LORELLA

Charles Drew and Fred Stukel were visitors at the George Noble ranch on Saturday, closing a deal whereby they purchased 400 head of cattle from George Noble. Noble has been in the cattle business in Langell's Valley for the past twenty five years, but has recently purchased a band of 1260 sheep from Mr. Haskins of Merrill. Noble has two ranches besides a homestead on which he intends to pasture these sheep for the spring months and during lambing, after which time he expects to run them on the range. George Noble is fortunate in that he has three sons who will help him in taking care of the sheep, with the high price of wool in evidence Noble expects to do better financially than had he retained the cattle. The best wishes of his neighbors go with George in making the change.

Mrs. A. Petross and grandson, Jack Petross, are visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Gale for a week. Mrs. Petross expects to return to her home in Portland soon.

Mrs. Dave Turner and daughters, Helen and Marian have been sick for a week with the flu.

Ben Brown has been hired as ditch rider for the Langell Valley Irrigation ditches for the coming irrigation season.

T. M. Bieler has finished hauling posts for the Miller company at Horseshoe.

Mr. Pitts and family of Idaho, brother-in-law of John and Dave Turner have arrived in Langell's Valley to make their home. They will farm part of the Turner ranch, which is under irrigation. Langell's Valley community welcome newcomers and there is room for many more.

The matter of using the Market Road between the Keller Bridge and covering Wolf Flat as a "garbage dump" for tin cans was taken up at the last Community club and steps will be taken to investigate the law and see what can be done to stop this carelessness. Langell's Valley has a Market Road to be proud of, let every citizen do his utmost to banish the unsightly can piles which dot the road in places.

Mrs. T. B. Boggs is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Corpening at Merrill for an indefinite length of time.

Gene and Will Wilkerson have rented the old Ralston place for another year. The Ralston ranch was recently sold to a California concern, but Wilkerson will continue to live there.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kilgore entertained a number of friends at their home in upper Langell's Valley last Saturday evening. Owing to the bad condition of the roads a number of guests were unable to attend. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ticknor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Corkery, Mr. Cook, Shelly Kilgore and the host and hostess. The evening was spent with 500. Mrs. McDonald won ladies high score, and Mr. Cook won gentlemen's high score while consolations fell to Mr. Ticknor and Mrs. Hopkins. Refreshments were served at a late hour, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

SPRING FEVER puts the brakes on many of us every year. Thoughtlessly we continue to eat the heavy foods of winter that clog the system and slow us up. In grandmother's day everybody took a spring tonic.

Today, in the best of families, they change the diet.
Try it this spring. Eat Tru-Blu Grahams and milk daily for a week.

They're checkful of the vitamins that build strength, the mineral salts that build bone—and of bran that helps nature purify the blood.
