MERRILL

The first entertainment to be given in the new community hall was the high school play given by the senior class.

The play was entitled "Nothing but the Truth" by Jas. Montgomery, and was a three act comedy. Lyle Merrill as Robert Bennett took the leading part. E. H. Ralston was Rolf Geertson; Dick Connelly, Melvin Moyer; Clarence Van Duse, Estlin Kiger, Bishop Doran; Kenneth Colwell, Gwendolyn Ralston; Madeline McClay, Mrs. E. M. Ralston; Mary Greybael, Schel Clark; Hallie Moore, Mable Jackson; Charlotte Geertson; Sable Jackson, Olive Hill; and Butler Kenneth Kiger. The story starts about whether one can tell "the truth" the whole truth, etc., and succeed in business. Mr. Ralston a broker has shady stock to sell and he wagers with Bob that he can't go twenty four hours without telling a lie. Bob accepts. He is in love with Gwen Ralston's daughter and has promised to double $10,000 for her for her charities. He almost loses several times, but in the end wins the bet. He declares he will never tell the truth again. It is a very, laughable play and the large crowd present enjoyed it to the fullest. Each and every one performed their parts well.

Following the play a dance was given at the Merrill hall. A large dance is scheduled at the Community hall May 1. The proceeds from this dance will go to help pay on the hall. Supper will be served by the ladies of the community.
