MUSHROOMS DUE TO MAKE ANNUAL BOW IN KLAMATH COUNTY

First warm spring rains which followed a short warm spell, brought out a flock of mushroom hunters quicker than the mushrooms themselves. Experience of several parties of mushroom seekers, hoping that the fickle fungi growth, would be out, has been unsuccessful, according to reports from a party of four men, including Dr. H. D. L. Stewart and Dr. Paul M. Noel. The local party drove out past Midland way and there tramped over several acres of soil, famous for its production of mushrooms in sizes as large as a baseball. Mrs. M. M. Motschenbacher also had poor luck in the same section. From now on, mushroom hunters will be on the look-out for the first crop which will pop up some night like popcorn pops in a fire.
