

SOCIETY

Resume of all spring activities was noticed this week, the first week following Lent. Easter Monday affairs were popular as were bridge parties during the afternoons of the past few days. Several large parties are scheduled for the coming week and before the month is out, society will be in full swing of spring and near-summer activities. Of interest this week, was the Little Symphony orchestra concert given in the Presbyterian church under the direction of Harry Borel. The concert was exceptionally well given, and the little group are endeavoring with great fortitude to put before the public, music of such a type that in one city, out of ten, the size of Klamath Falls has the fortune to hear. Through the kindness of Mr. Borel, the members of the orchestra and carious arrangements have been presented at various meetings of organizations throughout the city. Especially kind has the orchestra been to meetings of civic bodies and luncheon clubs.

EASTER PARTY ON MONDAY

Mrs. J. M. Bedford entertained for a number of friends at her cabin on Agency Lake in honor of her two daughters, Janet and Roberta Bedford on Monday afternoon. Following a luncheon, the children in the party joined in an Easter egg hunt on the lawn. Those present during the afternoon were Mrs. C. P. Mason, Bob Mason, Helen Mason, Mrs. John Boyle, Marguerite Boyle, Gertrude Boyle, Wilbur Jones, June Setzer, Mary Thomas, Betty Anne Jones, Mrs. Gomar Jones, and Pearl Westfall, Roberta and Janet Bedford and Mrs. J. It was also the observance of the birthday of Mrs. E. L. Chamblitt, and a huge birthday cake was served to the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills were pleasantly surprised on Friday night when a group of friends called on them in their new home in the Winter's apartments. Mrs. Mills will be remembered as Miss Jennie Johnston, whose wedding to Frank Mills was an event of Easter morning. Following an evening at cards refreshments were served. PROGRAM WILL BE GIVEN ON SUNDAY

It is a popular delusion that a man of affairs can not be a musician and that he can not be artist and business man. There have been instances where the two gifts have been bestowed upon an individual. In our own time there has been no such conspicuous example as General Charles G. Dawes, vice-president of the United States, lawyer, great banker, comptroller of the currency, brigadier general in the World War and foremost statesman in solving post-war international problems.

When such a man could find time to cultivate a taste for music and to become not a mere amateur, but a thorough musician and a recognized composer, is a mystery. It suggests that the vast majority of people never realize the value of time or how to make use of it. A composition by Vice-President Dawes is now being played on all classic programs in the east. It will be heard in Klamath Falls for the first time on Sunday evening, April 19, at the Presbyterian church and played upon the pipe organ by Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein in the program to be given by the Klamath Falls chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in commemoration of the 150th anniversary of the battles of Lexington and Concord.

CHLOQUIN SOCIETY HOLDS MEETING

The Women's Community Club of Chiloquin held their last meeting at Mrs. Jack Vallair's home at Ewauna camp. After the short business meeting was held, all were invited to a lovely dinner at the cook house, after which, by means of the company train they were taken out to where the large new log loader had just been put into use. After watching this operate for some time, the women were brought back to the camp by the train and from there to Chiloquin by autos. Everybody reported a lovely time.
A special meeting will be called for April 23, at the Chiloquin church. This is for the purpose of planning the new club house, which the ladies are to have built. A lot in West Chiloquin has already been donated to the club by Dr. Ritchie of Pasadena, California and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Spink.
