MALIN PERSONALS

 rors of Malin players, while Malin had one earned run, which was stolen by the umpire, who was either near sighted or fooled by a fluke play. Malin had a number of stolen bases to her credit while Klamath Falls was rather short. Klamath Falls had an unusually good infield and had it not been for the good work of these players the Klamath Falls pitcher would have been booted out of the box early in the game. The "lowly" Malin team is ready to play a return game with the highly exalted Klamath Falls team any time the letter has an open date, either during the season or in a post season game, and if played on the home grounds Malin will have a crowd out to see the game.

BORN: At Mazza, Oregon, May 12, 1925 to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCully, a daughter.

The Social Welfare club met at the home of Mrs. John B. Culey, with a good attendance. Important business matters were attended to and plans for future work were made.

Mrs. Jack Nelston is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Jellinek. Mrs. Nelston is a resident of Klamath Falls.

Mr. J. F. Pospisil has begun the erection of a building next to the Tulo Lake garage. Mr. Pospisil will move his shoe repairing shop into the new building.

KIRKFOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Burj Owsely spent the week end at Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Seburn left for Bend Friday on account of Mrs. Seburn's ill health.

Mrs. J. C. Johnson is now residing at Camp 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest, Mr. and Mrs. French motored to Klamath Falls Saturday afternoon.

We have some splendid musicians in camp who prove to be very interesting. Lorene Hoover, Dale Hoover and Mr. Cathey visited Lamm's camp last Sunday.

The logging operation is going very nicely. Camp No. 1 is still putting out its average of 22 cars daily, while Camp No. 2 is hitting along about 12 to 14.

Marlon Masten has resigned his position as "Bull cook" on the Ohio He says "Dutch" is too fast for him.

Mr. Masten will spend several days in Klamath Falls before returning to his home in Portland.

Helnie is having some trouble with one of the new kittens. He seems to think its due to improper food.

Mr. Brown and his Brown boys are now laying steel. So far they haven't made an average of footage to speak of. Perhaps they will make things fly next week.

Chas. Hagen just got in a new supply of Pep and Beer. Don't forget Chas. address boys.

Chas. Moore says when he gets a couple of bottles of that good old Scotch brew under his belt its no trouble at all to pile up the logs.

MERRILL

Mrs. C. E. Craig returned Wednesday from a visit of several weeks with relatives in Eugene and other Willamette Valley cities.

Mrs. W. Trotter left last week for Mabel, Oregon where she will make her home.

Mrs. Rose Clayton and Miss Ella Emmitt of Portland visited at the home of their cousin, Mrs. W. F. Hill last week. They left for Klamath Falls Saturday. They were in Klamath county to attend the golden wedding of their brother, R. A. Emmitt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dunn and family were visitors in Merrill Sunday, the guest of Gus Eksman.

Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Raymond and Arlene Taylor and Mr. Bud Hall drove to Pinehurst last week.

Mrs. J. H. Hobbs and Mrs. La Rout of Salem were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jinnette Sunday. Mrs. Hobbs expects to leave soon for Wilbur where she will make her home.

Mr. R. H. Anderson, R. L. Dalton, C. G. Merrill and Lyle Merrill returned Friday from Redding where they went to attend the funeral of Martha Margaret Merrill. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill stayed over in Klamath Falls, returning to Merrill Saturday.

Mrs. T. A. Barrows is quarantined at her home. Her little granddaughter, Rose Marie Barrows is ill with scarlet fever. The Bensley family is also ill with the fever.

The high school was fumigated last week.

There has been some complaint that there might be danger of scarlet fever from books at the library, but they wish it stated that the library has been thoroughly fumigated and all books there with the least suspicion about have been destroyed.

Mrs. Arthur Frazier returned Saturday evening from a week's visit with her parents in Susanville, California.

Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Stebbins of Klamath Falls visited at the home of Gus Eksman Sunday.

A large number of Merrill people attended the track meet in Klamath Falls Saturday. Merrill high returned with honors.

Invitations are out for the graduating exercises of the Merrill high school to be held at the Merrill Community hall Thursday, May 21. Those in the graduating class are: Charlotte and Rolf Geertson, Kenneth and Estin Kiger, Kenneth Colwell, Hallie Moore, Olive Hill, Mary Graybael, Melvin Moyer, Magdeline McClay and Orin Dillard. Their class colors are blue and gold. Their class flower the white rose and their motto, "The Higher We Rise, the Broader the View." This is the largest class that have ever been turned out from this school.

Miss Vera Offield spent the week-end with her parents.

Miss Mary Taylor was in from her school at Bryant mountain for the week-end and to attend the track meet at Klamath Falls Saturday.

Mothers Day was observed at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. The church was very prettily decorated with cut flowers and an excellent program was given by the Sunday school. One of the things out of the ordinary was the giving of a carnation to every mother present by Mrs. J. W. Scoggins S. S. class, "the live wires."

A message was received Tuesday of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fletcher. Mrs. Fletcher is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Offield.

Bad news from China. Tientsin cook killed 40 people. He did it with gunpowder, not baking powder.

Work wouldn't be so bad if you could do it for a hobby.
