SLUGGING REDS WILL FEATURE IN FIGHT CARD

Wilbur Harrington Will Clash With Dummy Poole; Crim-Reigan

Two Indians, one a Klamath the other a Modoc, will guarantee the fight fans action in at least two bouts at the wrestling-boxing card in the Scandinavian hall Tuesday night. The two red men are Jack Crim, a Modoc Indian and good old reliable "Take 'em and Give 'em on the chin", otherwise known as Wilbur Harrington.

Harrington is one of the best drawing cards in these parts. It makes little difference whether he takes a flop or his opponent. The fact remains that when the chunky Indian is in the ring, there is action all the time. He has fought in the last two fight cards. In the first he was knocked out by Maurice Harris in the second round. In the second, he knocked a Shippington fighter just as cold in the latter part of the first round. Harrington will fight Dummy Poole who is well known in these parts. Poole is a willing fighter and clever. It is believed that he will give Harrington a stiff fight. The bout will be six rounds.

Jack Crim, in his last fight here, showed beyond a doubt that he could put up a clean and fast fight. His standing with the fans went down considerably recently when he lost his head in an exhibition bout that he lost in the fourth round on a foul. But when he met Felix Torres of Weed, flashy middleweight, he outpointed him all the way and fought cleanly from the opening bell to the close. Crim is a Modoc Indian, wiry and hard. Boxing experts hold that he shows more promise of development than any other local fighter in the county. Crim fights Kid Reigan in a six round semi-final bout at 150 pounds.

Henry Burke, local grappler is rounding into shape for his tussle with Charles Deabenderfer of Dunsmuir, for the mat supremacy of southern Oregon and northern California.

Chunky, burky and fast on his feet, Burke will furnish the fans with thrills Tuesday night when he tangles with Deabenderfer. The Dunsmuir head locker, is an old hand in the ring, and capable of causing Henry to extend himself at every turn.

Cold weather has gone north for the summer. We may soon wish it had decided to stay with us.

DOG DISCOVERS CONVICT WITH YOUNG GIRL

RANDOLPH, Vermont, May 2.—A German police dog today led three men to the barn of an abandoned farm in South Brookfield, where they found Earl Woodward, farm hand and a former convict and 11 year old Lucille Chatterton, who left her home in Granville with Woodward a week ago. Woodward was captured without resistance.

The capture brought to an undramatic end a week's search by armed posses through the wooded mountains townships in which Woodward had been a fugitive since he took the child from the home of her father, Walter Chatterton, last Friday night.

Although armed with a rifle and with five cartridges left, the former convict quietly submitted to arrest. Lucille, her rescuers said, wept when they took her away, and protested that she was afraid to go home.

Woodward defended his action in taking her away by saying that the child was afraid of her father.

"SILK HAT HURLEY" MARRIES AT 80

HAMPTON, Va., May 2.—John (Silk Hat John) Hurley, 80, former mayor of Salem, Mass., and his bride, formerly Mrs. Catherine A. Driscoll, 52, of Hartford, Conn., today were enjoying a honeymoon by visiting the historical spots on the Virginia peninsula. The three-times democratic mayor of Salem smiled as he displayed the poem that won his bride. His published plea "I want a wife", was answered by Mrs. Driscoll who said she had had newspaper experience and knew when she first read the poem that there must be merit to the man who could write it. "You're just the man I want," was her first reply to the ex-mayor's poem and after a brief correspondence she came here for the marriage.

HEALTH WORK IN SCHOOL REVIEWED

A resume of the activities of the county health unit in the city schools was made today by Miss Agnes B. Covalt, city school nurse, and working under the health unit system.

Miss Covalt summarized the health work under numerical heads as follows:

- 1. At Mills and Fairview schools, milk is given at recess to the underweight children. Most of this is paid for by the children, but some is furnished by the P. T. A. 2. Cafeterias are established at Riverside and Mills schools. 3. Daily games or byronic exercises are done under supervision. 4. School children are all inspected once a year and notices of defects are sent to parents. Home calls are frequently made. 5. Corrections of defects are urged and sometimes helped by charitable societies. 6. Children have been helped with clothing, wood and nourishment. 7. Babies are weighed and measured at the health office. 8. The pupils in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades and in some schools the seventh and eighth is interested in seeing this one of the important cities on the Pacific Coast. No locality in the West has the future that is store for this community. Official census in 1920 gave Klamath Falls a population of 4,801 and it is conservatively estimated to have at the present time between 7,500 and 8,000 people claiming this as their home.

Every Citizen of Klamath Falls

With vast agricultural and timber resources, and the building of through lines of railroads there is every reason to believe that Klamath Falls, the city of southern central Oregon, will continue to grow and prosper.

Did you ever stop to think

THAT the service given by your merchants has been tested and found reliable and enduring? BUY AT HOME!

AGAIN DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK—

If Klamath Falls was a city of twenty or thirty thousand how much more valuable your property in Klamath County would be—How much more desirable living conditions might be. And, did you ever try to figure how this or any other town can become a city without the support of its citizens—the whole-hearted support of all. BUY AT HOME!
