Walking on the Muscles of your Feet as Nature Intended

There are only two natural ways to remove the cause of Rheumatism, Neuritis, Flat Feet, Bunions, Corns and Caluses, Pains and aches in your feet, ankles, legs and back. One way is to walk bare-footed in sand; the other is wearing a pair of Burns' Patent Cuboids in your shoes. We build muscle tissue by forcing the blood through the arteries by walking on these muscles.

Children don't inherit bunions and flat feet. They do inherit weak muscles on their feet which develop into bunions and flat feet.

First symptoms: Feet get tired quick, then followed by pains in feet, ankles, legs and back, which was unknown when people walked on the muscles of their feet.

Come in tomorrow. We want you to know about this whether you invest or not.

FAMOUS CHURCH OBSERVES DATE

LONDON, April 15.—London's fashionable church, St. George's, Hanover Square, celebrated its bicentenary recently with a special series of services. Often called "St. George's Church" in the latter part of the last century, St. George's is still popular for fashionable weddings, and second only to St. Margaret's, Westminster.

Sixty years ago as many as 1,000 weddings occurred each year at St. George's, but during the last 50 years the average has been about 300. Included among the latter was that of Theodore Roosevelt, who described himself in the register as a "ranchman" when he walked over from Brown's hotel in a bowler hat to be married to Edith Kermit Carew.

The registers are rich in signatures of other prominent men, as well as royalties. The signatures of King Edward and Queen Alexander, alongside those of the present king and queen, are recorded against the wedding of a member of the Gosford family. The signatures of four prime ministers of England also are there, inscribed at the wedding of Henry Asquith, now Lord Oxford, to his present wife. They are Lord Roseberry, William Ewart Gladstone, Henry Asquith and Arthur Balfour, now Lord Balfour.

Officials of the church assert that if all the couples who have been married at the famous old edifice during the past 40 years had been present at the bicentenary services, the congregation would have numbered about 12,000.

MERRILL MINISTER CHOSEN MODERATOR

Rev. C. C. Hulet, Presbyterian minister of Merrill, was elected moderator at the opening session of the spring meeting of the southern Oregon Presbytery held in the First Presbyterian church last night. The Rev. Hulet succeeds the Rev. A. L. Rice, who has held that position for one year.

Members of the Presbyterian congregation and many ministers in attendance listened to an able sermon last night from the Rev. K. W. Nelson of Phoenix, Ariz. A second meeting will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church to which the public is cordially invited.

The difficult thing about making a garden is restraining yourself from quitting and going fishing with the worms you find.

AT THE LIBERTY

Shirley Mason is appearing as heroine in one of the famous Thomas Burke Limehouse stories, "Curlytop," and in it she is compelled to wear a blond wig with curls after the fashion once made popular by Mary Pickford.

The change in hair so completely transforms Miss Mason that few of her friends have been able to recognize her until she speaks. It is an entirely new Shirley that admirers will see when "Curlytop" is flashed on the screen.

"Curlytop" will be the attraction at the Liberty Thursday.

Seven thousand soldiers, four hundred supply wagons, sixteen hundred mules and five thousand cavalrymen and horses, all from the regular U. S. Army are used for the war scenes which appear in "The Warriors of Virginia" now showing at the Liberty. Tonight is your last chance to see this picture of the Old South.

AT THE PINE TREE

New faces. It's the perpetual cry of motion picture producers and James Cruze, who made "The Covered Wagon" and many other Paramount successes, is blazing the trail.

Beginning with his latest production, "The Goose Hangs High," actively launched a campaign to cinema version of the well known stage play by Lewis Beach, he has filled his forthcoming pictures with faces new to the screen world.

Constance Bennett and Esther Ralston, two of the famous "Paramount debutantes" just starting on the road to fame; George Irving, sterling actor who has deserted the stage for pictures; and Edward G. Robinson, a typical American boy—these are four of the five players who share featured honors in the new Cruze film. The fifth is Myrtle Stedman, who has earned for herself the title, "the sweetest mother on the screen." "The Goose Hangs High" shows for the last time tonight at the Pine Tree.

OPENING OF TROUT SEASON FINDS BAD WEATHER FOR SPORT

With leaden and sodden skies hanging low over the Klamath country, scores of anglers arose in the early morning hours and betook themselves to various streams of Klamath county to enjoy the opening day of trout season.

Heavy rains of yesterday afternoon and last night prevented any long expeditions into the more isolated fishing streams. The roads were soggy and impassable in many cases.

The three old opening day favorites, Williamson river, Link river and Klamath river, were the favorites. Snow and rain water, which is pouring into the streams at this time has made fly fishing almost an impossibility. Bait, in the form of rain swollen angle worms and orange colored salmon eggs, was the favorite lure used.

TINY HERMAN WINS BOUT WITH LESTER

PORTLAND, Ore., April 15.—Tiny Herman, ex-Astoria policeman, won a ten-round decision here last night from Pat Lester of Oakland, Cal. Herman's greater experience proved too much for Lester, who, however, showed a great willingness to mix it. Herman lacked the punch to put his man away.
