build them—but they make them for the West as well as in the West!

Today they are ranked as one of the three or four really fine tires in America. They are the longest-selling tires made in a Western-owned factory.

Motorists in the nine western states know what a tire should do. These purchases show that C.T.C. does it!

Come in and let us show you this remarkable tire. "Quality will never be sacrificed to meet a price!"

AT THE LIBERTY

There is an old saying "that you can't please everybody" and also that "there are exceptions to all rules." "Frisolous Sal" is that exception for out of the hundreds of people who saw its first showing there was not one voice raised in criticism. Everyone was loud in their praise and even people who spend their days and nights in the theater were moved to laughter and tears. Personally I do not believe it possible to make a finer picture than "Frisolous Sal" which closes at the Liberty Theater tonight.

One of the tense scenes in "The Warrens of Virginia," the production made under the direction of Elmer Clifton is where Wilfred Lytell, who plays the part of Lieutenant Burton, is about to be hung as a spy. Lytell is seated on a horse, his hands tied behind him. The noose is around his neck and the rope thrown over the branch of a tree, pulled taut and then tied. The idea is to whip the horse, which runs away, and Mr. Lytell is no more.

The horse Mr. Lytell is riding is supposed to be his own and so well trained that he would not move whether beaten or not, without his master's command. Much time and care had been used by Mr. Clifton to find the proper horse for the scene. Colonel H. O. Van Horn of Camp Travis, San Antonio, finally selected a horse that he swore would not bolt.

The scene came off. The rope was supposed to be so tied that the chance the horse did move, Mr. Lytell would not be literally hung.

The tense moment arrived. A Broadway cowboy unused to the ways of horses started the beating. Everything was fine until he hit the horse over the kidneys. Now anyone who knows anything about horses knows that a horse afflicted with kidney trouble just has to rear and tear. At the Liberty Tuesday and Wednesday.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw thl through your hair, taking one small stradd at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair, after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustrous and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Adv.

Fake Suicide

Roxine Serpa was mourned as dead when it was reported she had jumped to death in San Francisco Bay. Now it is learned that Roxine is alive in Canada and that her "death" was faked by Joseph Weber, who is Roxine's second husband. The fake suicide was tried to cover up the fact that Roxine had married Joseph without divorcing Serpa. Claims for insurance made by Serpa led to an expose of the fake suicide.
