

SOCIETY

May is the last of the spring months and given over, more than any of the months of that season to festivities in honor of the passing of spring and the advent of summer. The number of bridge parties and afternoon teas given so far this month have stressed the spring motifs to a decided degree. Apple blossoms and spring flowers have been featured as the decorations and flowers, notes for all of these spring affairs.

A number of early summer house parties have been enjoyed during the past fortnight, for week-ends both last week and the last week in April were especially delightful and warm. Summer resorts are fast getting the cabins and beaches on the lakes completed for the tourists travel, which many prophecy will surpass any visitation during the past summers in Klamath county. Elections of officers in the clubs have been held during the past week in order to let the regular meeting of fortnightly clubs go until the resumption of regular club work in the fall.
