Rings of Golden PINEAPPLE
 The Pick of the Pack

Sun-drenched, enriched by the mellow rains of the tropics, you never tasted the equal of this Pineapple! The large, luscious rings are shaggy with sweetness because TUBEROSE Pineapple is left to ripen two weeks longer than other brands of pineapple.

Immediately upon being harvested, this choice Hawaiian fruit is canned in its own natural juices and a clear, rich syrup. In this way TUBEROSE Pineapple retains its full, fresh flavor to a remarkable degree. Most in demand of all fruits, Pineapple may be served plain as a dessert or breakfast fruit, or used in making delectable salads, cakes, pies, punch and icing.

In more than 200 other fruits, vegetables and sea-foods under the TUBEROSE label you are certain of this same superior quality! Yet you pay but a trifle more than for unknown brands.

At all leading grocers!

Error in Ad Brings Eager Mower Buyers

Through an error in proof-reading, an ad run by Mordoff and Woolf Friday contained the item of lawn mowers with the price given as $8.50. The ad as originally written by Mordoff and Woolf read "$8.50 up." Many of the mowers on display sell for much more than the $8.50 figure and some confusion was caused by thrifty Saturday-night buyers who knew a bargain when they saw it and wanted to take home $20.00 mowers for $8.50.
