

The FLORSHEIM SHOE

THE wider shapes, correctly styled by Florsheim, have that smart appearance that goes so well with the loose fitting clothes.

The Stadium

$10

K. SUGARMAN

"I ain't mad at nobody"

BABY BEEF CLUB NEW WRINKLE IN CLUB ACTIVITY

Poultry Club Organized at Malin Under Leadership of Dr. F. M. Trout

An innovation in county club work has been instituted under the direction of County Club Leader Frank Sexton with the establishment of a Baby Beef club.

Purpose of the new club is to raise beef until they are from eight to fifteen months old, and then ship them off to the market. How best to fatten the beef for market, will be the principal angle covered in the club work.

The club is composed of six members with F. H. McCornack, local club leader. President of the club is Frank McCornack Jr.; vice-president, Bill Tingley and Secretary, Kathryn Pope. The personnel of the club is, Tommy Watters, Don West, Frank McCornack Jr., Bill Tingley, Mildred Grohs and Kathryn Pope.

Poultry Club Organized

A poultry club has been organized at Malin with 11 members. Dr. F. M. Trout is local club leader and has started off the club work by donating hatching eggs to the club members. Clifford Shuck is president of the new club, Walter Bowbe is vice-president and Ellis Moyer, secretary.

The personnel of the club is Allen Cummings, Clifford Shuck, Francis Bowne, Walter Bowne, Carl Seigel, Willie Kunz, Marcella Seigel, Jimmie Hunnicutt, Ellis Moyer and Billy Stewart.

Both the exhibits of the poultry club and the Baby beef club will be exhibited at the county fair. Members of the Baby Beef club had their calves weighed May 1. They will be weighed again at the county fair and prizes will be awarded by the gain in weight and the condition of the beef.

Garden Club Personnel

Personnel of the Klamath Garden club composed of school children was announced today as follows: Wayne Whitney, Rowland Ulrich, Walter Timms, Joseph Bowdoin, Oswald Seim, Morton Yaden, William Timms, Clifford Yaden, Alfred Carlson, Francis Kranenburg, Dallas DeLap, Wallace Baldwin, Vera Bruely, Borghild Seim, Virginia Meyers, Ruth Vannice, Ruby Smith, Idalean Simpson, Myrtle North, Jack Bedford, Ralph Peyton, June Setzer, Alice North, Marie Hoak, Marguerite Erlings, Cyril Humphrey, DeWain DeLap, Armond Ulrich, Rex Davis, Gwendolyn Clay, Betty Simmons, Ada Dell Weir, Janet Bedford Ruth Auten, Mary Lewis, Burton Stinson, Elmer Wilkerson, Albert Powell, Bery Sheuy, Noel Upp, James Mitchell, Billy West, Charles Cummings, Walter West and Frederick Johnson.

Club leader is Mrs. A. C. Yaden. Exhibits of the club will be shown at the county fair next fall.

leader for the Midland school, is an artist in that line.

A daughter was born May 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gray at their home in the lower lake country.

F. J. Flowers and family called at the Hooper home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burnett were shopping with Klamath Falls merchants Tuesday.

Mrs. J. D. Hooper received a nice shipment of barred rock baby chicks this week.

Harry Witherill is preparing ground on the Sink Kee ranch where he will plant quite an acreage to potatoes.

KENO

Mrs. C. E. Burton and children are staying at the F. T. Nelson home at present. Mrs. Burton is convalescing from an attack of the flu.

Mildred and Reatha Hartell spent Sunday afternoon at the Snowgoose home.

Everett Puckett has just returned to Keno after a short trip to the northern part of the state.

Jessie Puckett and Mrs. Moore were shopping in Klamath Falls Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stocker and son, Edward, spent Sunday in the vicinity of the lava beds.

Mrs. Simmers and Lois and Cora Snowgoose were Klamath Falls visitors during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson of Klamath Falls have rented the Moore restaurant and will operate it for a time.

A very large crowd enjoyed the Keno dance Saturday night.

The heat of these spring days has proven too oppressive to certain of the young folks here that they have already opened the swimming

Every Ensemble Suit in Moe's Store Goes Saturday and Monday

Price

A most amazing offer—Each and every one of these Ensemble Suits are typical of the Woman's Store styles and quality—One of the foremost selling features of the season. The regular selling price was $30 to $79. Can you afford to pass these suits up at one half price?

The most popular materials of the season such as Twillbloom, Poiret Twill, Silk Jersey, Kasha, Flannel etc., in the new shades, Tan, Natural, Copper, Cocoa, Navy, etc. No previous comparison can be made to this event.

Make Your Choice and Pay Only

Price

Ensembles that are as new and fresh as the day. Nearly a full season ahead, make your choice early in the morning as they're sure to sell fast.

You may wear the Coat separate, or the Dress separate, or Ensemble, Three changes.

Coat Ensembles of the Finest Tailoring. Ensemble Suits in the Newest Modes. Ensembles at Moe's Sacrifice Selling. Saturday and Monday Selling only.

Be Sure to Tell Your Friends

See Them in our Window

Truth in Advertising

For Mothers Day

Do YOU wish to please her?

Of course you do and there is nothing that you could do that would please her more than to give her a box of our dainty home-made candies.

SEND ONE

Make her day a complete success. And while you are in try one of the cool refreshing drinks that only our new fountain can supply.

The Chocolate Shop

P. J. Zissos, Prop.

MIDLAND

A. C. Spence, who operates the Willits ranch near Midland, has just received a large shipment of seed and has the ground prepared to sow 80 acres to sugar beets as soon as the machinery arrives.

Cheaper Wood

BLOCK WOOD is down to the bargain SUMMER PRICES

Order a couple of loads each month through the summer at these cheap prices and you will be prepared for winter.

Peyton & Co.

"Wood to burn"

601 Main Phone 535

Mrs. Edna Flowers and Miss Helen Atchison were Klamath Falls visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Savick and children, Paul and Mary, were dinner guests at the Couchman home Friday evening.

Mrs. A. C. Ray made a short visit to Midland Saturday when returning to her home in Grants Pass from Merrill where she has been employed for the past few weeks.

While distributing May baskets Friday evening in company with her schoolmates, little Nadine Gregory was painfully injured about the neck and face when in the darkness, she came in contact with a barbed wire fence. The little girl was hurried to the Midland store where first aid measures were administered, and later returned with her parents to their Miller Island home. She was able to return to school on Monday.

A jolly good time is reported by those who attended the weenie and marshmallow roast which was staged by the Midland school Friday evening. After all had eaten their fill, the grown ups joined the youngsters in a number of lively outdoor games.

Practice for the county track meet goes merrily on, with marked improvement in the work of the contestants being shown daily. Almond Gregory who has been chosen yell

NOTED OREGON PIONEER DEAD

Robert M. Veatch, Prominent in Political Life of State, Passes

EUGENE, Ore., May 8.—Robert M. Veatch, "Uncle Bob", died at the home of his son, H. H. Veatch, at Cottage Grove yesterday, at the age of 81 years. He was born in Illinois, and crossed the plains to California in 1864, coming to Lane county in 1865.

He attended public schools at Creswell, later attending Willamette University and the Oregon Agricultural College. He was admitted to the bar but was never a practicing attorney.

He was a staunch Democrat and was elected to the lower house of the Oregon state legislature in 1882, and was re-elected in 1884. In 1886 he was sent to the Senate and was re-elected in 1890.

He was appointed the first registrar of the Roseburg land office and under President Cleveland's second administration.

Ever since 1872, Mr. Veatch attended the state conventions of his party and in 1900 he was a delegate to the Democratic national convention held in Kansas City.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at Cottage Grove.

DEMOLAY HOLDING STATE CONVENTION AT MEDFORD TODAY

MEDFORD, Ore., May 8.—The state convention of DeMolay opened here today with 150 delegates registered from all parts of Oregon, while 100 to 150 more are expected to register by noon. A large delegation from Portland with a patrol band is expected to arrive at 11 o'clock. This afternoon the delegates will attend the baseball game here between the Medford and Grants Pass high schools and this evening the entire convention will be moved to Ashland where a barbecue will be held and degrees conferred. The convention will close tomorrow with the selection of the convention city for next year.

Margaret O'Donnell of Tucson, Arizona, stopped in the city over night before continuing on her trip which took her into Chiloquin and other reservation towns where she will visit.

Sanitary Market Specials for Saturday

- Pot Roast of Beef, per lb. 18c
- 2 lbs. Shoulder Steak 35c
- Boil Beef, per lb. 12 1/2c
- Good Veal Roast, per lb. 18c
- 2 lbs. Veal Steaks 35c
- Veal Stew, per lb. 12 1/2c
- Good Lean Pork Roast, per lb. 25c
- Legs of Spring Lamb, per lb. 35c
- Broilers—Fresh Fryers—Good Fat Hens

Sanitary Market

Choice Meats Special Attention to Order Trade 7th and Main Phone 22