5 BALLOONISTS READY FOR BIG RACE TOMORROW

Elimination Contest to Select Winners for International Flight

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 30.—Five balloonists of national and international reputation, two of them representing the army, will soar away from Rose Crans field here tomorrow in the national elimination balloon race.

A prize of $1900 for the Litchfield trophy and a place in the international events awaits the winner of the race.

Every precaution is being made by the pilots and their aids to protect themselves against being marooned in Canadian wilds should the northeasterly winds predicted carry them that far.

W. T. Van Orman, winner last year, and his aide, C. K. Wollman of Akron, Ohio, will carry provisions for two weeks, a shot gun and a high power rifle. The other balloon, that piloted by Lieutenant William J. Flood of the army, will carry a radio.

OWNER OF 260- ROOM DOMICILE LIKED CELLAR

LONDON, Apr. 30.—Sir Everard Hambro, a director of the Bank of England, who died recently at the age of 83, was owner of one of the largest residences in the world, but he never called it a palace or a castle, preferring it to be known always merely as his home. The Hambro house in Dorsetshire was known to the neighbors as Milton Abbey, getting its name from the fact that originally it was a monastery. It was remodeled many years ago by Sir Everard and, taking in all the old nooks of the ancient building, was found to have about 260 rooms.

Sir Everard was extremely simple in his tastes, and one of his favorite remarks to his intimate friends was that his home contained about 255 rooms more than he required. Outside of his library, the favorite haunt of Sir Everard was the basement. Here he had fixed up a work shop, and spent many hours each day pottering with hammers and saws and other tools used by workers in wood. The banker frequently remarked that he had always, in a way, regretted that he had not been a cabinet maker by trade.

The Hambro London banking firm of which Sir Everard was the head, contained some of the finest financial traditions of the last century. The company assisted materially in the reconstruction of Italy after the financial disaster which overtook the country in the days of Napoleon.
