Business Calls California Woman to Klamath County This Week

Mrs. F. Morgan of San Luis Obispo, Calif., returned to her home this morning after spending the week in the city transacting business and looking into property interests. She also spent some time in Chiloquin where she transacted business. While in the city, Mrs. Morgan stopped in the Arcade hotel.

CHILOQUIN RANCHER
C. H. Lange Among Many Out of Town Visitors in Klamath Falls

C. H. Lange, of Chiloquin, owner of one of the most prosperous ranches on the Indian reservation, arrived in the city last night to remain over the week-end settling up affairs with Klamath Falls business men. Lange reports good conditions in the Chiloquin land country, aided materially, he said, by the occasional rains that have kept the soil in good condition.

Mrs. A. E. Gale, L. I. Harris, and Lester Boggs were in town yesterday from Langell's Valley. Mrs. Gale and Harris returned to their homes yesterday, but Boggs is still in town, expecting to leave tomorrow.

TO VISIT PARENTS
Miss Beatty to Assist Parents in Celebrating Golden Wedding

Miss Frances Beatty, president of the business women's club, is planning to leave Klamath Falls for Cottage Grove where she will spend a fortnight with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Beatty. Miss Beatty will leave May 10 and arrive in Cottage Grove in time to celebrate her mother's birthday, May 11. The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty will occur on May 31. They will have been married 50 years on that date, their wedding occurring May 31, 1875. Although Miss Beatty will be unable to attend the event, they will celebrate to a certain degree during her visit with them.

PATCHING CITY
Street Commissioner Busy With Tar Barrel Fixing Klamath Streets

Street Commissioner Franey spent the day patching up Klamath Falls streets with the competent aid of a number of assistants. The sections of the street where the pavement and macadam had worn away or fallen to pieces submitted to a radical change through the intervention of Franey and his bucket of tar. One bad spot on Eighth street on the corner of main was being fixed this morning at an early hour to make it dry for week-end traffic.

RODEO HEAD HERE
J. N. Givans to Confer With Those Interested in Buying Event

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Givans spent the day in Klamath Falls from their home in Bly where they own one of the largest ranches in that section. Givans is president of the Bly Rodeo Association and will spend the time while in the city conferring with those interested in the purchase of the rodeo. The Bly country is in good condition, according to Givans and the roads from Bly to Klamath Falls are at their best.

KEDRON CLUB
Meeting of Organization Postponed From Thursday Evening

Members of the Kedron club will not meet in the Presbyterian church tonight, for the fortnightly meeting of the club, due to the recent death of William Slough, who was the husband of Mrs. Slough, the teacher of the class. No definite date has been set by the president, Miss Vera Houston, or Mrs. Slough, for the next meeting.

ENJOY FISHING
C. S. Currin and Joe Brett Try Their Luck in Williamson River

Although they enjoyed better luck fishing in the Williamson river than previously in the Klamath river at Keno, C. S. Currin and Joe Brett still maintain the fishing for the season isn't up to "snuff." Currin and Brett cast their line in the Williamson river at the junction of Sprague river and then again farther along at the Sprague river dam. According to Currin, who by the way slipped and injured a knee on the rocks in the river, the waters are crowded with mullets by the hundreds, crowding over one another to get over the fish ladder. Not a single trout was seen to go over the ladder, said Currin, although he watched for an hour.

TWO DRUNKS IN JAIL
Indian and White Man Unable to Meet Fines Against Them

Twenty dollars was too high a tax to pay for their alcoholic indiscretions so an Indian and a white man both of whom plead guilty yesterday to intoxication were sent to jail by Police Judge Lem L. Gahagan. The two men will serve ten days, in event they can not pay their fines.

DRIVES TO FORT
County Agent Away for Day Attending to Duties of Office

C. A. Henderson, county agent, returned last night from the Fort Klamath country where he spent the entire day attending to business in connection with the duties of his office. At this time of the year, with crops being sowed and agricultural activity at its height, the county agent's duties carry him into every section of the county where he confers with farmers and livestockmen on their problems and proffers his assistance as county agent whenever needed.

H. J. Ticknor was in town today from Langell's Valley on business. Ticknor operates a large ranch on the west side of the valley.

LOYD DELAP LEAVES
Wife and Four Children Will Remain in Richmond for Time

Accompanied by his wife and four children, Loyd DeLap, clerk of the circuit court, left this morning for Richmond, Calif., the home of his wife's parents. Mrs. DeLap and children will remain in Richmond for several months where it is hoped that Mrs. DeLap's ill health will be improved. Mr. DeLap will return to Klamath Falls to resume his duties in a week. The oldest DeLap child will remain in Klamath Falls to attend school.

TO PICK COURSE
Meeting to be Held by Course Members to Determine Site

A meeting of all members of the recently formed golf club, will be held either the latter part of this week or the first of next, to determine on where the course will be located. It was decided at an informal luncheon this noon at the White Pelican hotel, attended by 30 paid up members of the club. All members of the club are asked to be present. Selection of the site will be by vote of the club membership.

REILING'S CONDITION BETTER
Olene Farmer Convalescing at Klamath General Hospital

Fred E. Reiling, Olene farmer, injured while at work on his farm Monday, will recover from the serious lacerations received when his scraper partially rolled over him. He is at the Klamath General hospital and will be kept in the hospital for some time to come.

SAN FRANCISCO
Very Few Registered From South at Hotel This Morning

San Francisco did not rate as highly on the hotel register this morning as she generally does, and a small number were signed from the Golden Gate city. Among the business men who are transacting business affairs in Klamath Falls during the week-end from San Francisco are W. J. Tanner and O. V. Bennett. Mrs. T. O. Willits is also stopping in the city on her way north. According to hotel men, the number of visitors in the city motoring to Klamath Falls is increasing 50 percent.

FROM CHILOQUIN
Reads Better to Reservation Town According to Residents

According to Chiloquin residents who have arrived in the city to spend the week-end, the roads from the reservation town to Klamath Falls are in exceptionally good condition. L. M. Cowen and brother, L. M. Cowen, are spending some time in the city transacting business.

ARRIVES IN CITY
Guests in White Pelican Hotel For Remainder of Week

Mrs. Varnel D. C. Beach, in company with her small son, arrived in Klamath Falls to spend the remainder of the week with her husband, Varnel Beach. Beach is manager of the Modoc Lumber company in Chiloquin. While in the city last night, they were guests of Mrs. Hope Kilbourne of the White Pelican hotel at a table at the dinner dance given in the hotel.

KUNEY IN CITY
Inspection of Work on Natron Cut-off Occupies Day

The second visit in a week to Klamath Falls was made last night by Max J. Kunev, railroad construction superintendent, who arrived in the city from his home in Grants Pass to inspect the work being completed near the Natron cut-off. Kunev reports the highway in splendid condition even after the brief thunder shower yesterday, which was expected to leave the road muddy in spots where the sun could not dry it immediately.

HALL TO OPEN
Community Hall Will Celebrate Opening With Dance Friday

Merrill community hall, the dream of all Merrill residents and ranchers of the Merrill district, is coming true and will be duly celebrated and christened with a dance on Friday night to which the entire "countryside" is planning to attend. Work on the community house has been going on all spring and as a result Merrill will have one of the largest and most complete community houses in Klamath county. Plans for other entertainment besides dancing is being discussed by the committees in charge.

PORTLAND GUESTS
City Registers More From Metropolitan Than Other Towns

Klamath Falls hotel registers indicate that Portland has the largest number of visitors in the city than any other town in either Oregon or California. Among those stopping at the White Pelican hotel from the city are Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Banta, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Cleaver, Frank W. Stall, Kenneth MacKay, F. S. Karlton, George A. Kildore, and W. O. Lutz.

PELICAN BAY DANCE
Invitation Issued for Monthly Affair in Club House

Invitations were issued the early part of the week to friends of members of the Pelican Bay Community club, for the dancing party to be given tonight in the club house at Pelican Bay. More than 200 guests were invited to the affair, which is given the latter part of each month on a Thursday night. The dances have been well attended by both the members of the club and guests due to the untiring efforts of the committees in charge.

GYMNASIUM CLASS
Enthusiasm Over Physical Education Growing Stronger

The second physical education class of the week will be conducted in the Scandinavian hall tonight, with Mrs. Florence Ollman as leader. According to those who have been attending the classes regularly, a large amount of good is being derived from the efforts extended by Mrs. Ollman. There has been some talk of putting on an exhibition later in the spring. However, no definite action has been taken.

USED CAR LOT TO BE OPENED HERE

Klamath Falls' first auto parking lot will soon be open for business, according to announcement today by W. W. Watts and T. L. B. Paige of Portland, who will open up the parking lot with modern apparatus for washing and greasing, shortly after the first of the month. The site of the parking lot will be on the northeast corner of Seventh and Pine streets.

The two men have gone into business with Louis Haugland and L. O. Coggins, who conduct a used car business on the corner of Eighth and Pine streets.

That there will be a demand for parking space in downtown sections is the belief of Mr. Watts, particularly if the proposed change in traffic regulations is effected.
