LORELLA

The J. Sullivan Ditch camp near Miller creek is making marked progress with their construction work getting the ditches ready for the water which will likely be turned on the early part of the summer.

J. B. Casey had the misfortune to lose five head of cattle from poisoning.

Bobbiette Tuttle and Mrs. G. P. Keller visited at Malin on Thursday.

Rev. Bowman, wife and baby visited in Langell Valley on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Bowman is agent for the Singer sewing machine in connection with his preaching at Lorella and Bonanza.

W. O. McKinnon is in charge of the work at Horsefly Dam preparatory to getting things in shape for the completion of the dam. The W. D. Miles trucks are hauling sand and cement work will soon begin.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Duvall of Barnes Valley visited in K. F. Thursday. Miss Mildred Duvall is attending St. Mary's Academy. Mr. Duvall has a large band of sheep and reports the grass and early pasture are very good.

Mrs. Sam Tyrell and children left Sunday for Los Angeles to make their future home. Mr. Tyrell has been in Los Angeles for the past three months. Mrs. Tyrell and children have been making their home with the John Turner family of Langell Valley.

Ben Brown and family are all confined to their beds with flu at the Wilkerson ranch.

Miss Agnes Pankey who is attending high school at K. F. spent Sunday visiting with her father W. H. Pankey.

The following Langell Valley people were in Klamath Falls attending the trial of Casey vs Irwin which was held on Friday: R. F. Tuttle, Bobbiette Tuttle, G. P. Keller, A. Keller, Mrs. G. P. Keller, Charles and Jerry McCarty, Ben Crapsur. The trial was the culmination of trouble which started last August when Casey broke a head-gate and took the water that he was not entitled to, at which time Irwin had Casey arrested. Casey in turn sued Irwin for $10,000.00 for false arrest. The court gave Casey damages amounting to $1.00 and all costs to pay.

A number of friends of Mrs. Chris Cowley surprised her with a party at the Cowley home on Saturday evening. The following friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. R. Bischoff, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bunn, John Miller, Ed Miller, Mrs. Fordner, Mrs. Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Cowley. The evening was pleasantly passed with cards, refreshments being served at a late hour.

Messrs H. J. Ticknor, John Turner, W. H. Pankey, A. E. Gale directors of the Langell Valley Irrigation District attended the meeting held in Klamath Falls in honor of Sec. Hubert Work and Edwood Mead pertaining to problems of irrigation. These men gave a summary of the talk at the community club last Saturday night.

The Langell Valley Community club met at Lorella on Saturday evening but owing to so much sickness in the valley a small attendance was present. The club has purchased twelve new benches for the Community house which were set up by Mr. Pankey on Saturday afternoon. Among the important things to be brought before the meeting was the appointing of a committee to make plans for a barbecue to be given in June near Horsefly Dam celebrating the completion of Horsefly Dam and the East Side Irrigation ditches of Langell Valley for which water will be available about July 1st. Owing to the success with which the Community club met with in giving the barbecue in Langell Valley a year ago, the citizens of Langell Valley are desirous of having another Gala Day Celebration the extensive progress made in Langell Valley within the past few years. Optimism is the creed of Langell Valley people.

KENO

Everett Puckett accompanied his sister, Augusta, and brother, Oliver to Central Point last Tuesday.

Frank Sexton called at the Keno school Tuesday in the interest of the local sewing club.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Mills of Klamath Falls spent Sunday with Mrs. Mill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Broyles called at the Nelson home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lysie Gordon of Worden, called at the L. W. Anderson home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Erdmann and Winfield and Foster Seaver were the Keno members of a party who made a visit to the Modoc lava beds Sunday. Other members of the party were from Round Lake and Orindale.

When the steering gear of his Ford truck failed to function properly, L. W. Anderson was forced to alight suddenly. The truck left the road and started up a rocky hill but collided with a stump and landed on its side in the road. The damage was slight, however, and a half hours work sufficed to get the car in running condition after which the driver climbed in and went happily on his way.

R. A. Broyles has been a frequent visitor to Klamath Falls of late.

The Keno school is planning on holding a club demonstration meeting and a track meet on April 24. The purpose of the track meet is to select the contestants for entry in the county track meet.

Local Heavyweight Says
Strambo Can't Stand Up Against Attack

"Never felt better in my life," was Earl Ritchie's way of summing up his condition for the main event tilt with Rocco Strambo on the evening of April 21.

"I am convinced that Strambo will not be able to stand up against the punch I carry in either hand," the big heavyweight said.

Ritchie has been training conscientiously for the bout with Strambo in the hope that he will be able to put his husky opponent away in the early part of their ten-round go. He is training with every boxer who is willing to stand up against his sledge hammer blows. Sid Herbert and Jack Himmelwright have been boxing several rounds a day with Ritchie.

Determined to put the big Klamath product to sleep, Rocco Strambo will arrive in Klamath Falls tonight and will immediately start training for the bout but four days off. According to reports, Strambo is in excellent condition.

Father and Son in Georgia Die in Electric Chair for Double Murder Last Year

RALEIGH, N. C., April 17.—Charles W. Stewart, 51, and Elmer Stewart, 23, his son, paid with their lives in the electric chair today for a double murder perpetrated in Brunswick county last year. The father was led to the chair first and was pronounced dead after three shocks. Two shocks were required to execute the son.

This $38,000,000 which Doheny got for his oil wells is more money than a bootlegger could make in a month.
