NEW FAD ON
Eighth Grade Pupils Designate Themselves From Lower Classmen

Fearing that they might be classed with the lower classmen of the Central school, the boys and girls of the eighth grade have purchased gay green and yellow caps that set saucily on their close cropped heads. The caps offset any fear of not being designated an "upper classman" for these people that, within six months, will be called upon again to wear the green cap of "Froshhood" in the high school on the hill.

OUT FOR TRACK
May 9 Drawing Close as Date Set for County Cider Meet

With the date, May 9, drawing closer, students of the Central school are utilizing every spare moment in preparing for the track and cider meet, in which every school in Klamath county, with the exception of a very few, will be represented. With the presentation of good weather once more, the boys were out on the school grounds, digging holes in the grass to mark their broad jump marks. A quite new innovation was introduced today when two of the more energetic carved swords from wooden sticks and began their fencing properties.

The De Laval is not a substitute for hand milking

It is "The Better Way of Milking"—better, cheaper, faster, cleaner and in every respect superior to any other method of milking—either hand or machine.

The De Laval Milker never tires, never varies in its action, never gets cross or irritable, but does its work day after day in a manner most pleasing to the cow.

De Laval Milker users are almost unanimous in their agreement that it increases production and keeps the cow's udders and teats in better condition. Its operation is simplicity itself. Adjustments are impossible and there is nothing to get out of order.

Let us tell you more about "The Better Way of Milking."

Breaks Record

This 17-year-old Toronto high school girl is the proud possessor of a world record. In a recent tournament she topped four feet, 11 inches in the running high jump, smashing the former mark by half an inch. She's named Evelyn Bramley and her achievement was all the more noteworthy in that it was the first time she had ever entered an open athletic event.
